THAT ancient adage: a soft answer turneth away wrath, suggests to an ingenious paragonist a modern mate: A short answer turneth away a customer.—Monetary Times.

THE wife of the Lord Mayor of Dublin will go to Hawarden on the 21st inst., to present to Mr. Gladstone a petition in favor of Home Rule for Ireland, signed by 500,000 Irish women.

'Woman and her diseases' is the title of an interesting illustrated treatise (100 pages) sent, post-paid, for 10 cents in stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE September number of The Brooklyn Magazine, a monthly periodical for the entertainment and instruction of the people—with sermons by Henry Ward Beecher and T. De Witt Talmage, has been received. It is very interesting.

A PORTLAND, Oregon, despatch says that news has reached there that the eastern end of the Northern Pacific tunnel, under construction through the Cascade Mountains, has caved in, and that nine white men were buried under the stones and earth, with little chance of any of them being rescued alive.

VISITORS are flocking to the Colonial and Indian Exhibition at the rate of a million every five weeks. Up to August 24th the total number since the opening had reached 2,821,706 against 2,390,146 during a like period at the Inventions in 1885; 2,241,544 at the Health in 1884, and 1,523,380 at the Fisheries in 1885.

THE following interesting statistics have been published in regard to the immigration at Manitoba last year. The total number arriving during the year was, it appears, 2,904, made up as follows:—English, 1,322; Scotch, 407; Canadians from the United States, 198; Germans, 181; Hungarians, 179; Icelanders, 139; Scandinavians, 47; Irish, 23; and Canadians from the older provinces, 550.

MR. ROGERS was warmly applauded after each effort, both for his excellent rendering and the facial expressions employed. Especially was this true in the closing piece of the evening, in which he disclaimed any intention of caricaturing Mr. Wilde, but only desired to show his style. So well was it done that those who had heard Mr. Wilde declared the impersonation to be perfect.—Melford Mercury.

WHILE a number of men were at work scraping the top sides of the bark Ralph E. Peake, yesterday afternoon, the staging upon which they were standing broke down and all were precipitated into the water. One of the number—James Toole—had his collar bone broke in the descent by coming in contact with some pig iron which fell with the staging, but the others escaped with a slight scare and a thorough wetting.

"AFTER A STORM, A CALM."—Big Bear, having had a year or so of reflection upon a rather severe diet, has apparently seen the error of his ways and come to the conclusion that fighting the white man does not pay. It is altogether unlikely that another rebellion of the character of the last will ever take place. The Indians are extremely quiet at the present time, and are apparently thoroughly satisfied, if not thoroughly subdued.—Manitoba Sun.

AMONG the Society Notes of last week the following:—"The Prince of Wales is delighting English society at Hamburg, but the fair Americans are almost monopolizing his attention. Mrs. Cunard is the reigning beauty there, and I hear that she and the heir apparent are to be seen driving about daily. There is a charm about the American women which it is difficult to express. Is it that they are more radiant and vivacious than the average English woman.

A MONTREAL letter of September 1st, says: There are signs of an approaching improvement in trade; there is already a more general enquiry in the grocery trade and a freer movement in several other lines. An increase of activity is looked for speedily, and the outlook is regarded as promising for a satisfactory fall trade. Remittances in some lines are not more than fair, but this is accounted for by the fact that harvesting operations are still in progress. The stock market has ruled very dull and inactive the last few days, transactions have been singularly few, but lately advanced values are fairly maintained considering the dullness.

ON Tuesday a terrible accident occurred at Hobart's plaster quarries, Summerville, N. B. Willford Stillman, of Belmont, Newport, a young man 18 years of age, was working under a bank, when a slide of dirt struck him on the back, crushing him to the ground. He was released from his perilous position, says the Windsor Tribune, as soon as possible, but it was found that his body was fearfully mangled. Drs. Burgess and Payzant were summoned, but there is no hope entertained for his recovery. Another man named Wilcox had a narrow escape at the same time. He was badly injured in the hip and leg, but not seriously. This is the same quarry that a man named McLellan was killed some few years ago by a rock of 10 tons weight falling and crushing him to death.

OS Monday evening last, says the St. John Telegraph, a domestic living in the house of Mr. James, a driver on the railway, took the youngest children of the family up stairs and put them to bed as usual. After doing so she left the lamp on the table in the room, and closing the door went into the lower flat again. Sometimes afterward she smelt some thing burning, and rushing up stairs to the children's bedroom discovered that the lamp had burst and the room was full of flame and smoke. She raised an alarm at once and Mrs. McLean and William Marshall rushed into the house and in a few moments succeeded in extinguishing the flames and saving the lives of the little ones, who were nearly suffocated by the dense, stifling smoke. As it happened fortunately the oil did not spatter over the bed and the flames had not reached the children before assistance came.

