Nos échanges de Boston nous apportent la nouvelle de la mort de M. John C. Keefe, à l'âge de 61 ans. M. Keefe habitait autrefois Alberton où il tenait l'hôtel populaire des cantons de l'ouest.

Nous prions nos lecteurs de ne pas s'impatienter. Dans deux ou trois semaines, au plus tard, nous serons prêt à leur livrer notre journal à huit pages. Il nous faut toujours un peu de temps pour mettre notre nouvelle presse en état de fonctionner de manière à donner toute la satisfaction possible, sans compter les autres améliorations que nous sommes obligés de faire pour mettre tout en ordre.

Le "Pioneer" rapporte que huit hommes des environs de Wellington, qui étaient partis pour Bangor, où ils devaient s'engager pour l'hiver, ont été arrêtés à Vanceboro avec défense de traverser les lignes. De peur que quelqu'un ne s'échappât, ils ont été mis sous clef en attendant le retour des chars d'au delà des lignes qui ont ramenés à la Pointe du Chêne. Ils sont revenus à Summerside après avoir dépensé une dizaine de piastres chacun, pour rien

Les pêcheurs d'huîtres disent que ce bivalve est beaucoup plus petit et plus rare cet automne que les saisons précédentes.

Nous regrettons d'apprendre que M. J. B. Poirier, marchand vient d'être frappé de cécité d'un œil. Il doit partir ces jours-ci pour aller consulter M. le docteur Gaudet de Memramcook.

Parmi les fidèles qui ont assisté aux dévotions des Quarante Heures, on remarquait deux des plus anciens de la paroisse dans les personnes de Mme Méline Gaudet et M. Co-la Poirier âgés respectivement de 85 et 87 ans.

Les premiers jours du présent mois de novembre ont été mauvais pour messieurs les assésiens.

Trois de ces individus viennent d'être reconnus coupables de meurtre et subiront probable-ment la peine capitale.

Ce sont Durrant, à son Francisco, Holmes, à Philadelphie, Shortis, à Beauharnois.

Il y a dans la cité de Chicago une population de cinq ou six cent mille catholiques, dont la grosse majorité suivent les exercices de leur culte, tandis que du million de protestants qui s'y trouvent il n'y en a probablement pas un quart qui vont au temple.

Il y a maintenant dans l'Etat de l'Illinois, E. U., 50,000 Canadiens-français répartis presque entièrement en deux groupes: celui de Chicago, 20,000, et celui du comté de Kankakee, environ 30,000. Ils sont si nombreux dans le comté de Kankakee qu'ils y ont souvent exercé une grande influence politique. C'est M. Létourneau, un canadien, qui est présentement sénateur de la législature de l'Illinois, pour le comté de Kankakee.

Presque tous les Canadiens-français de Chicago sont catholiques, et ils ont quatre églises paroissiales, et plusieurs associations religieuses, nationales, politiques et de bienfaisance.

NOUVELLES DE LITTLE TIGNISH

Maintenant que l'on a fini d'arracher les patates, tous sont pressés à se préparer pour l'hiver.

Nous aimerions savoir en vertu de quelle clause de la loi des écoles un instituteur peut prendre ses vacances quand bon lui semble. Nous avons toujours été sous l'impression que la loi fixait deux dates spéciales à cet égard: l'une au printemps, en mai, et l'autre à l'automne, en octobre. La loi nous paraît sage sous ce rapport, vu que la plupart des enfants au temps des travaux du printemps et de l'automne peuvent rendre de grands services aux parents, sur la ferme. Mais l'instituteur de notre district—St. Roch ne croit pas en la loi des écoles quant au temps de prendre ses vacances; il a interprété les règlements à sa manière et a commencé ses vacances le 20 septembre. Nous aimerions aussi savoir comment il se fait que le maître fasse l'école les samedis pour remplacer les jours perdus pendant la semaine. J'ai demandé à l'un des "trustees" pourquoi cela se faisait. Il m'a répondu qu'il n'en savait rien.

