INDUCTION OF REV. MR. CHRISTIE AT TRINITY CHURCH ON WEDNESDAY

The solemn induction service of Rev. Howard Christie to the congregation of Trinity United Church took place on Wednesday evening before a large representation of the congregation. Rev. A. S. Weir, D.D., of Cornwall presided. Rev. Lewis Murray, Kensington gave the charge to the minister and the people and Rev. Lloyd Archer of Tryon preached the sermon for the occasion. Rev. Dr. Weir in opening the service noted that the induction brought forth three coincidences. First, Rev. Lewis Murray who was to give the charge to the minister and the congregation had been inducted into the same church sixteen years ago; second, Rev. Lloyd Archer had been a classmate of Mr. Christie's at Pine Hill Divinity Hall and ordained at the same time and third Mr. Archer had once served as assistant pastor with Rev. A. Frank MacLean at Saint Andrew's Church in Sydney, N. S. Following the ceremony the right hand of fellowship was extended to the new minister by members of the Presbytery. Other than the officiating clergy, Rev. A. Frank MacLean, Rev. E. C. Evans and Rev. T. A. Wilson were present at Mr. Christie's induction. A social hour during which refreshments were served gave members of the congregation an opportunity of meeting their new minister and his wife.

Summer Camp For Cubs At Buchan

A group of 50 happily excited young boys jammed vehicles of all descriptions Wednesday afternoon as they started the annual Cub summer camp at Camp Buchan. There were two Wolf Cub packs, the Third Charlottetown Pack from St. James Church, and the Ninth Charlottetown Pack from Trinity United Church. In charge of the camp is Art Perry who has been doing such a good job with the boys for the past several years. Some of the youngsters looked slightly askance at their more boisterous fellows, but they were making the trip for the first time. Those who "knew the ropes" also knew how to enjoy themselves while strictly obeying orders. The boys are expected to return to city tomorrow.
