

Yankees, Dodgers Win 2; Tigers Defeat Red Sox

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Skowron's eighth inning single scored Gil McDougald with the run that gave New York Yankees a 5-4 victory over Kansas City Athletics Wednesday and a sweep of a doubleheader at Yankee Stadium. The Yankees, with Bob Turley allowing only five hits and Mickey Mantle clouting his 28th homer, won the opener, 2-0.

Don Larsen received credit for the second-game triumph. Allowing only two hits, he pitched eight innings and Art Ditmar worked a hitless ninth after Larsen went out for a pinch-hitter.

Errors by Bobby Richardson and McDougald set up the Kansas City runs in the ninth. The Yankees bounced back, finally tied the score in the fifth on McDougald's three straight singles with none out in the eighth.

Mantle, who walked twice for a personal season's high of 114, homered in the seventh inning of the opener off Wally Burnette, who took over in relief of loser Virgil Trucks.

BOSTON (AP) — Detroit Tigers bunched a homer, a bunt single and three doubles for four runs in the fifth inning to defeat Boston Red Sox 5-3 Wednesday. Winner Jim Bunning needed help from Harry Byrd in the eighth inning when Boston added its third run. Boston's Willard Nixon retired the first 11 batters in order before singles by Frank Bolling and Al Kaline and an error gave Detroit a run in the fourth.

The Red Sox tied it on Ted Lepcio's homer and went ahead on a single by Billy Consolo, an infield out and a single by Nixon.

The Tigers then erupted with their game-deciding rally in the fifth.

CHICAGO (AP) — Brooklyn Dodgers rode two dramatic ninth inning rallies to a doubleheader sweep, 3-2 and 2-1, over Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

Dodger pitcher, Ed Roebuck, got credit for both victories.

Tied going into the last round of the first game, the Dodgers powered three straight singles to produce the winning run after two were out. Cub pitcher Bob Rush took his 12th defeat.

Trailing 1-0 in the ninth of the nightcap, the Dodgers blended two singles and two walks with losing pitcher Don Elston's throwing error on an attempted pick-off and scored twice.

In closing out the month of July, the third-place Dodgers accounted for 16 victories against six setbacks since the all-star game—the fastest pace in the National League.

After Duke Snider poled his 25th and 26th home runs to keep the Dodgers in contention against Rush in the opener, Roy Campanella, pinch batter Elmer Valo, and Junior Gilliam stroked the singles to produce the payoff run.

This spurt made Roebuck the winner of his second decision, but the day wasn't over as far as Ed was concerned.

He came back in relief for Roger Craig in the eighth of the second game to receive credit for his second win of the day.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ray Narleski of Cleveland Indians blanked Baltimore Orioles 4-0 on six hits Wednesday night and extended Baltimore's runless streak to 30 consecutive innings.

Gene Woodling hit his ninth homer and two singles and Bob Avila clubbed a single, double and triple to pace the 11-hit Cleveland attack.

Narleski gave up five walks along with the six hits, but he was tough in the clutch as he left 10 runners stranded.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Led by old pro Alvin Dark's four hits and the steady seven-hit pitching of Herm Wehmeier, St. Louis Cardinals stubbornly stayed on the heels of first-place Milwaukee Wednesday night by beating New York Giants 5-1.

Dark once again was at his best against his former teammates with a perfect 4-for-4 night, all singles, and two runs batted in.

The victory was the eighth in 10 games in the Cardinals' current home stand and kept them a half-game behind the Braves.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Larry Doby collected four singles in as many chances Wednesday night to lead Chicago White Sox to a 6-5 victory over Washington. Roy Sievers slammed his 27th homer for the Senators off winner Bob Keegan in the seventh inning with none aboard.

Both clubs employed five pitchers. The White Sox were forced to throttle a rally by the Senators in the ninth when successive doubles by Lou Berberet and Faye Throbberry nudged Washington within a run of Chicago.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The league-leading Milwaukee Braves slugged 11 hits—nine of them off starter and loser Bob Purkey—as they beat Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 Wednesday night.

Bob Buhl, taking his 13th victory against six losses, scattered five singles in earlier innings and then lost a shutout in the ninth when Dick Groat and Bob Skinner doubled and Hank Foiles, third of the Pirates catchers, singled.

Bobby Bragan, the Pirates' manager, was thrown out of the game in the bottom of the fifth when he held his nose between thumb and fore finger following a call by umpire Stan Landes.

Before he departed Bragan walked onto the field sipping an orange drink through a straw. He offered each of the umpires a sip before he finally was banished from the game.

