NO DECEPTION!

L. E. PROWSE does not offer a discount of 33 per cent; to do so, 50 per cent profit would need to be added. Such profit would ruin a farmer or any other man—33 per cent discount means a profit of 50 per cent. But the facts are: He buys for cash only, therefore buy from 15 to 25 per cent less than many houses in the trade, and can afford to sell even less than those who pretend to give these Fabulous Discounts.

Christian Unity.

The following declaration in reference to "unity" has lately been given by the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in council assembled:—

Whereas, in the year 1853 in response to a Memorial signed by many presbyters of this Church, praying that steps might be taken to heal the unhappy divisions of Christendom, and more fully develop the Catholic idea of the Church of Christ, the Bishops of this Church in Council assembled did appoint a commission of bishops empowered to confer with the several Christian bodies in our land who were devisors of promoting godly union and concord among all who loved the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and truth; and

WHEREAS, this commission, in conformity with the terms of its appointment, did formally set forth and advocate sundry angagements and recommendations intended to accomplish the great end in view; and WHEREAS, in the year 1880, the Bishops of the American Church, assembled in-council, moved by the appeals from Christians in foreign countries who were struggling to free themselves from the usurpations of the Bishop of Rome, set forth a declaration to the effect that in the virtue of the solidarity of the Catholic episcopate in which we have part, it was the right and duty of the epis-copates of all national Churches holding the primitive faith and order, and of the several bishops of the same, to protect in the holding of that faith and the recovering of that order those who have been wrongfully deprived of both, and this without demanding a rigid uniformity or the sacrifice of their national traditions of worship and discipline or of their rightful autonomy.

And, WHEREAS, Many of the faithful in Christ Jesus among us are praying with renewed and increasing earnestness that some

STORY OF THE RETURN OF THE REMAINS FOR WHICH $25,000 WAS PAID.

W. A. Croft, editor of the Washington

Sunday Post, tells the following story of the return of the stolen remains of the late A. T. Stewart. He says he had the story from a member of the Hilton family at a dinner party. He says: "Mrs. Stewart was $25,000, instead of the $50,000, for the body, as it first demanded. The burial was made through a lawyer who seemed to have no other bias, and who probably got a good fraction for the same. He should insisted that the money should be delivered to them on a long bill of Westchester county at the dead man's night flashes, in accordance with their directions, a relative of Mrs. Stewart journeyed alone in a wagon, which he drove himself. At a spot in the country road which had been designated or destined, the driver was suddenly seized by a masked horseman. This mysterious messenger led him through a by-lane to the hilltop, where, after certain precautions to insure their safety, they received the $25,000, examined it, and then dragged a bag of bones from another buggy near by, and surrendered it to the keeper of the solitary traveller. Before they disappeared down one side of the hill they commanded him, on peril of his life, to turn about, and descend the other slope. He did as he was bidden, and got to New York before morning. The next night the bones were committed to the vault under the great cathedral at Garden City, which had already been connected by a secret wire with a chime of bells sure to ring and alarm the town if it was disturbed. So now the mortal remains of the great millionaire and those of his patient, enduring, frugal and affectionate wife of 60 years rest side by side."

A Military Romance.

A young trooper in the 4th Hussars, now stationed at Piershill Barracks, near Edinburgh, died a few days ago, after a somewhat strange though short career. It seems that the man, who was very good looking, enlisted in the regiment about five weeks ago as a trooper. In the messroom, however, among his comrades, he behaved in a way superior to the average soldier, being free with his money, of which he seemed to have plenty, and talking and conducting himself as became a man of education and good birth. At last he informed them that he was the son of the Earl of Devon. No one doubted his account of himself, and many were sorry for the youth when he was attacked with jaundice and became an inmate of the hospital. His condition gradually became more serious, and he died at the beginning of this week. A telegram which was sent to the Earl of Devon about the death has brought out another tale which outrivals that told by the trooper himself. It is said that for some time the family of the Earl of Devon had been annoyed by communications respecting a civilian who represented himself as an cadet of the house, and that, on receipt of the message, his Lordship concluded that this must be the man and accordingly informed the police at Scotland Yard. A detective was despatched to Piershill, and it is said, recognized in the deceased an individual who had been

"wanted" by the police for a number of years, who had recently married a young lady, a ward in chancery, 15 years of age.

The slain nobleman's wife, a good-looking girl, in widow's weeds, was a witness of the obsequies.
