

The Recent Loan.

It took the Toronto Globe two days to muster sufficient courage to write up an article on Mr. Tilley's last loan. After this delay the Globe managed to say:

"The fuss made by the organs of the Dominion Government over the loan placed the other day on the London Stock Exchange shows more clearly than anything else could the state of extreme trepidation into which the whole party had fallen. The loan was an unguaranteed one at four per cent., and was disposed of at the VERY SATISFACTORY RATE OF 95."

The delay was probably occasioned by the consternation created amongst the members of the Globe staff by the "very satisfactory" announcement in reference to the loan.—And it will now be in order for the Globe and other Grit papers to reconcile the statements they have all along been making that the N. P. would literally destroy Canada's credit in England, with that contained in the extract quoted above, which is the first few sentences in the leading article of the Globe of Friday.—Moncton Times.

SUCCESS OF CANADIANS—SIR S. L. TILLEY
[AMONG THOSE PRESENT AT THE SHOOTING.]

TORONTO, July 21.—The following special cablegram appears in the Globe—

At Wimbledon to-day, Canada won a great success. Col. Gibson carried off the Prince of Wales prize, consisting of £100 and a badge. He scored 94 points at three ranges of two, five and six hundred yards, the highest possible score being 105 points. The score next to Col. Gibson was 91. Corp. Gray with a score of 80 points, wins a £5 prize. In the St. George's prizes, Lieut. Hunter, with a score of 51 points, wins £3. Asst. Surgeon Aiken 27 points, £2. In the last series of extra prizes private Ogg and Assistant Surgeon Aiken, with scores of 33 points, took the thirteenth and fourteenth prizes respectively. On all sides the Canadians are congratulated. Colonel Gibson's success is very pronounced. His score is a remarkably good one. The Duke of Cambridge visited the camp to-day. Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir John Rose, Ladies Warncliffe and Macdonald were among those present. The Duke inspected the Canadian team and expressed great pleasure at seeing them again. He congratulated them upon winning the Prince of Wales' prize, the second most important contest at the meeting. England, he said, did not grudge the Canadians the honor they won, for they form a part of the same empire, engaged in the same duty of defence. He concluded by assuring the Canadians that they would be always welcome here. Sir Michael Hicks Beach joined in the congratulations offered by His Grace the Duke of Cambridge and expressed the pleasure it afforded him to see the team again engaged in the contest. He took the opportunity of announcing that in future a certain proportion of the cadets from the military academy of Kingston would be allowed annually to take commissions in the British army. Col. Gzowski thanked the Duke and Sir Michael Hicks Beach for their visit. The weather is very fine and the camp is crowded with visitors.

A Laughable Incident.

Two hands on the Cunard steamer "Scotia" were engaged the other day in rolling off a cask, when, to the consternation and surprise of the persons so occupied and a number of bystanders, a voice was heard within the cask:

"Roll it easy, these plaguy nails hurt. I'd rather pay my passage than stand all this."

Holding up their hands, their visuals expanded to the size of two saucers, the laborers exclaimed:

"That beats the dickens!"

The mate coming up at this moment, and, unaware of the cause of delay, commenced cursing them for their dilatoriness, when from within the cask the voice came forth:

"You're nobody; let me out of this cask."

"What's that?" asked the mate.

"Why, it's me," said the voice. "I want to get out; I won't stand it any longer."

Just then Captain Franklin appeared on the scene and inquired the cause of delay.

"Stop your talking, and let me out of here, come from the cask."

Visions of a smuggled passenger, custom-house officers and the law's interference and delay, flitted through the genial captain's brain; and, taking in the situation at a glance, ordered the men to up-end the cask.

"Oh, don't! You'll kill me!" said the voice.

"Oh, how these nails prick. Look out, don't! again said the cased-up individual as the men were turning the cask.

"Cooper," said the captain, "head the cask, and take that man out."

As the adze sundered the hoops, and the head was coming out, the voice again broke forth:

"Be easy, now; is there any one about? I don't want to be caught."

Quite an interesting crowd had now gathered around the scene of action, and the entire crew were leaning over the railing, watching and waiting the culmination of events. That cask had been "below" two weeks. It was horrible to think of a human being thus cased up so long a time. Suddenly a loud guttural laugh broke forth, which made our hair stand on an end. The head had been raised, and the cask was filled with—bacon.

"This is getting interesting," said I to my friend. "Come, professor, let's go." And so we strolled along the docks together. My friend referred to was ZERA, the King of Ventriquoists; and whenever I meet the captain, we laugh together about the sad case of the cased-up passenger.—N. Y. Era.

