

From North Cape to East Point the Dial points to L. E. PROWSE, THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MAN, and singles him out as the Beacon Light and Guiding Star of the Clothing Business of Prince Edward Island.

If the terrible cannonading we have given the POPULAR Clothing Stores have caused them to put on their war paint and come out in their true color, we fear them not. They are Windy, but HARMLESS. They neither have the courage nor brains to take the lead; but, Spaniel like, endeavor to follow and imitate. BUT VERILY THEY FAILETH.

WE MEAN BUSINESS!

All Wool Pants, 95 cents; Good Tweed Overcoats, $1.95; Good Tweed Coats, 98 cents; and our WHOLE STOCK of Clothing at worse than SLAUGHTER PRICES for 30 DAYS. TOILERS AND WAGE EARNERS!—You have felt our influence in the way of low prices for good Clothing since we opened business, getting a good full dollar's worth of goods for every dollar you spent with us. You have received goods that will give you satisfaction at moderate prices. The Pope and Ireland.

MGR. PERSICO'S REPORT: IT IS SATISFACTORY BUT WILL NOT BE PUBLISHED.

A Rome despatch says that a general belief has prevailed there that Mgr. Persico's reports to the Pope on his mission to Ireland would be published during the first week of the new year. Statements have been made from time to time on the alleged semi-official authority of the Vatican, that the report might be expected in January, and that it would deal very harshly with the Irish people, and display great severity with regard to the parish priests, who, it is claimed, assist in carrying on the Plan of Campaign. But word has now been passed around to the effect that Mgr. Persico's report will remain a secret. Rumor has it that the Pope has received sound information from the Irish archbishops and bishops about the public sentiment in that country, and that he concludes it to be unwise to do anything further to irritate the people. A correspondent sought to obtain the facts from Mgr. Persico himself, and called on the Right Reverend Prelate at the Cappuccini Monastery, where he is staying. He was very courteous, and said that he knew nothing whatever about the public rumors and conjectures concerning the publication of his report. "I made my report to the Pope," he said, "and His Holiness is quite satisfied with it. So far as I am concerned, my mission is ended. But I do not believe that my report will be published." "What are your own impressions on the present condition of Ireland?" "I think," answered the Monsignor, "that it will be a long time before matters go smoothly in Ireland. The tenants have on their side a great deal to complain of, and in many cases I found them to be in the right. The feeling of hatred against the landlords, caused by long-continued injustice, has been growing for a long time and is very deep-rooted. But the general feeling against England is not so bitter as some people would like to make it out to be. I was much surprised when taking with several Nationalists to hear them depreciate all talk about absolute separation from England. They want Home Rule and that's all." "Are you in favor of giving it to them, Monsignor?" "Well," he replied, rather guardedly, "I am certain that if they did get it things would go a great deal better in Ireland than they do now. At least the Government might try it and see how it works. I was astonished to find," continued the Monsignor, "that the masses of Irish people have formed a very mistaken idea about the Pope. They think that he is using his influence against them in a manner that tends to menace Ireland's future prosperity. This is not so. His Holiness is seriously concerned about the miserable state of the lower classes of Ireland, and is continually urging the Irish bishops to try to look after them a little more than they do. That is all I am at liberty to say to you. The Pope has desired me to be reticent on the subject."

POLICE COURT.—The Stipendiary Magistrate is evidently determined to suppress drunkenness and vagrancy. This morning he fined John Ring and Joseph Valley, two well-known "bums," $90 or 90 days each. As they did not have the amount necessary to secure their release about their person when the sentence was passed, and there was no prospect of obtaining it within a reasonable time, they were escorted to jail by a guard of honor, composed of two police officers. One Scott Act case was adjourned.

The ex-Empress Eugenie was in Paris last week, and, with sunken cheeks, lustreless eyes and vacillating step. She walked alone and noticed in the garden of the Tuileries, where formerly she reigned supreme, and she quietly attended mass in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, where, as Mile. de Montijo, she was married to the Emperor of the French.

The Upright Man.

"The man of life upright,
Whose guileless heart is free
From all dishonest deeds,
Or thought of vanity;

"The man whose silent days
In harmless joys are spent,
Whom hopes cannot delude
Nor sorrow disconcert;

"That man needs neither towers
Nor armor for defence,
Nor secret vaults to fly
From thunder's violence;

"He only can behold
With unafrighted eyes,
The horrors of the deep
And terrors of the skies.

"Thus scorning all the cares
That fate or fortune brings,
He makes the heaven his book,
His wisdom heavenly things;

"Good thoughts his only friends,
His wealth a well-spent age,
The earth his sober inn
And quiet pilgrimage."
