Toronto Man Suffers Injuries

A Toronto man, Reginald Francis Gallant received a cut on the knee and lost two teeth when the car he was driving struck a telephone pole it was reported yesterday.

Reports indicated that the vehicle sustained $200 damage when it came in contact with the utility pole on the north side of Belmont Street early yesterday morning.

Damages totalled approximately $500 in a two-car collision at the corner of Water and Queen streets yesterday at 5 o'clock.

A 1964 Valiant operated by Alan McCallum, 57 Prince Street sustained about $300, while a 1966 Meteor driven by Ernest R. Johnston, 13 Stewart Street sustained $300 damage. Mr. McCallum was travelling west on Water Street while Mr. Johnston was proceeding north on Queen at the time of the accident.
