Breaking Lights Results In Fines

GEORGETOWN — Acting Magistrate Charles R. McQuaid disposed of a considerable number of cases at Georgetown yesterday. The Crown was represented in all cases by Deputy Attorney-General J. Arthur McGuigan.

William Edward Bailey, Merion MacPherson and Barry Douglall MacMillan, all of Murray River, pleaded guilty to damaging street lights in their community and were each fined $25 and costs or 30 days.

Alfred Roland Moore, Whim Road, charged with impeding driving, had his case adjourned to May 8 to allow him to obtain counsel. The same party charged with possession of liquor in a place other than his residence, had this charge also adjourned to the same date.

Peter James Kelly, Souris West, was found guilty of assaulting a peace officer and was fined $75 and costs or 30 days.

Louis McInnes, Georgetown, an Italian shipyard at Genoa and Samuel Money, Abney, were each fined $25 and costs for hav-

Uigg Meeting Hears Address On Protection Of Livestock

A meeting sponsored by the Uigg Women's Institute assembled to hear talks and discussions on certain phases of services available and action which could be taken in the event of nuclear fallout, was well attended by an enthusiastic group of rural residents last night.

The principal speaker, R. C. Parent, superintendent of the Experimental Farm, outlined in detail precautions and action the farmer can take in order to protect his livestock from fallout.

This included what steps could be taken in throwing up some kind of shield around small buildings suitable for housing of farm animals.

To illustrate the talk given by Mr. Parent, a film was shown, by Albert MacEwen of the experimental farm staff, which was entitled "Fallout and Agriculture."

The provincial vice-chairman of Red Cross first aid services, Dr. J. M. Gillis, Eldon, also gave a detailed description of all the many health services that are provided by the civil

18 Apply For Vacancies In Police

Police Chief Sterns Webster said last night that to date he has received approximately 18 applications for the two or three vacancies soon to be filled on the city police force.

He pointed out that the deadline for submitting applications is next Saturday, and before that date he anticipated that there may be two or three more applicants.

Early next week he hopes to bring the applications before the police committee, with 18 appointments being made early in May.

SEALS INCREASE

Increase in the number of seals in the Baltic is worrying fishermen, who estimate seals eat 50,000 tons of fish a year in that sea.

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL CAMPBELL AND CAKE

Long-Time Residents Mark 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Campbell, well known and long time residents of Charlottetown celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary yesterday at their home on Prince Charles Drive.

To honor them on this special occasion, members of the Dorcas Group of the First Baptist Church tendered a party in the afternoon during which congratulations and good wishes were extended and gifts presented to the popular couple.

Also present were members of the Senior Women's Missionary Society, who honored Mrs. Campbell with a Dominion life membership in the affiliated Baptist Women's Missionary Societies of Canada. In presenting the membership Mrs. Lenore S. Webster referred to the many years of faithful service Mrs. Campbell had rendered to the missionary cause. A pin in token of the membership was presented by Mrs. D. N. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have been members of the Baptist church for more than 30 years, having united with the church under the ministry of the late Dr. Z. L. Fash. Over the years, they with their family have played active parts in many phases of the church's activities.
