NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Roman Catholic schools in the New Orleans archdiocese will be desegregated next fall, it was disclosed by Msgr. Henry Bezan, superintendent of the 100 parishes and diocesan architectural school system.

An announcement from Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel, read by Bishop Bezan, did not mention the word "desegregation," but it said "effective at the time of registration for the 1962 school session, all Catholic children may apply for admission to the Catholic schools of the archdiocese according to accepted educational standards."

Registration dates for all Catholic schools were set for April 15-14.

State Senator E. W. Gravelot said the announcement "may have a severe reaction from a segregated - minded legislature," though he declined to say what steps the legislators might take.

Four Social Institutions Seen For Young Offenders

BY DON HAINRIGT

OTTAWA (CP) — Four special institutions for "young offenders" will soon be built by the federal government, a legislative committee has announced.

He said it is hoped that these special projects — one each in the Atlantic provinces, Quebec, Ontario and the West — will be financed within the age limit — from other penitentiary inmates. The emphasis would be not only on custody but also on treatment and rehabilitation.

The minister gave no further details.

(At present, full segregation of juvenile delinquents serving federal prison terms has been impossible due to lack of facilities. In the year ended March 31, 1961, 1000 persons under 21 were sent to federal penitentiaries.)

Mr. Fulton mentioned the new building program in context with his department's current study of juvenile delinquency. The departmental committee already has heard argument from interested groups in several cities, he said.
