Four Sets Of Twin Boys Star At Alberton Closing

One of the most interesting features of Alberton Elementary School closing Thursday evening was a special number rendered by the four sets of twin boys who are among the pupils. They are Austin and Joseph O'Meara, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Claude O'Meara; Gordon and Gary Morrell, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Morrell; Allan and Arthur McRae, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McRae; Brian and Barry Campbell, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Don Campbell.

A delightful musical program, directed by the music teacher, Mrs. Rogan, was much appreciated by the large audience. In addition to primary pupils, solo parts were taken by Betty Ann Shea and Pauline Hardy. Freddy Bernard and Kenny Albert sang a duet.

The program was interspersed with the presentation of certificates and prizes. The honor prizes in each grade were donated by the merchants and business people of the town, and other prizes by the teachers.

S. S. Five Year Pin At Borden Closing

The Sunday School closing of Borden United Church was held Sunday morning, June 17th, at 10.30. The program opened with a welcome by Sheila Jay. The scripture was read by John Jay, and followed by a story, "Remembering Jesus Words," told by Mrs. Harold Coggin. Ronald Sharpe led us in prayer.

The children giving recitations included Sylvia Cousins, David Gordon, Susan Dalziel, Barbara MacLean, Mildred Gillis, Valerie MacDonald, Trudy Walsh, Barbara MacDonald, Garry Leard, Elaine Palmer, Wendell Stordy, Barbara Darrach, and Lloyd Palmer.

Mr. Clarence Ramsay, Superintendent, presented certificates for perfect attendance to Mona Jay, Betty Campbell, Norma MacKenzie, Roma Ramsay, Brian Darrach, Garry Campbell, Ronald Sharpe and Eric Darrach.

The primary Sunday School rendered a vocal number, "Jesus Our Friend."

Mrs. Douglas MacLean and Mrs. Robert Dalziel presented prizes for memory work in their classes to Barbara Darrach, Judy MacLean and Garth Nicholson.

The highlight of this service was the presentation of a five year certificate and pin, for perfect attendance to Brian Darrach. The certificate was presented by Mr. Ramsay as Miss Elizabeth Jay, his teacher, fastened the pin to Brian's coat.

The program closed with a "Farewell" by Patricia Chipman, followed by Hymn 502 and the Mizpah Benediction.
