Fraser doing the honours for the visitors, on a rink-wide pass from Williams.

The locals tied the score when Poole on a long pass from Sullivan slipped one past Stewart. In the third period both teams played hard but were unable to score. Overtime for ten minutes was called and again there was no score. In the next overtime period Murphy, on a short pass from Sullivan scored the winning goal.

School Hockey At Georgetown

On Saturday night two bang-up hockey games were played at the Georgetown rink, when the boys' and girls' teams from West Kent School in Charlottetown made the trip to Georgetown and engaged the Georgetown High School boys' and girls' teams in two action-packed games.

In the first encounter of the evening the West Kent girls won a close game from Georgetown High girls by a 3-2 score. This game was a crowd pleaser all the way. In the boys' game the locals were outplayed by a heavier and more experienced squad, which handed the locals a 17-6 defeat. This game produced some fine exhibitions of passing and stick handling but was not fully appreciated by the fans, due to the frequent arguing of players with the referees, and the rough checking of the heavier team from the city, which seemed to copy too closely some of the more rugged features of Big Four play.
