

Yes! We hope this year IS a prosperous one for you and yours—and that it will bring you good health and happiness! We look forward to serving you during the bright new year ahead.

GEO. T. CLARKE JEWELLER

No one regrets the Old Year's passing ... for 1952 wipes the slate clean ... gives the whole world a chance to start afresh. We hope ... we really do ... that the New Year brings you and yours every happiness.

Clow-Hughes Wedding

The sun shone brightly on November the sixth as Miss Marjorie Hughes and Mr. Earl Clow became united in the holy bonds of matrimony in St. James' Church, Summerside. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Murray who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Hymns were sung very sweetly during the Mass by Miss Myrtle Perry, niece of the bride accompanied on the organ by Mrs. James B. Croken who also played the wedding march. The ushers were Mr. Gerald Hughes and Mr. Lloyd McCourt.

The winsome bride looked very lovely in a full length gown of white satin with finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Irene Hughes who wore a full length dress of Nile green taffeta with matching hat and mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Ivan Clow, brother of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marshall Hughes and the late Marshall Hughes of Freetown and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Clow of Emerald.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Birch Hill Tourist Home, Summerside, where dinner was served to about forty guests. The tables were decorated with cut flowers and lighted candles and the bride's table was centred with a beautiful three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. When all had partaken of the bountiful repast Mr. John A. Smith acted as chairman and in a few well chosen words called on Father Murray to make a toast to the bride and groom.

Before proposing the toast Father Murray congratulated the bride and groom and also their parents on the happy occasion. The chairman then called on several other guests who responded all speaking very highly of both the bride and groom. The groom then very fittingly responded to the toast. Afterwards the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes.

On their return they were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents where friends and neighbors from surrounding districts gathered to congratulate the young couple. An address was read by Mr. Lloyd McCourt and a substantial sum of money presented to them by Mr. Harold McCourt on behalf of those present. There were also many other beautiful and useful gifts testifying to the popularity of this young couple. Mr. Clow on behalf of his bride and himself thanked everyone for their kindness and extended an invitation to all to visit them in the near future.

Lunch was then served by Mrs. Clow, assisted by friends and neighbours, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Delightful music was rendered by Mr. L. Bolger, Mr. Ralph Hardy and Mr. Peter Perry. At a late hour all departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Clow many years of happy wedded life.

delicious lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Love of Borden had as their guest on Sunday, December 23rd, Mrs. Love's uncle, Mr. Thomas Henderson of Long Creek. Mr. Henderson who will have reached his ninety-fifth year in February, was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle MacPhail, and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne MacPhail, all of Long Creek.

A number of young airmen from the U.K. were entertained over the holiday season in Borden. Flight Cadets Roy Tuayle and David Hook spent their time with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Chappell while P.O. Alvin Humphreys and Kenneth Knowles were entertained by Flight Cadets John Crooks and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jardine.

Capt. and Mrs. Herb MacKenzie Borden, had as their guests over the holiday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie, Winsloe; Mr. and Mrs. Alec MacDowell and two sons, Great Village, N.S.; Mrs. Brewer Auld and son Brewer and daughter Katherine, of Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacLure, Brackley; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie and two sons Crapaud.

Sunday, December 16th, was a very special day in the lives of the children of Borden United Church Sunday School. They had full charge of the proceedings which took the form of a white gift service. The offerings presented by each class went toward the Missionary and Maintenance Fund. The church building lends itself beautifully to a children's service and the choir, composed of senior girls and boys, led in the singing. Lloyd Palmer opened the worship

On Tuesday, Dec. 18th, Mount Royal School held their pre-Christmas concert. Teacher is Miss Bernice Gallant of Woodstock.

Mrs. Hughie Gillis and infant daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallant on Tuesday night, Dec. 18th.

Mrs. Peter Richard of Duvar is now a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy return to health and home.

The Misses Evelyn, Meurma, and Thelma Cook who have been employed in Halifax, arrived in Howlan by train on Saturday night Dec. 15th, and spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Caruthers. On Monday followed by a hymn. The Scripture was read by Malcolm Lodge and Donnie Gillis led in prayer. Then came the presentation of white gifts from the primary class by Greta Pike, juniors by Bonnie MacLean, intermediate by Murdoch Jardine and senior by Freddie Leard and Joan Waddell. These were accompanied by presentation verses read by four C.G.I.T. members, Marjorie Campbell, Betty Currie Hazel MacKenzie and Elizabeth Jay. The junior choir sang "We Would See Jesus". Mrs. Coggin, superintendent of the Sunday School, gave the Christmas story. At the close each member of the Sunday School was given a gift and a pretty box of candy by their teachers.

On Friday evening, December 21st, the C.G.I.T. girls, Borden, entertained the boys of Mrs. Jardine's class at a Christmas party in the Borden United Church Hall. Some twenty-four young people enjoyed an evening of Christmas games and relays under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Toombs and Mrs. Harold Coggin. Lunch was served at a prettily decorated table and the evening concluded with the singing of "Taps".

Special music by the choir featured the Christmas service in Borden United Church on Sunday, Dec. 23rd. In keeping with the sacred and festive season the church was tastefully decorated by members of the Sunday School staff and Social Club. Rev. W. B. Crowe, the pastor, led the large congregation in the beautiful worship service. Lighted only by candles placed in the chancel and the Christmas tree the choir proceeded up the aisle singing the "Westminster Carol". The congregational singing was supplemented by two special numbers "Watchman Tell Us of the Night" by the choir and an old Polish carol "Sleep, My Little Jesus" by Mrs. W. S. Jardine. Following the Benediction a number of the congregation attended the "Friendly Hour" in the church hall where many old and well-loved carols were sung.

They were driven by car to the homes of their parents in Cape Wolfe by Donald Platts.

Miss Leone Arsenault is at home now after being employed for the past month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fermin Perry, during Mrs. Perry's trip to U.S.A.

Miss Catherine Perry arrived back at her home in Howlan on Wednesday night, Dec. 19th, after a month spent in Boston visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Vincent Gallant of Forest View, was called to the home of her parents in Bloomfield Station where her father, Mr. Joe Arsenault is seriously ill.

On Tuesday, Dec. 18th Miss Betty Martin of Bloomfield, who has been employed at the home of Mrs. Alban T. Arsenault at Howlan, left for Alberton where she will be employed at the Western Hospital.

Our ever-obliging friend, Mrs. Alton Boulter, informs us that at present, besides her patients, she is caring for a young baby whose mother is in Summerside hospital.

Its wonderful to know that with her a child is well cared for while the mother is unable to do so.

Howlan school closing in the form of a concert was held in the school on Thursday night, Dec. 20th, where Santa first appeared in Howlan to the delight of little ones.

The Presepio, a miniature reproduction of the Nativity, replaces the Christmas tree as symbol of the holiday in many Italian homes.