THE Arichat correspondent of the North Sydney, C. B., Herald says:—There is a man living at Lower D'Escouse who has buried three wives and twenty-three children, and has one wife and ten children now living. His name is Pierman Petipas. Comparisons are invited.]

The Governor-General's Visit.

THE HON. A. A. McDONALD, who communicated with the Governor-General on behalf of the Caledonia Club, is advised that His Excellency's plans are not yet sufficiently matured to enable him to name the day on which he will visit the Island. His Excellency will, however, give ample notice of his intended visit.

City Schools.

BELOW will be found some interesting statistics respecting "the City Schools." There is no doubt that, on the whole, the schools exhibit, as the result of the work of the present year, a marked improvement. Perhaps the greatest advance was made by the Queen Square School; and none, we think, has retrograded. The staff of teachers is an excellent one; and—feeling that the eyes of the citizens are upon them—that an active, living interest is being taken in their work—they seem to have put forth all their powers. Doubtless they were materially assisted by the strivings and emulations excited among the pupils by the gold and silver medals offered and given by Messrs. Longworth, Hodgson, DeBlois, Haviland, Brecken, and by Mrs. E. J. Hodgson. The competition for these medals and for other prizes was exceedingly active among both boys and girls. It is a curious fact, too, that in the competition, the girls were the most successful. Miss Bella McLennan carried off the medal for proficiency in the English branches against all comers; and, in the endeavor to obtain other prizes open to both sexes, the girls proved themselves rather more than matches for the boys. This fact should make the boys apply themselves with increased diligence; for, if they do not, they will not, when they come of age, find themselves undisputed "lords of creation." The following are the

In mentioning the "City Schools" it would, perhaps, be wrong to omit "St. Peter's School"—which is an advantage to those, among others, who do not care to send their children to the common schools. In his address, at the distribution of prizes, at the end of the last term, Rev. Mr. Hodgson stated that, during the seven years that the school has been at work, over 120 pupils have been educated in it, and, as a proof that the bringing together of all classes is not a peculiar characteristic of state supported schools, he pointed out then that among its former pupils are to be found some studying for the learned professions, some apprenticed to trades, some in shops and offices, and some day laborers.

The school is under the personal supervision of the Rev. George W. Hodgson, who is assisted by Messrs. R. D. Bambrick and C. W. Wilson. The attendance during the year averaged 36.

The attendance at the tea party at Mount Stewart to-day was very large, and the tea, we learn, was the best of the season. But the rain came and destroyed the pleasure of the day, and compelled those who assembled to take refuge in the tents and neighboring houses, and there enjoy themselves as best they could.

THE Supreme Court resumed its session in this city yesterday. In the case of Robertson vs. Rochford a verdict of $39 was given for the plaintiff. The case of McKinnon vs. Costello, an act to recover the amount of wages, is now before the Court.

THE cricket match between the Foreigners and Natives came off at Victoria Park on Saturday. The coldness of the day did not seem in any way to check the ardor of the cricketers, and, judging by the number of spectators, the match must be a popular one. The Foreign team was the strongest they have yet brought on the ground, and the general opinion was that the Natives' chance of winning was small. The Foreigners won the toss and went to the wicket, but were soon disposed of by the Islanders, with the meagre score of forty-four runs. The natives then took their place, and played with such effect that when seven o'clock arrived and the stumps had to be drawn, their score had mounted to ninety, with two wickets to spare. The fielding of the foreigners was poor, while that of the Islanders was extremely good. We hope the vanquished will not lose heart, for we think a little more practice is all that is required to enable them to bring the return match to a very different issue.—Com.

Writing of the important change in the Government of Egypt, which was recently announced in our cable despatches, the London Times, of June 27th, says: "The transfer of power is announced as already complete. Prince Tewfik has been formally recognized by his father as Khedive; his succession has been publicly proclaimed; he has held his first official reception; good order and tranquility are reported as prevailing everywhere; and Prince Tewfik is now in fact and by right the reigning sovereign of Egypt in his father's place." Of the abdication of the late Khedive, the Times says that the bad government under which Egypt has of late been suffering, and the oppressions practised on the fellahen, are a chief part of the indictment under which Ismail Pasha has been condemned. As to the prospects presented by the change of rule, our London contemporary says that Egypt makes a fresh start under a new man, and presumably under a new system, and adds: "We wait with no little anxiety to learn what that new system is to be, what English and what Egyptian interests are to be safeguarded by it, and under what tutelage it is to be placed."
