

The Unexpected Change.

From all quarters we are receiving expressions of approval of the stand taken by THE EXAMINER respecting the "unexpected report." Tory and Grit—farmer and artisan—men of all classes and conditions—are, as we anticipated, unanimous in the opinion that this Province must not have Nova Scotian officials foisted upon it with supercilious indifference to its representatives and without any regard being paid to the just claims of Island officials to promotion. Some, indeed, say that we have not written strongly enough; and it has been suggested that if this one-sided policy, by which all the good railway offices are given to Nova Scotians, is continued, and Island officials are left without hope of promotion, the Minister of Marine should try the effect of retaliation and fill all the Nova Scotia offices in the Marine and Fisheries Department with Islanders. We call Mr. Pope's attention to this suggestion. Suppose Mr. Pope, without consulting Nova Scotia's representatives, were "unexpectedly" to make our friend, Mr. McLennan, Commissioner of fisheries for Nova Scotia, and promote Mr. Mitchell to the position of Agent of his Department in Halifax! How would Sir Charles like it? And is it likely that Daly, Ritchie and the other representatives of Nova Scotia would meekly submit?

To-day.

To-day is a great day—mayhap a terrible day—in the neighboring Republic. Electors will to-day vote for:—

- (1.) Presidential Electors in every State of the Union.
- (2.) A Delegate to Congress in every Territory of the Union.
- (3.) Congressmen in Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.
- (4.) Legislatures that will choose each an United States Senator in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin—sixteen Senators.
- (5.) State officers, all or a part, in Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Massachusetts, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas.
- (6.) Constitutional amendments, or questions of calling convention for revising the State Constitution, or proposed statutes submitted to the people by the Legislatures in Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, North Carolina.

Summerside Items.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Lindley Company will perform the "Two Orphans" in Ludlow Hall on Thursday the 4th inst.

On Thursday night last, a pane of glass in Mr. Jeremiah McArthur's shop window, on Water street, was broken and a pair of boots taken by some parties as yet unknown.

Work on the tank was commenced on Friday morning last. Mr. Rodd has charge of the work. Mr. Rodd is of opinion that the men will be unable to dig the tank the required depth—14 feet.

Rev. Dr. George Leeming lectured in Ludlow Hall on Friday night last, on "Mary Queen of Scots." The lecture was listened to by a large and intelligent audience. At the close of the lecture the Rev. gentleman recited "Shamus O'Brien."

On Monday evening last a meeting was held in the Progress office, and a Summerside Literary Institute organized. The following officers were elected: President, W. B. Ramsay; Vice do, A. P. McLellan; Sec. Treas., Charles Murphy. The following committee was also appointed: Neil McLeod, chairman; C. B. McNeill, Thomas Lefurgy, Walter Doull and W. C. Collett. The meetings of the Institute are held in the Ladies' Room, Ludlow Hall. Night of meeting—Monday.

A number of boys who were celebrating "Hollow E'en" in their own quiet manner on Saturday night last were arrested and brought before the Stipendiary Magistrate on Monday, when some good advice was administered to them and discharged. They spent from Saturday night till 10 o'clock on Monday morning in the police station, during which time they had an opportunity for reflection.

In the last Progress the manager of that paper still maintains that he was right in what he said regarding the order kept in the Methodist Church on the evening of the 20th October. He says: "We adhere strictly to it, and are prepared to fortify our position by the opinion of many ladies and gentlemen." Further on he says: "We might add that Mr. Deinstadt had occasion once to request order." And again: "We say and will maintain that the order was commendable." Now, if the editor of the Progress is able to "fortify his position," why does he not do so? Does he suppose that this bare statement is sufficient proof that he is right and that others are unable to judge between good and bad conduct? If the editor is able to produce all this testimony by all means let us have it. Again if the conduct was commendable where was the necessity for Mr. Deinstadt to request order. The Progress did not tell its readers that the groom and groomsman were standing before the minister, who was waiting for the bride, book in hand, at the time the request for order was made. Here is a difference between two statements: First, the minister had to request order; secondly, the order "was commendable." We have either to believe that the order "was commendable," or that the request of the minister was out of place and uncalled for. Still more violent, the Progress deigns to notice your correspondent, and in doing so calls him "This Mule." Thanks, Mr. Progress. The editor of this exemplary sheet has always held himself and his paper up as a guide for young people. He now sets a fine example for the young. How nice it would sound for a young person to call another (because of a difference of opinion) "this mule." Truly, a fine example of one who has "always taken great interest in the young and rising generation." Instead of progressing, we think he is retrograding. The Progress seems to be a little over-anxious to defend itself against the truthful statements which appeared both in the EXAMINER and Journal. While the Journal is able to take care of itself, we do not intend to allow Mr. Charles B. McNeill, the manager, or editor, or whatever he may be, of the Progress, to call your correspondent a "mule," because he told the truth. Mr. McNeill well knows that his statement was anything but an honest one, and if he had not been an ass (a term which is much more appropriate to Mr. McNeill than a mule is to your correspondent) he never would have published it. If the Progress publishes any such statements in future on like subjects, it will be our duty to let your readers know the truth.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW—Thanksgiving Day.

