

Whitlock Paces Saint John To 2-1 Victory Over Moncton Hawks

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 16—(CP)—Saint John Beavers made it two wins in as many starts tonight by defeating Moncton Hawks 2-1 in the opening game of the Maritime Senior Hockey League in Moncton.

Trigger-man Buck Whitlock, the League's leading point getter last season, paced the Saint John attack with a goal and an assist to figure in both Beaver tallies.

Johnny Morrow, a new comer to the Hawks ran his scoring string to three goals, scoring Hawks lone tally. He netted two of the Monctonians three goals at Saint John Saturday night.

The teams fought on even terms in the first two periods but Hawks held an edge in the final frame as they mounted a scoreless assault in a desperate bid to knot the count.

Feeling ran high in the free-wheeling final frame and with 30 seconds of play remaining fireworks exploded in the Saint John end. A half dozen gladiators faced off to settle private feuds which had been smouldering all evening.

Penalties went to Bob Mudge of the Beavers and Johnny Morrow, although the liveliest fist tossing was produced by Morrow and Jackie Heon, with Heon escaping the eye of the referee when sentences were being handed out.

Hawks outshot the Beavers 36-27 with their heaviest artillery being unleashed in the final frame when they hammered 17 shots at Denny Brodeur and Les Colvin in the Moncton cage handled six.

Morrow opened the scoring 41 seconds after the second period opened, with Mike Demchuk and Larry Dunville getting assists.

Beavers replied 14 minutes later when Joe Brennan was set up by Buck Whitlock. Nicole engineered Beavers second tally less than two minutes later, with Whitlock being the marksman.

Ten penalties were handed out, five to each team. They had no bearing on the scoring. Hawks played without high scoring winger Lou Milani and centreman Roddie McKenzie. Both are sitting out a suspension for their part in an alleged strike against last season's team management. The suspension to be lifted Nov. 1, was imposed when the players refused to play a post-season exhibition game with Sydney Millionaires.

Saint John: Goal, Brodeur; defence, Bolan, Dalgleish, centre, Brennan; wings, Plaz, Jackson; subs, Mudge, Chaine, Heon, Whitlock, Nicole, McIntyre, James, Jodoin, Armstrong.

Moncton: Goal, Colvin; defence, Delmonte, Dunville; centre, Barkwell; wings, Demchuk, Morrow; subs, Blackburn, Drury, Galipeau, Mousseau, Denny, Anderson, Dequoy, Planche, Imonti.

Referees: Mallison, Swain. Scoring—None. Penalties: Denny, Jodoin, Blackburn, Bolan.

Says Boxing Game Dying At The Roots

NEW YORK, Oct. 16—(AP)—Declaring that the boxing game is dying at the roots, a victim of the medium which was expected to bring it unprecedented prosperity, Abe J. Greene made an urgent plea today for television and boxing interests to save the sport.

The National Boxing Association Commissioner warned there will be no major boxing cards in the country five years hence unless action is taken at once.

"This is not an attack on television, but rather an appeal to TV to harness its benefits to boxing," Greene declared.

"There may be more boxing fans today than ever before, but most of them are of the arm-chair variety who see their fights by the flick of a switch."

Greene said the failure of the fans to respond to the box office is destroying the smaller clubs which incubate boxing.

"Where will the big shots come from for the big TV appeal of tomorrow if the little shots don't develop?" he asked, adding that "boxers must develop from the small fight clubs, where they learn the sport from the ground up the hard way."

"Before radio commitments, and now television, made it necessary for hungry promoters to skyrocket unprepared youngsters into main events, it took three, four and five years to develop a genuine main event fighter."

"Today a kid who gets a few wins and flashes some style is shunted into a television main event, is knocked off, and his light is quenched before it even begins to sparkle."

"Television has developed more boxing 'experts' than ever in the sport's history... but it has closed up most of the small clubs in the areas it invades. If these clubs cannot get a TV sponsor they cannot afford to operate."

Greene said there should be a meeting of boxing leaders with representatives of the major television networks to survey the entire scene and discuss the possibility of working a revival of the sport.

A man, a dog and a gun. That will be the order of things for the next two days, commencing this morning, when the annual Hun Field Trials will be held at Harrington under the sponsorship of the Charlottetown Kennel Club.

Getting underway at 7:30 this morning with a medical inspection of dogs, sportsmen owners and their prize canines, judges and other officials will take to the fields to put both handlers and dogs to the supreme test.

Promoter Sam Becker predicted the fight at the 15,000-capacity Cincinnati Garden will draw $100,000. Prices will be scaled from $15 to $250.

Negotiations are under way for a return bout in case Barone should win the title.

Barone whipped Jimmy Beau in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena Friday night. He moved into the Charles bout when Freddie Beshore of Harrisburg, Pa., refused terms for a return battle.

After Charles defeated Jersey Joe Walcott to win N. B. A. recognition as champion in June 1949, he defended the title against Gus Leenevich, Pat Valentino, Beshore and Joe Louis. The victory over Louis Sept. 27 earned Charles New York State recognition as heavyweight ruler.

Both Barone and Charles will weigh about 180 pounds for the fight, believed the first heavyweight title bout in Cincinnati history.

When Barone whipped Beau last week he thought he qualified for a non-title bout with middleweight champ Jake La Motta. Instead he gets an unexpected crack at the biggest prize of all.

Barone, a 24-year-old crowd pleaser, has fought the best from the middle to the heavyweights. He gave both Lee Oma and Bob Satterfield rough evenings in losing. A straight right is his best punch. He has lost seven in 52 bouts.

