

Saints Sace St. F.X. 3-2 In Thriller At S.D.U. Rink

St. Dunstan's Varsity Saints shocked the powerful St. F.X. hockey team 3-2 to move into first place in a jousting tangle of Maritime Intercollegiate game played at the Saints rink on Saturday night.

Saints J.Vs Down N. River Juniors

The St. Dunstan's Junior Varsity defeated the lowly North River Junior Club 7-4 in a regular league game at the Charlottetown and District Junior League at the Charlottetown Forum yesterday afternoon.

most crucial on the road to the Maritime Intercollegiate hockey championship and the right to represent the province in the Dominion College finals.

Both teams set an unbelievable pace from the opening whistle in an effort to pull this crucial four point game and there was much talk of the teams not being capable of maintaining such a terrific pace, but when the final siren sounded they were going at it as furiously as in the opening minutes of the game.

In the first stanza both teams had several good scoring opportunities, but both goalkeepers performed par-excellence just couldn't be beaten. In the second frame it was Tingley who scored the Saints' 16.26 mark that the Saints' Ed Tingley displaying some of the form which made him the leagues leading scorer last year got control of the puck from a face-off in the X-mens end and got right in front of the net and waited just long enough to have the X goalie make the first move and the slip the disk in behind him.

another one minutes later which he shot one wide of the open net as the X-mens had pulled their goalie in an effort to tie the game.

The Charlottetown Paperweights defeated RCAF Summerside Paperweights 4-1 in the first game, played Saturday evening at Charlottetown Forum.

Jim MacLeod, Lyle Sheppard Brian Carmichael, and Shawn McIsaac scored for the winners, while Bob Hanson scored for the losers.

The Brian Lewis coached Centenials defeated Summerside R.C.A.F. 4-3, in the second game played Saturday evening at Charlottetown Forum.

Three Charlottetown minor hockey league teams won their games on Saturday, knocking off Summerside, in the P.A. per-weight, Pee Wee and Bantam divisions.

First Period — Scoring — None. Penalties — DeCarufel, Clark.

Second Period — 1. SDU — Tingley (unassisted) 16.26. Penalties — Mulligan, Synalhin, Peie (2), Tinsley (2), Clarke.
