Spud Trek '91

In recognition of Star Trek's 25th anniversary, and in loving memory of Gene Roddenberry, the creator and founder of Star Trek, the U.P.E.I Debating Society, the final frontier, proudly presents a chance for Atlantic region debaters to boldly go where no tournament has gone before: Spud Trek '91.

Here are the top ten reasons to attend Spud Trek '91:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 0) We're low in cholesterol, and high in carbohydrates. | 9) McCain's gave us a blessing. |
| 1) Anne will be there doing a song and dance. | 7) We're PVYN-free. |
| 2) Spock said it would be highly logical. | 5) "Captain, she can't take much more of this!" |
| 3) The expendable crew member will die if you don't. | 3) You'll laugh, you'll cry . . . it's better than cats. |
| 4) There's nothing better than listening to 30 drunk, conceited arrogant, brilliant, and modest debaters. | |

And the #1 reason to attend Spud Trek '91: To learn voluminously vacuous voids of verbiage.

Spud Trek '91 will take place around campus, mostly in Main building on Saturday, November 23. Everyone is welcome to judge or watch.