GEORGE McLEOD, Esq., is, we are glad to report, again recovering.

ELEVEN schooners loaded with produce entered Halifax from P. E. Island on Saturday last.

MUCKY JACKSON was, to-day, sentenced to six months imprisonment with hard labor for stealing a shirt.

THEIR many friends will be pleased to learn that Judge Hensley and family have arrived safely in England.

CABLE to H. Haszard, Demerara, 30th Oct., arrived brig. Kitty Clyde, will return to Charlottetown with molasses.

"PRINCE COUNTY," on "Nova Scotia Officials in Prince Edward Island" is unavoidably crowded out. With other correspondence on hand, it will appear on Thursday.

SOURIS BREAKWATER.—It is reported that the tender of Mr. John Mullally, of Souris West, for raising and repairing Souris Breakwater—being the lowest—has been accepted.

WE learn by telegraph that the schooner J. C. Newell, of about eighty tons burden, bound to this port with a cargo of Anthracite coal to Horace Haszard has been wrecked and is reported sunk off Lockport N. S.

A LITTLE boy, eight years of age, named Morrison, was arrested by the police for stealing a watch chain and locket from Mr. Wm. Gordon. At the court this morning the magistrate dismissed the prisoner, as he was too young to realize the seriousness of his offence.

BAND CONCERT.—Remember the grand Promenade Concert of the Band of the 82nd Battalion in the Drill Shed on Thursday evening next, the 4th inst. A rare musical treat will be enjoyed. All lovers of good music should attend. The militia, officers, and men, are requested to attend in uniform.

NEW STATION.—The new station at Bear River was opened on Saturday last for the transaction of business. We congratulate the people of Bear River and surrounding country upon the additional railway accommodation which this new station will afford at a place that is destined to become, at no distant day, an important business centre.

TO-MORROW is Thanksgiving Day. When we contrast our state of peace, liberty and plenty with the state of Europeans—ruled with a rod of iron by means of armed millions, with wars and revolutions impending, with Nihilism permeating the Continent, and unable to produce bread enough to feed themselves—we must feel that we have cause to be thankful. There will be no EXAMINER to-morrow.

REV. DR. LEEMING.—Last evening in the Academy of Music, this distinguished orator, delivered his entertaining discourse, entitled "Two hours with Charles Dickens." The audience was delighted with his delivery of the best pieces of the great English Novelist. To deliver these selections well, it is necessary to be a perfect actor and elocutionist. It is needless for us to say that as an actor, elocutionist, and orator, Dr. Leeming has few, if any, rivals. To-night he will deliver his farewell lecture, "Joan of Arc," half the proceeds of which will be given to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. We feel that he will do justice to this great historical character.

JAMES FARADY, JOHN McCABE AND JAMES DOOLING were arraigned before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon, charged by Mrs. Susannah Smith with assault. It appears that on Saturday night Mr. Smith was brutally assaulted by some parties unknown. He was found by his wife lying helplessly on Grafton street, and carried home. His face was dreadfully bruised, and there was a ghastly wound on his neck. The injuries, to all appearance, were inflicted by a club in the hands of some bloodthirsty ruffian. Shortly after the assault was committed, the three prisoners entered Smith's residence, and Farady used threatening and profane language towards Mrs. Smith. This was clearly proved against the first named, and the Magistrate sentenced him to three months' imprisonment with hard labor. His companions were dismissed. We learn that Mr. Smith is still confined to his house from the effects of the assault.

The Key-Note Struck.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—The article in yesterday's issue of your paper, ancient the recent Railroad appointment has struck the key note to public sentiment on this subject.

Sir Charles Tupper evidently believes that Nova Scotia is capable of producing, not only all the officers required by Canada for that Province, but have a surplus sufficient for Prince Edward Island and the other Provinces. However this may be, it would seem that Prince Edward Island must take a "back seat" and be content to be sat upon.

Can her representatives prevent this? and, if so, will they? We shall see.

Yours respectfully,
CONSERVATIVE.
