Yearbook

The yearbook editor for the 1987-88 yearbook wishes to announce that she will accept pictures from any student of on-campus events that would be appropriate to print in the yearbook. Photos should be black/white but color may be accepted.

The best photos received will be printed.

Please include a description of the event to include with the photo.

Fixed Link Lecture

March 14, 1988

"The First Fixed Link: Geological Processes, Past and Present, in Northumberland Strait" will be the title of a lecture delivered by research scientist Kate Kranck of the Bedford Institute of Oceanography. The lecture, which is the third in the current Island Lecture Series, will be given on Monday, March 14 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Hon. George Coles Building, Charlottetown. The series is jointly sponsored by the Institute of Island Studies at UPEI and the PEI Museum and Heritage Foundation. This lecture is public and free of charge.
