A PRESENTATION.—At the monthly meeting of the Caledonia Club of P. E. Island, held at their Club Room, on Tuesday, the 30th June inst., the President submitted to the members present two very fine pictures, the one a portrait of the late General Gordon, of Soudan renown, the other a steel engraving of Rob Roy Macgregor, of Scottish fame, presented to the Club by Wm. Sanderson, Esq., of Georgetown, as a token of his good wishes for our National Society, of which Mr. Sanderson is an honored member.

NEW LODGE.—On Wednesday evening last (the 1st inst.) a deputation from the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., of P. E. Island, proceeded to Stanley Bridge for the purpose of constituting Prince Edward Lodge No. 14, and installing the officers for the current year. It has commenced operations under the most favorable circumstances, and promises to be one of the best working in the jurisdiction. After the Lodge closed, the ladies of this picturesque village invited the brethren to partake of a well-prepared and substantial repast, where a goodly number of the fair sex and their gentlemen friends partook of the delicacies placed before them with evident appreciation. The evening was very pleasantly spent in listening to speeches from several gentlemen, and excellent singing by some of the ladies. At an early hour the company separated in peace and harmony, after singing "We Meet upon the Level," and "God Save the Queen."
