Elijah

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of a series of studies from the Old Testament. The text is condensed from selections by Houston Harte for the new book, "In Our Image." Illustration by Guy Rowe is also from the book.

And Ahab reigned over Israel: and he served Baal, and did more to promote the Lord to anger than all the kings of Israel before him...

And Elijah said unto Ahab, As the God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be rain these years, but according to my word. And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, Get thee hence and hide thyself by the brook Cherith: I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. So he went and the ravens brought him bread and flesh, and he drank of the brook. And after a while the brook dried up, because there had been no rain.

And the word of the Lord came unto him saying, Get thee to Zarephath: I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. And when he came to the gate of the city, the woman was there gathering sticks; and he said, Bring me a morsel of bread. And she said, I have but a handful of meal, and a little oil; and I am gathering sticks that I may dress it for me and for my son, that we may eat it and die. And Elijah said, The meal shall not waste, neither shall the oil fail, until the day that the Lord sendeth rain. And she did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

And the son of the woman fell sick; and there was no breath left in him. And Elijah took him out of her bosom, and laid him upon his bed. And he cried, O Lord, let this child's soul come into him again. And the Lord heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know that thou art a man of God.

Chest Cold Painful THROAT

Speaking of valuable home remedies that mothers might well keep on hand, a trained nurse says: "I haven't met any preparation more dependable than 'Nerviline.' For me, it is an ideal liniment. It seems as if nearly every drop rubs in—its pain-relieving powers are absorbed quickly. For chest colds, pain in the side, stiff neck, earache and toothache, I have found Nerviline very valuable in treating the minor ills that arise in so many homes. I have found nothing in the way of a rub-on that is more efficient than Nerviline. This pain-relieving liniment is a household article in thousands of Canadian homes." Is it in yours? 12th Pack Zion Brownies.

Brown Owl Roma Rodd reports excellent progress of her large Pack of 30 brownies. It is hoped that many Golden Bars will be presented shortly and six more Tweenies are to be enrolled next week. The Brownies now are very lucky in having two new Tawny Owls, Mrs. Wendell Macdonald and Mrs. Goss who are going to be a great help to the Pack. The Pack has Kelpies, Elves, Pixies, Fairies and Little People. A lovely Fairy Ring opened the meeting and each Six renewed their Promise at the Treadmill. A huge Grand Howl was given to Mrs. Jenkins and a very smart Salute. The Bluebell song was practiced until everyone was out of breathe and then to some practical work. Magic ropes were correctly tied by the following Brownies, who are working for their Golden Bar, Joan Wilson, Norva Macdonald, Ann McGee, Noreen MacLean, Pat. Macdonald, Joan Macdonald, Shirley Bolsner, Susan MacLeod, Marylyn White, Margaret MacLean, Marylyn Macdonald, Sandra Sutherland, Gloria Currie, Karen Blummonds, Gail Macdonald, and Elizabeth Small. Other Brownies were kept busy by Brown Owl tying their Ties and learning the Tweenie test. Brownie songs and even Guide songs this busy Brownie meeting and they all ran home through the Magic tunnel.

Note for the Attention of All Brown Owls.

After many practices of the Dinky Bluebells singing Games, I find that it is inclined to get a little tiring where there is a large Pack and it was suggested by the Judges that where the Pack is over 10 in number that the action, Tipty Tap be placed on three shoulders instead of one. This means that the three Brownies would then follow the line of in and out the Bluebells instead of only one. You will readily see that this speeds up the game so that it does not have to be sung through so many times.

12th Company Zion Guides.