The Syracuse fighter was born Carmine Barone but took his brother's name at 16 so that he could join the Marines in 1942. He started boxing with the Marines in Hawaii and went into the sport as a pro after his discharge.

As in former years, the series will be best of three games, and is expected to come up with a top notch brand of competition. In fact it is likely to be a much closer series than last year when the Saints took the series in straight games. The two teams met here earlier this month in an exhibition tilt that lacked nothing in the way of rugged action and smart ball handling, to end in a scoreless deadlock.

This would indicate that the two squads are about as evenly matched as is possible, and should produce a wealth of smart rugby before the final champion is declared. But of course such speculation doesn't always follow. It was only a few days ago that we picked Senior Saints to win over Mount Allison in N.B.-P.E.I. Intercollegiate play last Saturday.

Based on the fact that U.N.B. had defeated the Mounties 7-5, and Saints had wopped U.N.B. 18-2, we figured Saints were good for a win over Mount A. But what happened—Saints lost out 6-0.

Charles To Defend Title In Bout On November 28 Against Nick Barone

NEW YORK, Oct. 16—(AP)—Jake Mintz said today Ezzard Charles had agreed to defend his world heavyweight boxing title against Nick Barone of Syracuse in a 15-round bout at Cincinnati Nov. 28.

Charles will receive 42 1-2 per cent for his fifth defence and his first home appearance since he won the championship, manager Mintz said.

Barone, a rough stocky lad ranked sixth in the light heavyweight division, will get 17 1-2 per cent.

Promoter Sam Becker predicted the fight at the 15,000-capacity Cincinnati Garden will draw $100,000. Prices will be scaled from $15 to $250.

Negotiations are under way for a return bout in case Barone should win the title.

Regardless of all that, however, it is our belief that Senior Saints can and will do better than that before the next game winds up with Mount A., and will also look forward to seeing a close series between Welshmen and second Saints.

Three Players Are Suspended

HALIFAX, Oct. 16—(CP)—The Maritime Amateur Hockey Association tonight announced suspension of three players in the Maritime Senior Hockey League until their status is clarified.

The Association said Trent Anderson of Moncton Hawks and Eddie Bolan and Roger Jodin of Saint John Beavers were playing without releases or transfer from previous clubs.

Neither Larry Zeidel nor Bill Heindel of the Western Canada League club had obtained releases from the Quebec circuit, Grimston said the two had already played three games with Saskatoon and he had no alternative but to suspend them until the matter is straightened out.

The players had appealed the suspension and a telegraphic vote was being arranged among C. A. H. A. branches.

P. W. C. Saints Game Today

The Prince of Wales College and Second Saint Dunstan's University rugbyists will tangle over the S. D. U. gridiron this afternoon at 3:30 in the opening game of the Provincial Intermediate intercollegiate rugby championship series.

Ever since the two squads tangled in an exhibition tilt here the week before last that ended in a scoreless tie, fans have been looking forward to the opening of the series to see the two squads in action again.

It was a rugged, well played and evenly contested struggle that pleased the fans all the way, and when the boys trot out on the field again this afternoon, it is expected to be the leadoff to a really hot best of three game series. Saints are the defending champions.

Hockey Season Opens At Forum Tonight As Islanders Meet Hawks

For the first time in a decade and a half Island hockey fans will have the opportunity tonight of witnessing a Charlottetown team in action in Maritime Senior Hockey League competition when the Islanders square off with Gordie Drillon's Moncton Hawks at the Forum at 8:30.

Tonight's official opening of the hockey season here, will be the realization of a dream that a number of hard working sportsmen and fans have planned and worked for during the past number of months to fulfill a desire to see good senior hockey competition back in this Province.

For weeks now hockey talk has been at a fever pitch in anticipation of the big opening event, and now that it is a certainty, hockey fans are expected to be flocking to the Forum tonight to see Moncton and the Islanders clash.

Pitting their brawn, speed and skill against Moncton, a team that is as much a part of the "Big Four" as the name itself, Murph Chamberlain's Islanders will have their work cut out for them if they are to match strides with the Hawks tonight. Moncton will be aggressively battling for a win to atone for last Saturday's 5-3 defeat against Saint John Beavers in their inaugural league tilt.

Fresh from their opening victory over defending league champions Halifax Saint Mary's, the Islanders are expected to come up with another of their hard-hitting and fast-attacking performances again tonight that will spare no effort in aiding their climb up another rung of the league ladder to assure the Province's comeback along the "Big Four" trail.

It is expected to be a contest that will produce everything in the way of smart hockey and plenty of action that local fans are looking forward to seeing. As to the final outcome, that is something that no advance prediction can foretell, and will have to be left to the teams to decide, and for the fans themselves to see.

The following are the lineups for tonight's game—
Moncton — Goal, Les Colvin; Fred Sontier; defence, Larry Dunville, Joe Delmonte, Larry Blackburn, Joe Drury; forwards, Whit Mousseau, Fred Denny, Trent Anderson, Mike Demchuk, Dalton Barkwell, John Morrow, Don Larlee, Frank Imonti, Planche, Stan Dequoy. Coach, Gordon Drillon.

Charlottetown — Goal, Hal Gordon; defence, Phil Vitale, Kevin Conway, Larry Travis, George McLagan; forwards, Wes "Bucko" Trainor, Walter Pawlynszyn, Bruno "Red" Favaro, Frank Batgate, Johnny Horeck, Danny Horeck, Murray Richardson, Bob Gray, Howard Beaudry, Wally Sheppard. Coach, Murph Chamberlain.