Braves Defeat Pirates 15-5

The Braves drubbed the Pirates 15-5 in a regular league game of the Babe Ruth Circuit in Summer-side last evening. John Bethel pitched for Braves and gave up only 4 hits while two Pirate pitchers, Don McInnis and Bobby Gallant were being touched for 9 safe blows. Joey Trainor led the Braves with the bluegen, hitting 2 singles and a grand slam home run in four tries. The round-tripper was the result of a bad hop past the third baseman and the apple rolled out of the field. Jimmy Christmas also hit a grand slam homer, a very long ball to deep centre. It was his lone hit in four trips. John Bethel and David Arsenault each hit 2 for 3, including a double each. Edmund Richard was robbed of a home run by batting out of order. He was called out. Don McInnis hit a home run for the Pirates, the second in as many nights.

Grims Presence All Important

NEW YORK (AP) — In a season in which little has turned out the way he expected, manager Casey Stengel of New York Yankees is taking a deep bow in the direction of B.B. Grim.

A sore-arm case on and off the last two seasons, Grim suddenly has developed into the Ace of the Yankee pitching staff and, to Stengel, the main reason the Yanks hold first place in the American League over Chicago White Sox.

The Brooklyn-born righthander has been doing it from the bullpen—and often—to rescue such faltering Yankee starters as Johnny Kucks, Don Larsen, Bob Turley, and late Tom Sturdivant.

Add Whitely Ford's continuing arm and shoulder troubles, and Bobby Shantz' leudowa after a brilliant start, Grim's presence has become all the more important.

Stengel has waved in Grim 29 times this season, each game a tough one. Grim has turned up a winner 10 times and has saved as many while losing only three.

"To win 'em like that, you've got to have something when the going is rough," Stengel said Tuesday. "Don't forget that. Grim is in there in those late innings when a bad pitch can lose the ball game. I'm glad to say he's been all right so far."

Case grinned when he said "all right," a good reason. In 29 games, Grim has pitched 47 1/3 innings, allowing 35 hits, striking out 40, and permitting only 12 earned runs. He has not been scored on in his last seven appearances and has given up only two runs in his last 13 appearances dating back to June 16.

Rugged Fight Expected Tonight At Sports Arena

Pre-flight ticket sales smashed all previous records here yesterday as fight fans grabbed the 17 seats for tonight's long-awaited rematch between Coby McCluskey of Charlottetown and young, hard hitting Dick Hall of Boston.

The steady ticket sale throughout the day indicated that interest has reached a fever pitch for tonight's fight and officials are expecting one of the largest crowds in the last decade to be on hand for tonight's rousing scrap.

And if it is anything like the July 4 fight between these same two competitors fans will see one of the best bouts of their lives. Just less than a month ago McCluskey and Hall traded punches in a savage duel that has fight fans still talking whenever they meet.

Once again the boys are scheduled for ten rounds although it could end anytime along the route. Hall packs the explosive power in either hand and McCluskey too can put his man away for the night. Both boys weigh 158.

But great and all as the interest is in the main bout, the semifinal between "Ace" McCluskey, 168, of Charlottetown and Mickey Ryan, 170, of Brockton, Mass., also has the fight fans stirring.

"Ace" ends a four-year retirement here tonight when he answers the bell for the first round. A retired veteran at the age of 25 and now on the comeback trail at the age of 29, "Ace" once more hopes to fight his way back into the limelight that once saw him fight a dozen times in Madison Square Garden.

The McCluskey brothers along with their trainer and manager Tom McCluskey arrived in the City yesterday evening and worked out at the Sports Arena last night. Both fighters look to be in perfect condition and both are confident of winning tonight.

"Ace" in particular excluded loads of confidence when told he was meeting a tough young fellow who was a finalist in the United States Coast Guard eliminations and who has 11 pro fights behind him. "Ace" scoffed and retorted "Just tell the kid I have 120 fights under my belt."

Coby however was more reticent about his chances. I am going to win but I know that this Hall is a tough fighter. "Asked if he had any new strategy for this fight Coby declined an answer, but he left the impression that there was a master plan working to take care of Hall tonight.

Tom Crowley, Boston sports promoter along with his proteges, Dick Hall, Mickey Ryan and O'Malley were due in the City later in the evening.

COBY MCCLUSKEY

The fights will get underway at 8:30 with the doors and box office at the Arena to open at 7:30. Tickets will be sold throughout the day at Fred Lambros, corner of Great George and Kent Streets. The officials and judges will be announced tonight at ringside.