The 12th held an enrollment ceremony on presentation of Badges on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Gordon Hutcheson Commissioner conducting. The Rev. G. C. Webster was a very special visitor and followed the procedure very closely and with much interest. Those enrolled were, Carol Stavert, Beryl Sheffoon, Florence Douglas, Ferne Townsend, and Elvie King. Presented with the Fireman's Badge, were, Lois Good, Elaine Murphy, Dawn Messer, Myrtle Garnham, Paula Fargurson, Barbara MacLean, Eileen Craswell, and Christine Dewar. There are two Little House Emblems in the Company, Dawn Messer and Elaine Murphy. Dawn also has that great achievement her First Class Badge but Elaine is almost through hers too. Camp Fire programme was led by Lieut. Laura King. The Rev. Webster, said how happy he was to be present, and referred to the meaning of the Guide Promise and Laws. Duty to God should be given first place in our lives and that we should approach God in a true Spirit of Worship, Obedience, Reverence, Service, Honour and Praise were explained to the Guide's by the Rev. Webster in his most informative talk. Capt. S. MacKinnon thanked Mr. Webster for his talk and the meeting closed with Evenson and Taps. Mrs. Jenkins was advised of a special event to take place in a few weeks. Lots of luck Zion Guides. More about that later.

IN MEMORIAM

RODERICK NICHOLSON

The many relatives and friends throughout the province were shocked and greatly saddened to learn of the sudden passing of the late Roderick Nicholson of Thistle and Shamrock in the early morning of February 20th, at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

The deceased had been admitted to the hospital in the evening prior to his passing, however, no great concern was felt by his family inasmuch as his condition was not considered serious. However, his condition changed suddenly for the worst and on the above mentioned date passed from this life.

The late Mr. Nicholson was widely and favourably known. He possessed a most kindly and generous spirit, which endeared him to a host of friends and acquaintances. However, his loss will be most keenly felt in his home and with his family, where as a husband and father he had entwined himself with kindness and understanding about their lives.

The late Mr. Nicholson was born at Rose Valley on April 26th, 1884, and was a son of the late James and Mary Nicholson. One brother of a large family of nine survives, namely, Donald, of Dodson, Montserrat, U. S. A.

The deceased married Minnie Bigger forty-one years ago who predeceased him in 1928. His second marriage was to Margaret Elaine Gillis.

The late Mr. Nicholson leaves to mourn his passing besides a sorrowing widow, five sons and four daughters. The family of the first marriage are; sons: James, Springfield; Ira, on the old Nicholson home at Rose Valley; Lorne, Pleasant Valley; Samuel at home and Sterling, Breadalbane. The daughters are: Hazel, Mrs. Albert Wallace, Montreal, Quebec; Mae and Elva, both of Montreal, and from the second marriage, Margaret Elaine at home.

The funeral service which was largely attended was held at his late residence and was conducted by Rev. W. B. MacPhail and Rev. Donald Nicholson a cousin of the deceased. Rev. Mr. Nicholson sang very feelingly, "In the Sweet By and By." The hymns sung were; "The Twenty-Third Psalm," "The Lord's My Shepherd," Abide With Me and of Baal.

Interment was in the Arms of Jesus." Mr. Frank Meyers conducted a short Masonic service at the home under the auspices of the Craupud Lodge of which the deceased was a member. The pallbearers were: John D. Matheson; John W. MacKenzie; William Matheson; Sam Gillis; Louis O'Connors and Alex Macdonald. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Hartsville cemetery.

Wreath — Wife and family.
Wreath — Brother Daniel and Mrs. Nicholson.
Wreath — Mae, Elva, Hazel, and Albert.
Wreath — True Brothers Lodge A. F. A. M.
Wreath — Preston and Eldon Darrach.
Spray — Mr. and Mrs. Alex C. Macdonald.
Spray — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wigmore.
Wreath — Staff T. Eaton Co. Montreal.

Card Of Thanks

The widow and family of the late Roderick Nicholson wish to thank their neighbors and friends for their kindness and for the many friends who sent flowers, cards, and expressions of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ANTHONY HAUGHEY

The sad and sudden death of Mr. Anthony Haughey of 64 Dorchester Street, Charlottetown on March 3rd, 1950, brought great sorrow not only to his wife and family but to his many friends and relatives in Charlottetown and Kelly's Cross.

Though all Christians realize that death is not an ending but rather the beginning of true life they could not but feel a keen sense of loss in the sudden departure of one so highly esteemed and fondly regarded.

Mr. Haughey who had always enjoyed excellent health went to his work as usual on that day and fell dead as he was preparing to go home. He was most faithful to the practice of his religious duties and a devoted member of the Holy Name Society of St. Dunstan's Basilica Parish.

