THE Legislative Council has thrown out the Bill providing a steam ferry for Cardigan River. This is the return Mr. Annear gets for perpetuating the existence of this effete body. A real improvement, from which his constituents would have largely benefited, was denied by the men whose little stipend Mr. Annear preserved.

BRUTAL.—About noon to-day a heifer was frolicking at the entrance of a yard on Upper Great George street. While so doing a fellow—whom it would be libelous to call a man—opened a jack-knife, and inflicted several ugly gashes on the forehead of the poor dumb animal. Such an inhuman act should not be permitted to go unpunished. It is to be hoped that the fiend will be brought to justice. Verily, a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals is much needed in the city.

My stock this year will be most complete, having ordered from England, Montreal and the United States.—W.M. R. WATSON. [2w a7

Found Dead.

A MAN named James McSwain was found dead at the head of Connolly's Breastwork at four o'clock this evening. The deceased left his home at Eldon, Belfast, on Saturday last, and walked to this city. He slept at the "North American" on Sunday night, and left early on Monday morning. Since then he was unheard of, although anxiously sought after by his friends. When found by Mr. Felix McGuigan this evening, he was lying face downwards behind a pile of boards, about thirty yards from the end of the wharf. His body was frozen stiff, and his face much disfigured. Blood, previous to death, had flown from his mouth, caused no doubt, by a fall, as he walked down the rickety wharf. When searched, the sum of thirty-four dollars, and papers addressed to "James McSwain, Eldon, Belfast," was found on his person. The deceased was a man about five feet eight inches tall, dark complexion, well dressed, and apparently about thirty-five years of age. An inquest will be held this evening. We learn that the deceased was a school-teacher and a brother of Dr. McSwain.

August Flower.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1863, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sickheadache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.
