ISLANDER RECALLS BOOMING ICE BUSINESS

Cecil Barbour, now of 158 Great George St., Charlottetown, and a native of Alma, P.E.I. recalls the days when he drove this team in the ice business in Dorchester, Mass. He is seen on the driver's seat in this picture. Now retired, Mr. Barbour was in the ice business in the Boston area for 17 years, from 1903 to 1920, and in Detroit for 20 years. He said the Boston operation grew from 12 routes to 45 while he was with the company. They put up as much as 100,000 tons of ice a year. He left Detroit in 1940. By that time the ice business was starting to feel the pinch of mechanical refrigeration. In Detroit Mr. Barbour was district manager. The company grew from 12 plants to 28. He is an uncle of W.G. Barbour, Charlottetown.

Drama Ticket Sales Heavy

The Dominion Drama Festival ticket committee yesterday reported that the $2.50 seats in the Fathers of Confederation Memorial Theatre, are also all sold out for the finals being staged May 18-23.

It was reported that, so far, $1,699.50 worth of vouchers for seats at the festival have been sold.

110 persons had bought "series tickets", good for all eight performances, as of Dec. 4, a ticket committee spokesman said adding that by April 4, 1963, only 60 series tickets had been sold in Kitchener, Ont., where the festival finals were held last May.

The committee reported it had received an order for three series tickets from a lady in Hamilton, Ont., who had read of the ticket sale progress in a newspaper clipping and wanted to reserve her tickets before it was too late.

Lippert Appeal Rejected In Cuba

OTTAWA (CP) — The appeal of Ronald Patrick Lippert of Kitchener, Ont., against a 30-year sentence for possessing explosives and conspiring against Cuba has been disallowed by the Cuban court which tried him, External Affairs Minister Paul Martin said Monday.

He said in a Commons reply to Opposition Leader John Diefenbaker that the Canadian government is giving further consideration to the case. He planned to see Cuban Ambassador Americo Cruz later in the day.

Mr. Martin said Lippert's appeal was rejected last Thursday or Friday.

Lippert was convicted last month after a trial before a five-man military tribunal in Havana. A companion, William Milne of Montreal was acquitted.

A confession by Lippert, in which he claimed to have been working for the United States Central Intelligence Agency, was introduced in evidence.