The late Mr. Haughey was born in Kelly's Cross fifty-nine years ago. He moved to Charlottetown about twenty eight years ago and for a time was employed at the Experimental Farm. In 1929 he became employed by C. N. R. and at the time of his death was a car inspector. He had the unique record of never having missed a day. In this capacity, by his faithfulness to duty, by his self sacrificing character and above all by his kindness and ever readiness to oblige, he won the love and esteem of his superiors and fellow workers and impressed upon their hearts the high ideals of worthiness which neither time or space can obliterate.

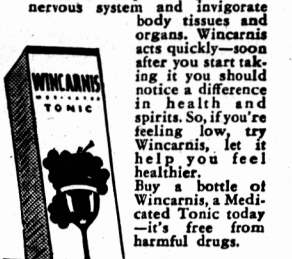

Besides his sorrowing widow, he leaves to mourn two sons and three daughters, Jerome of Toronto; John at home; Mary Alice, Mrs. Reginald Murphy, Montreal; Rosaleen, Mrs. Alfred Crawford, Charlottetown; Bernice, R.N., at home.

Surviving also are two brothers, Frank in Charlottetown; Patrick, Kelly's Cross and the following sisters: Sr. M. Anthony and Sr. M. Thomas, Congregation of St. Martha, Charlottetown; Mrs. James McKenna, Charlottetown; Mrs. Fred Molyneux, Inverman; Mrs. Howard Molyneux, Charlottetown.

The Requiem High Mass was celebrated at St. Dunstan's Basilica by his brother-in-law, Rev. Martin Monaghan, D.D. Miscouche who also conducted services at the grave. Present in the Sanctuary were His Excellency Most Rev. James Boyle, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Maurice Macdonald, Rev. Leo Herrell. Assisting in the choir was Rev. Bernard Gillis, D.D.

The honorary pallbearers were: Clever McLean, Jack McGregor, Jack McFarlane, Urias Macdonald, Jack McKinnon and Russell Bell.

Active pallbearers were: Patrick Murnaghan, Plus Clarkin, Peter Oatway, Wilfred McKenna, John Coady and J. B. Fleming.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs. Anthony Haughey and family wish to thank all those who were so kind and helpful during their recent and sad bereavement; also those who sent floral contributions, Mass Cards, spiritual bouquets, letters and messages of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. BENJAMIN HORTON

A deep gloom was cast over Mt. Albion on Sunday morning Feb. 26th when it became known that Benjamin Horton, a well known and respected neighbor had passed away in the P. E. Island Hospital at the age of seventy-three years.

Although in poor health for some time, it was hoped that hospital treatment would be of some avail, but God willed otherwise and on the above date his spirit entered the open gates to his Eternal rest.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Horton, Mt. Albion, and resided all his life in the district in which he was born.

He worked as section man on the Murray Harbour sub-division when the railroad was built in 1904, later rising to foreman until he retired in the year 1941. He was also a blacksmith by trade and did some farming.

The deceased was a man of sterling qualities and his pleasing personality endeared him to all who knew him. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand in time of trouble, and will be greatly missed.

His funeral which was one of the largest in that community was held Tuesday afternoon. Service at the house and grave was conducted by Rev. Harvey Bishop, Minister of the Church of Scotland who spoke on Psalm 121.

He was assisted by Rev. A. S. Weir of Pownal United Church. The service was very impressive as the pastor spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family, and pointed them to God who is the only help in time of trouble.

The following hymns were very beautifully rendered under the direction of the Hazelbrook Baptist choir, "The Lords My Shepherd", "O God of Bethel", and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus".

He leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing widow (nee Ethel Carver), one daughter, Olive, Mrs. Henry S. Jenkins, one son Harry, (Andrew having passed on since), four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The pallbearers were Messrs A. S. Hicks, John H. Myers, Henry S. Jenkins, Albert Stewart, William Doyle, and Austin Coady.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and his remains were tenderly laid to rest in Pownal cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of Mr. Milton Jenkins.
