

Ch'town Man Is Found Guilty In Wounding Case

Harry McGee, 19, of Charlottetown was found guilty as charged in the Supreme Court hearing which was completed yesterday evening before Mr. Justice Tweedy.

The accused was arrested Christmas morning following a brawl that took place on the city street the night before. Charged that with intent he did wound causing bodily harm to Glendon Edwards, of Newfoundland seaman, he was remanded to the Supreme Court following a preliminary hearing.

Sentence will be pronounced Monday at 10:30 a.m.

Arraigned Tuesday the accused pleaded not guilty. Counsel for the accused was Mr. J. O. C. Campbell, Q.C. Mr. John P. Nicholson represented the Crown.

The first witness called by the Crown, Glendon Edwards, described to the Court the incidents leading up to his scuffle with the accused whom he and a young lady had encountered on Sydney Street on Christmas Eve.

SLASHED WITH KNIFE

Offered up into the street by the accused, the witness said that he removed his jacket and went out. They started a scuffle during which witness said that the accused slashed him across the abdomen with the blade of a pocket knife, making three cuts.

Backing up toward the south side of the road witness said he apparently tripped on the curb, fell backwards, and struck his head on the brick wall of the building occupied by H.R. Large and Co.

Falling down in a dazed condition the witness told the Court that the accused had jumped upon him stabbing him below the left eye and in the left breast. He then followed this up by slashing the left ear, which was almost completely severed.

Other witnesses heard included: Constables Hugh MacKinnon and Preston Hillier of the City Police Force, who arrested the accused and discovered the knife; Warren MacKenzie who found the victim of the brawl and sent for an ambulance; Annie McCuskey

An enthusiastic group of Young Conservatives from Charlottetown and vicinity heard an excellent address by Hon. J. Angus MacLean, Minister of Fisheries for Canada, at a dinner and business meeting in the Queen Hotel last evening.

The meeting was sponsored by the P.E.I. Young Progressive Conservative Association, and was presided over by John H. Morris, Charlottetown.

Other hear table guests included Walter R. Shaw, Provincial Leader of the party; R. R. Bell, former leader of the party, who introduced the Hon. Mr. MacLean; Lowell Allan, Executive

220 Shots Of Salk Vaccine Given At Clinic

A total of 220 shots of Salk anti-polio vaccine was administered at the clinic held Monday night at the Community Centre. Of these, 131 were second shots, 81 were firsts, and eight were final.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. L. H. Killorn, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Turner, R.N., with Mrs. Savage and Mrs. Gates carrying out the administrative work.

Yesterday morning Dr. Killorn, assisted by Mrs. Turner inoculated seventy at a repeat clinic held at Riverside Hospital. The staff of the Provincial Infirmary were also included in this clinic. At Riverside, the administrative duties were performed by Mrs. Hiram Howatt and Mrs. C. W. Currie.

The next adult anti-polio clinic will be held at St. Dunstan's University Friday morning—not at the RCMP Barracks as previously announced. This clinic is open to the members of the RCMP, the students at SDU, the employees of various concerns in the area, and the general public.

This was announced at an executive meeting held last night at City Hall. The president, F. A. S. Stewart Jones, presided and appointed a nominating committee to select a new slate of officers for presentation at the annual meeting.

Various projects were discussed by the committee chairman in preparation for the annual meeting.

In attendance at the meeting were: Dr. J. P. Lantz, Brigadier W. W. Reid, D. K. Martin, L. D. McKay, B. R. Cudmore, and Dr. G. C. Fisher.

Stresses City Finances Big Business Now

The city finance committee needs the services of able and competent men Councillor Edwin C. Johnstone told the Centennial Y's Men last night. The Councillor was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the organization held at the YMCA.

Councillor Johnstone, who will be candidate for mayor at the next civic election, and who has been chairman of the finance committee of the City Council for a number of years, told the Y's Men that the constant change occurring every two years in the make-up of this important committee was detrimental to its efficiency.

City finances which now turn over in the vicinity of $1,000,000 annually is now "big business", he said.

An hour-long discussion followed the guest speaker's address.

Prior to Councillor Johnstone's speech a sing-song was held under the direction of Lloyd Grant. This was followed by a devotional period led by Bruce Hodgins.

The speaker was thanked by Norman MacLeod and introduced by Bob Giggey, who occupied the chair.

Most women agree that luncheon and supper pose a meal-planning problem. So perhaps you will welcome some ideas to help you serve more interesting luncheons and suppers! First, keep in mind a few good sauces—and use them, with your own favorite flavor accents, in a variety of creamed and casserole dishes. Give attention to selection and prettifying of desserts, no matter how simple. And depend quite a lot for variety and nourishment on Carnation Evaporated Milk. For example, Carnation's special blending qualities give wonderful smoothness to sauces to help you serve meat, eggs and fish in different ways—and Carnation's double-richness supplies extra nourishment for your family. Here's a meat dish with an easy Carnation sauce recipe that illustrates what I mean!

CORNED BEEF SAVANNAH

(Makes 4 servings)

2 tbsps. butter
2 tbsps. flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 large can undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1 12-ounce can corned beef, diced
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup diced celery
1/4 cup chopped green pepper (optional)

Melt butter, flour and seasonings together in saucepan over low heat until smooth. Gradually stir in undiluted Carnation. Continue stirring until thickened and smooth. Add remaining ingredients. Heat and serve on toast.

Soup is a "Natural" for lunches and suppers. I mean of course, the hearty and nourishing kind that needs only a sandwich or salad or dessert to complete the meal. To put important nourishment into soups—and to make them rich and smooth as no other form of milk can do—make yours with better-blending Carnation.

CREAMY SCRAMBLED EGGS

(Makes 4 servings)

4 eggs
1/2 tsp. salt
Pinch of pepper
Pinch of mixed herbs (optional)
1/2 cup (small can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1 to 2 tablespoons butter

Beat first five ingredients together with rotary beater until well blended. Melt butter in frying pan or double boiler. Pour in egg mixture. Cook over low heat until set on bottom and sides of pan. Carefully draw set portion away from pan and let liquid run under. Continue until all is lightly set. Serve at once.