Electronic Lure Has Been Banned Throughout Canada

By JACK VAN DUSEN
 OTTAWA (CP) — An almost-infallible electronic lure has been snatched from the hands of waterfowl hunters in Canada.

An electronic bird-calling device — reported capable of luring ducks, geese and other waterfowl from distances of up to three miles to within the range of the hunter's gun — proved so effective in the United States it is being outlawed throughout Canada.

An order-in-council Wednesday amended the migratory bird regulations to make it unlawful for migratory game birds to be hunted "by use or aid of electrically-operated calling devices."

The order is a direct result of a demonstration here June 26 at Canada's federal-provincial wildlife conference of one of the controversial devices.

Winston Mair, chief of the Canadian wildlife service, said Wednesday that use of the calling device in Canada had not yet become a problem. The ban would ensure it didn't.

player that they passed a resolution urging "the use of electronic devices in the hunting of migratory birds in Canada be prohibited."

Provincial game association delegates from Ontario and Quebec immediately said they would back any ban.

Mr. Johnson gave these statistics on the "deplavatingly-effective" machines in the U.S.:

On one farm where there were four shooting pits, 1,285 geese were killed during one season with the help of the device. In another case, five hunters killed their limit in 90 minutes and on two occasions during that brief period as many as 2,000 geese hovered over their blind.

Calling devices were blamed for "a kill and crippling loss" of 100,000 geese last fall in one east coast state.

Winston Mair, chief of the Canadian wildlife service, said Wednesday that use of the calling device in Canada had not yet become a problem. The ban would ensure it didn't.

SPORTS TRAIL

Life May Hang On Decision Of Referee In Boxing Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — No other sports official carries a responsibility to match that of a fight referee.

A umpire can stop a ball game at his discretion. A referee of some other conditions, stalling or some other factor. Nobody is hurt, although feelings might be ruffled.

A golf official can disqualify a player because of some rule infraction. Only the player is affected, and his injury is to his pride.

A racing official can disqualify a winning horse, and the greatest harm is to the pocketbooks of those who bet on the steed.

But a life may hang on the judgment of a fight referee.

There are those who expressed disapproval when Ruby Goldstein, with flawless judgment, stopped the slaughter of Tommy Hurricane-Jackson by Floyd Patterson in the 10th round of the heavyweight championship bout at the Polo Grounds Monday night.

NEEDS COURAGE
 Jackson still was on his feet, wasn't he? He had come back from three knockdowns, hadn't he? Why not wait and see just how tough he was, and whether Patterson had punch enough to put him down to stay?

It takes moral courage to make the decision Goldstein made. He knew there would be disapproval in some quarters.

Goldstein is a former fighter himself. He is not squeamish. As third man in the ring he's closest to the action, can see the effect of punches, knows from personal experience how serious a man can take without serious physical harm.

So he stepped in and stopped it. "Sure, Jackson probably could have taken 15 or 20 more punches," he said. "But he wasn't going anywhere in this fight except maybe to a hospital. I didn't want him to get seriously hurt. If I had thought him capable of landing the one big punch which might win for him, I would have given him that chance. But he can't punch."

Ironically, Jackson did go to hospital the day after the fight suffering a bruised kidney. Hospital officials said he would remain there several days for observation.

Basilio Vows To Get Ray Robinson In The Ring

NEW YORK (AP) — Kept waiting for more than an hour by Ray Robinson, welterweight champion Carmen Basilio vowed Wednesday "I'll take him off his high horse in the ring."

The occasion was the formal signing of the two champions for their 15-round middleweight title fight at Yankee Stadium Sept. 23.

After Robinson, who had spent more than two hours studying the return bout clause, finally affixed his signature to the contract, Basilio heaved a deep sigh, and said "at last."

"This is what I've been waiting for," said the 30-year-old fighter from Chittango, N.Y. "In my book, he's greedy, and arrogant, and I despise him. I can't wait to get in the ring with him."

Basilio never has disguised his dislike for Sugar Ray.

Under the terms of the contract, Robinson, who is defending his 160-pound middleweight title, will get 45 per cent of the gate and the theatre-television receipts. Basilio will get 30 per cent. Promoter James D. Norris of the International Boxing Club said he expected the fight to gross more than $750,000, with the theatre-TV receipts adding at least another $250,000.

If Basilio wins, they will meet in a return bout within 90 days. Each will collect 30 per cent.

Originally Basilio had accepted a 25 per cent offer from the IBC, which had hoped to sign Robinson for 40 per cent. But the 37-year-old middleweight king insisted on 45 per cent.

"He's greedy," said Basilio. "He wants all the money and he knows he won't be able to keep most of it because of income taxes."
