City Churches Plan Christmas Services

Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern, bishop of Charlottetown, will celebrate Christmas Midnight Mass at St. Dunstan's Basilica.

Assistant priest at the Pontifical Mass will be Rt. Rev. George MacLeod, president of St. Dunstan's University. Deacons of honor will be Rev. Dr. B. Ellsworth and Rev. Dr. C. Cheverie. Members of the Mass will be Rt. Rev. William Simpson, rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica and Rev. G. Tingley. Rev. Faber MacDonald will act as master of ceremonies.

Rev. Edmund Roche of St. Dunstan's University staff, will preach the sermon.

The choir will render Christmas carols from 11.30 Thursday night until midnight. Frank MacIvor is the choir director.

Masses on Christmas Day at the Basilica will be the same hours as Sundays, 7 a.m., 9.30, 11 a.m. and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The rector, Very Rev. Frank MacLeod O.S.B., will be celebrant of Solemn High Mass at 8 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Redeemer, Deacon and subdeacon will be Rev. E. Williams O.S.B. and Rev. J. MacLeod O.S.B. Father MacLeod will deliver the sermon. He will also officiate at the 11.30 a.m. service immediately following the Midnight Mass.

The choir will commence at the crib with procession at 11.50 and the mixed choir, under the direction of Mr. Blain, will sing carols from 11.30 until midnight.

Masses on Christmas Day will be at 8, 9, 10 and 11.30. There will be no service at Holy Redeemer on Christmas Day.

At St. Pius X Church, Parkdale, High Mass at midnight will be celebrated by the rector, Rt. Rev. P.P. MacDonald, vicar general of the Charlottetown Diocese.

Members of the Charlottetown Fire Department answered a call to 170 Sydney Street shortly after 9.30 last evening. There was a oil stove exploded on the third floor and sprinkled embers on the floor and a chestierified. The chestierified was damaged.

Club Doubted By Lions Club

GEORGETOWN — At the monthly meeting of the Georgetown Lions Club, held in St. James Hall Tuesday night, John Blair was a guest of the club and was presented with a $600 cheque by King Lion Howland.

Mr. Blair lost a leg several months ago in a farm accident, when his leg became entangled in the power take-off on a combine on his father's farm.

The fund in his behalf, was sponsored and collected by four teams of Lions, and represented donations given by the citizens individually and by organizations.

In accepting, Mr. Blair expressed his appreciation to all persons and organizations who contributed so generously to the fund and to the Lions for their sponsorship.

Also attending the meeting were Albin Brothers, Francis Sheppard and Noel Wilson of Carleton Place who acted as judges in the Lions-sponsored "best lighted home contest."

Geo'town High Presents Concert

GEORGETOWN — Pupils of Georgetown High School presented a Christmas concert to the town hall Tuesday night.

Robert Scranon, principal, was in charge of the concert, and his accompanist was Mrs. Katherine Clay.

A feature of the entertainment was the group singing, which caused much favorable audience comment.

The program included square dancing, plays, drills, recitations, and singing.

Recitations were given by Anne Marie Goff, Barbara McCommen, Juliette Lavie, Marcelle Bouchard, Julie Bowditch, Melva MacKenney, Claudia Batschelder, Peter MacQuinn, Thelma Gallant, Faye McQuellan, Larry Curry and pupils from grade three.

Musical selections included "Silent Night" by Loretta McQuellan, Donna Coffin and Erwin Gallant; "I Saw Three Ships" by Claire Curry, Donna Coffin and Anne McQuellan; "Deck the Halls" by Debby Lawellin, Martine King and Patsy Burke; "The Birds Sing Their Carol" by Beatrice McKeeney and Walter Doran; "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" by Brenda King and Leona McQuellan; "Fidelity" by Phyllis McNeil; and "Wondrous Child" by Phyllis McNeil and Brenda MacDonald.

Monologues were said by Gailwee MacDonald and Dennis Curley.

Decorations, Light Winners Given At Georgetown

GEORGETOWN — Winners of the Georgetown Lions Club sponsored best exterior lighted homes contest were announced on Wednesday.