WE are pleased to hear that Mr. Vinnicombe and his pupils intend giving another of their Orchestral Concerts about the middle of November next. As the pupils are further advanced in their orchestral studies the selections will be of a higher order than at the former concert. We also hear that he has vacancies for five or six pupils of about twelve or sixteen years of age. Parents having children of that age should not overlook such a fine opportunity of cultivating a taste on so beautiful an instrument.

To the Antiseptic Inhaler Co. GENTLEMEN.—According to promise I write to inform you that your Inhaler has worked wonders in my case. I have only used it about two months and I find my difficulty entirely removed. I was troubled very much with a bronchial affection, accompanied with nasal catarrh which prevented me from singing—a part of my profession. I tried various nostrums without relief, until I heard of 'Butcher's Antiseptic Inhaler' through a friend who had proved its efficiency. I shall do all in my power to recommend a remedy which, to my own knowledge, has been so beneficial in every case coming under my observation.

Yours truly, JOHN HOWARD, Prof. of Music. Mr. Watson is Agent for the Inhaler, which can be seen at his Drug Store.

Boston Markets. BOSTON, Sept. 4. CHEESE.—The market has ruled quiet, but prices are firmer than last week. For the best Northern lots 9½c is asked, but very few sales can be made at over 9c. Reports from the country indicate a firmer feeling there, and the Liverpool quotation has advanced to 45s.

EGGS.—There has been a fair demand for fresh stock, with sales of Eastern extras at 17½ to 18c, and Prince Edward Island firsts 15½ to 16c. At the close best marks of Island and Nova Scotia readily command 16c.

POTATOES.—The market is liberally supplied with Potatoes, but there is a fair trade and prices are steady at 55 to 65c per bushel, the outside for best New Hampshire stock. Sales in barrels at $1.75 to $2 per barrel. Sweet potatoes, with sales at $2 to $2.25 per barrel.

FISH TRADE.—There continues to be considerable excitement in the market for Mackerel. Last fares from the North Bay at $12.75, and others are held in Gloucester at $15 per bbl, sea packed. Sales of P. E. Island were at $11 to $12 per bbl, but a part of late receipts are held higher. Inspected lots of Bay sold in Portland at extreme prices, say $9.50 for No 3; $12 for No 2 and $20 for No 1 per bbl. The market is very much unsettled, and it is impossible to give quotations that will hold good for more than a day at a time. Advice from the Bay fleet are not favorable. Some vessels are on their way home with a good fare, but others have done very little and the fishing season in the Bay will soon be closed.

Codfish continue in liberal supply, and prices are easy, with a dull trade. Pickle cured Bank rule at $2.12 to $2.52, and dry Bank at $2.50 to $2.75 per qtl., as to quality. A cargo of 2,500 qtls. French Cod arrived. George's codfish range from $2.50 to $3. Hake dull at $1.50 per qtl. Haddock $1.60 to $1.75, and Pollock at $1.50 to $1.75 for dry and $2.50 for slack salted.

The Great Yacht Race.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. This has been the greatest yachting day of New York has ever seen and another day of glory for Boston, for her yacht, the Mayflower, has won the first race of the international series against the British cutter Galatea, with a steady white sail breeze from the southward, permitting each to carry all their light sails. The Galatea was beaten 12 min. 40 sec., actual time, or 12 min. 2 sec., corrected time, the Mayflower having given her 38 seconds time allowance according to the New York Club rules under which the races are sailed. The contest was fair for both yachts inasmuch as half of the course sailed gave windward work while the other half was with free sheets. The next race will be on Thursday.

The Moncton Meeting.

MONCTON, Sept. 7. The Liberal meeting at Moncton in the opera house was attended by about 800 people. Admittance being by ticket. W. J. Robinson presided. On the platform besides Hon. L. H. Davies, were Hon. W. T. Pipes, A. A. Stockton, H. M. Emmerson, and quite a number of others. The chairman on introducing Mr. Pipes said that before the meeting closed the people would know the reason why the Liberals of Moncton did not allow their opponents to take part in the meeting. Mr. Pipes was the first speaker followed by Mr. Davies, who occupied nearly two hours. He was followed by George V. McInerney and Dr. Stockton, and the meeting closed at eleven, with a vote of thanks to the speakers and with cheers for Blake and the Queen.

An Explanation.

HALIFAX, Sept. 7. The delay in the arrival of the British ironclad Bellerophon, at St. John's, Nfld., is accounted for by the fact that the Admiral, Earl Clanwilliam, having visited Boone Bay, for the purpose of enquiring into the circumstances of American fishermen being ordered away by the collector of customs, and ascertaining, in view of the alarming reports published abroad respecting the destitution and famine on the Labrador coast, what is the actual state of these affairs and of the people. H. M. S. Emerald duly acknowledged the presence of the Admiral by the usual salute of guns, in doing which one of the men attending one of the guns was killed.
