The Riddle of the Riderless Horse

By JEAN & CYRIL CASALIS

And so it was that he deliberately assumed the role of criminal, and determined to break into van Stellan's house that very night.

He had little difficulty in getting away. At supper both Adhemar and Cornelle were drowsy and silent, and fell in readily with his suggestion of turning in early.

If ever a house reflected its owner's personality, van Stellan's did. He was austere to the verge of asceticism, his highly-polished cleanliness merely enhancing its air of discomfort.

The grey thundered round the corner of the house. Malcolm made his first mistake. In his anxiety to make sure that Japie would go on to the stable, and so give him the start that he must have inadvertently pulled the blind aside.

THE THONGED WHIP

Malcolm hauled the whorls further into the room, and set to work to prise open the lid. It was soon done, and torch in hand, he peered under the broken lid. The box was full to the top, its contents hidden under an old folded blanket.

How Can I??

Q. How can I quicken the task of preparing lemonade? A. Dissolve the sugar in a little hot water before adding to the lemonade; it will sweeten quickly and will not sink to the bottom.

Hats in Church

(PAY AURELIA STEWART, IN Vancouver Province.)

"I WENT to church last Sunday," says Mary Ann, "thinking me as if she's never been to church in all her days. And me knowin' she had."

"Of course," she says severely. "But this was a real church in a town. Not at all like church in our schoolhouse."

"That's too bad," says I, hypocritically, thinking her loss is my gain. "And what do you think of 'real church as you call it'?"

SIT STEEP-NECKED FOR PRAYERS

"And I thought how foolish all these women are sitting there enjoying the fine sermon, stiff-necked as the church again, and then basking in the benediction."

Modern Etiquette

Keeping Boys in Their Places Dorothy Dix

If Girls Organized and Set up a Standard of Conduct They Could Make Boys Realize it is An Honor to be Their Escorts

A clergyman has been advising the women of his congregation to unloose in order to get men away from their present idea that they are doing a girl a favor when they design to notice her, or take her out.

Fine idea. And here's hoping that the C. O. O. or the A. P. of the Amalgamated Order of Bricklayers or some other alphabetical society devoted to fighting wrongs will push it along.

As much as all young girls naturally like the society of boys and to dance and play round with them, it has seemed to them that the only thing they could do was just to submit to the rules that men laid down for them.

Worried Bachelor

A man of 36 is in the ideal strategic position to marry so far as age is concerned. He can take 'em almost any age, for he is old enough to have his tastes settled and his habits formed and to know what he wants.