Taking first prize was the home of Edward Easton, which was awarded the prize on the basis of originality and best representing Christmas Season.

Mr. Easton had displayed the Nativity Scene and also a life-size Santa Claus.

Second prize went to R. H. Stewart and was awarded on the basis of Christmas lighting decorations, and showed an outstanding display of beautiful electric window wreaths and lights.

Third prize was given to Raymond Lavander and the judges based their decision on both lights and originality, which included the novel gift-wrapped method of decoration.

The contest was open to all citizens of the town but excluded homes of club members from competition. Great interest was shown by the public and an exceptionally large number of homes were said to be beautifully decorated, exceeding anything displayed in former years.

The Lions Club expressed appreciation of the work of the three judges, Wilton Francis Sheppard and Albin Brothers, all residents of neighboring Carleton Place.

Another Christmas project of the local Lions Club was the procuring, erection and decorating of a large community Christmas tree. This tree with its colored lights, is located on Kent Street, close to the intersection with Water Street.

The crown was represented by J. Arthur MacGuigan, QC. Magistrate was James B. Johnston, QC. Melvin J. McQuill was counsel for Carter, Ford and MacDonald.

SIX-MONTH TERM GIVEN FOR ARSON

A six-month sentence to Queen's County Jail was handed down to Ralph Everett Arsenault, Charlottetown, charged with arson, by James B. Johnston, QC. in Queen's County Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Magistrate Johnston said he had taken into consideration the extreme youth of the accused, but could not overlook the seriousness of the offence which could have cost the lives of a number of inmates of the jail, where the fire was set.

It was incorrectly reported Saturday that Arsenault pleaded guilty to two charges of arson. He was charged with only one.

One person charged with illegal possession of liquor was fined $20 and costs or 30 days and another was remanded to Jan. 20.

George Smith and Preston Smith, both of Fairview, and William Kells of Sherwood, each charged with using live birds as decoys, had their cases dismissed.

Kenneth James Doucette of Charlottetown, charged with possession of liquor not purchased at a vendor, was fined $25 and costs or 30 days.

A Forrest Hill man, Raymond Joseph MacKinnon pleaded not guilty to a charge of possession of parts of a still suitable for the manufacture of spirits. The case was adjourned to Jan. 6 to fix a date for hearing.

Charged with impaired driving to which he had previously pleaded not guilty, Donald John Layzell, both of Dingwell's Mills had his case adjourned to Jan. 6. Charged with a similar offense another Dingwell's Mills resident Roy Thomas MacDonald, also had his case adjourned to Jan. 6.

One crown witness, Francis Vincent Montgomery of Bear River, was heard in the case of William Joseph Ford, Souris, who previously pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor. The case was adjourned to Jan. 6.

William Carter of Souris previously pleaded not guilty to a charge of assaulting a fisheries officer and the case was further

Liquor Involved In All Cases But One

SOURIS — All cases but one on the docket in Souris Magistrate's Court yesterday involved violations under the liquor control act.

Kenneth James Doucette of Charlottetown, charged with possession of liquor not purchased at a vendor, was fined $25 and costs or 30 days.

A Forrest Hill man, Raymond Joseph MacKinnon pleaded not guilty to a charge of possession of parts of a still suitable for the manufacture of spirits. The case was adjourned to Jan. 6 to fix a date for hearing.

was laid. It unloaded here yesterday at Usen Fisheries Ltd. The Howe Bay, landed a total of 29,000 pounds of fish while the Iceland II landed 23,000. All fish was reported processed last evening and a decision by Usen Fisheries is being awaited whether the plant will process after Christmas or not. This has never been done in Souris before and the other plant here, Eastern Fisheries Ltd., unloaded here yesterday at Usen Fisheries Ltd. Dragers MV Gulf Gull and MV Howe Bay have returned to the fishing grounds and the MV Iceland II is expected to join them shortly. If the Usen plant closes down they will return to Nova Scotia ports.