Ainsi, il paraîtrait que le district est mené par un seul homme sans considération des intérêts des autres qui aident à supporter l'école. Si une telle manière de faire les choses dans un district d'école est conforme à la loi, nous nous y soumettrons. Dans tous les cas, nous aimerions savoir ce qui en est.

L'ANGLETERRE ET LE CANADA

Tout monde sait que le différend entre la France et l'Angleterre à propos de Terre-Neuve, se résout au fond à ceci, à peu de chose près: le homard est-il un poisson? Voilà plusieurs générations que la diplomatie s'occupe de cet intéressant problème scientifique, elle n'a pu encore donner la solution. Une question du même genre vient de s'élever entre le Canada et la Grande-Bretagne. La Colombie anglaise envoie à Londres une énorme quantité de saumon gelé, et une seule maison en envoi 50 tonnes par mois.

La corporation des poissonniers qui exerce un contrôle sérieux sur le commerce de la poissonnerie, vient de déclarer que les saumons de Colombie ne sont pas des saumons, mais des truites saumonées et par conséquent, que la vente en est illégale en Angleterre en ce moment et jusqu'au mois de février.

Comme l'interdiction de vendre ce saumon gelé en Angleterre eût été, pour la Colombie, une affaire très grave, le gouvernement canadien a chargé son agent général à Londres d'intervenir auprès de la Compagnie des poissonniers pour obtenir la levée de l'interdiction. Le commissaire des pêcheries de Colombie affirme que ses saumons ne sont pas des truites et qu'ils appartiennent à une espèce reconnue du genre saumon, mais il vient d'être décidé que les saumons de la Colombie sont bien ce qu'ils paraissent être, et les gourmets de Londres respirent plus librement.

UNE HORLOGE COMPLIQUEE

Un prince des Indes possède une horloge d'un mécanisme très compliqué et curieux. En bas du cadran se trouve un gong supporté par des pivots. Au dessous, sur une tablette, on voit une pile d'ossements gisant pêle mêle, en nombre suffisant pour reconstruire douze squelettes humains complets. Quand les aiguilles de l'horloge indiquent une heure, les ossements d'un squelette se lèvent et s'assemblent, le squelette saisit un maillet et va frapper un coup sur le gong. Quand il est deux heures, deux squelette se lèvent et vont frapper chacun un coup et sur l'heure de midi et ce minuit, toute la pile d'osse-

How people have any idea of the value of old, rare, odd and obsolete coins. Did you know that a Boston shoe-maker sold a collection of coins for TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS? Did you know that some rare American coins are worth as high as SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS EACH? It is a fact that the rare 1877 quarter is worth $200.00, the 1894 silver dollar is worth $300.00, half cents made between 1850 and 1890 are worth $25.00 to $250.00 each, some large old style copper cents are worth as high as $4.00 each. Some issues of Continental and Confederate bills are rare and valuable, as well as certain pieces of fractional currency or "scrips". Issues of these, many rarities in half cents, cents, three-cent pieces, half dimes, dimes, twenty-cent pieces, quarters, half dollars and dollars are worth a big premium over face value. The Reliable Coin and Stamp Guide gives accurate information, and you may depend upon it. While a great many people collect old coins, there is more demand for rare postage and revenue stamps, and some comparatively recent stamps are now scarce. Collections of stamps often sell as high as A THOUSAND DOLLARS. Stamps from letters sent during the war, revenue stamps, old documents, etc., are in great demand, and worth a big premium over face value. Look over your old letters in the garret and elsewhere; perhaps $50.00 APiece, you may find some rare things. This book gives all particulars, with prices, and you may depend upon it. No matter if you handle but ten cents a day you should have this book. EVERYBODY NEEDS IT. Farmers, Storekeepers, Clerks, Mechanics, Agents, Postmasters, Doctors, Lawyers, etc. Buy and girls should send for it and expose their cellars in search of old letters, which may contain rare stamps.
