THE SOFT SHIRT

Has progressed from a luxury to a necessity. We want everybody to know what real shirt comfort is—willing to give extraordinary values to do it. There's the comfort of fit and the comfort of looks. Some men can't be happy without both. We give both to them when we sell them a soft shirt.

Some of these soft shirts have cuffs attached, some have separate cuffs.

A few have two extra collars—not many tho', for nearly everybody uses a white collar with his colored shirt.

Prices—well we start at 55c.

The nicest lines are 84c, $1.10, $1.15 and $1.30

Those lots at $1.10 and $1.15 are "all right."

No man who wants a stylish colored shirt can afford to go anywhere else for it.

RELIABLE NEWS FROM PEKIN

Legations Attacked on All Sides

BUT HOLDING OUT ON JULY
21st.

Number of Killed and Wounded—
Women and Children With British

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, July 31.—The Admiralty has made public the following despatch from Rear Admiral Bruce at Tien Tsin: "The following message has been received from Pekin:—"British Legation, Pekin, June 20 to July 16.—"Were repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides. Both rifle and artillery fire. Since July 16th there has been an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. The Chinese barricades are close to ours.

"All the women and children are in the British Legation. Casualties to date, 62 killed, including Captain Strouts.

"A number of wounded were in hospital, including Captain Halliday. Rest of Legation all well except David, Oliphant and Warren, killed July 21. (Signed) "McDONALD."

LI HUNG CHANG'S ADVICE.

LONDON, July 31.—Sir Chio Chen, the Chinese minister in London has been advised by telegraph that Li Hung Chang, conjointly with other viceroys and governors, has memorialized the throne to urge the immediate sending of the foreign representatives, under escort, to Tien Tsin, or the restoration to them of free telegraphic communication with their governments.

A WELCOME DESPATCH.

LONDON, July 31.—Sir Claude MacDonald's welcome despatch, received in cypher, is accepted on all sides as dispelling any doubts that might still have existed regarding the genuineness of the despatch.

Owing to an error in transmission the message fails to show the number of wounded.

David Oliphant and Warren were two student interpreters.

Apart from this despatch there is practically no fresh news, although a special from Tien Tsin asserts that the British and American forces are getting ready to advance within 48 hours.

Li Hung Chang remains at Shanghai. He says that the great heat prevents him from continuing his journey to Pekin.

—Sir Claude MacDonald's despatch, published by THE EXAMINER today, brings, at last, reliable intelligence from Pekin. The Legations were surrounded and in great danger; but they weren't all dead on the 21st of July,—and we may hope that they are not all dead yet.

—Despatches since received confirm the welcome announcement of THE EXAMINER of yesterday, that an additional five thousand of the Boer army have been forced to surrender, unconditionally, to General Hunter. The Krugers have received another stunning blow.

MARRIAGE AT ST. DUNSTAN'S:

Miss Sullivan and Mr. Scott United
This Morning.

There was a large and fashionable congregation at St. Dunstan's Cathedral today to witness the marriage of Mr. William L. Scott, son of Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, and Miss Alice May Sullivan, daughter of Hon. W. W. Sullivan, Chief Justice of Prince Edward Island. The ceremony was performed at half-past eleven, by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald, assisted by Rev. Dr. Morrison and Rev. Dr. Monaghan. The bride was given away by her father. The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with palms, foliage and flowers. The main aisle and the transept were carpeted, and carpet also extended along the steps leading from the church to the street.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sullivan and Miss Mary Scott, sisters of the bride and groom, respectively. The groomsmen were Mr. Cleaver Sullivan, brother of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white satin duchesse. The bodice was made with yoke and sleeves of chiffon with flou of lace caught with orange blossoms. The skirt was trimmed with lace and bridal flowers. A tulle veil was worn over a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride carried a handsome bouquet of white roses and carnations, the gift of the groom. Her train was borne by two of her little cousins, Master Jack Conroy and Miss Marion Newbery, the former acting as page and the latter as maid of honor. Master Conroy wore a Lord Fauntleroy suit of black velvet and white lace. Miss Newbery was gowned in white muslin trimmed with lace and insertion, and wore a picture hat of white chiffon.

The bridesmaids—Miss Sullivan and Miss Scott—were gowned alike in white organdie muslin trimmed with lace and insertion over pink silk slips. They wore black chiffon hats and carried beautiful bouquets of pink and white carnations, the gift of the groom.

During the ceremony the following musical programme was rendered under the direction of Mr. Blanchard, who presided at the organ:

Introductory March, Silver Trumpet
Vocal Solo, Ave Maria,
Mrs. Byrne. O, Salutaris.
Vocal Solo, Dir. C. Hermans.
Violin Solo, Miss Coady.
Vocal Solo, Ave Verum.
Mrs. Byrne.
Wedding March.

The ushers were Messrs. Geo. Bagnall and Sydney Hobkirk.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Brighton Villa, the residence of the Chief Justice and Mrs. Sullivan.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for Summerside en route to Quebec, followed by the best wishes of all.
