HAPPENINGS

Mrs. W. H. Pethick, Euston Street, had as guests for the weekend Mrs. Champion and Miss Helen Chamption of Halifax.

H. MacKinnon.
Mrs. MacKinnon then called the Baby Band roll, and 15 members paid fees, and passed in gift boxes. New members were enrolled. 7 were promoted to Mission Band, and certificates were presented by Mrs. J.A. MacPherson. Mothers with their children besides those who are W.M.S. members, included Mrs. Calum Martin, Mrs. M. VanDerstine, Mrs. Ivo Nicholson and Mrs. Don Nicholson. All were welcomed by the superintendent. Meeting closed by singing "Can a Little Child". Picnic lunch was served to all by mothers and W.M.S. members.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crichton who recently returned from a three months visit to Britain entertained at a family dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel, Monday evening, October 22nd. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Crichton's birthday.

Knitting Clubs are popular in this province for the winter months. One of these clubs, instead of meeting at the homes of members as is the usual custom, was dining out on Monday evening at the Queen Hotel. Among the members present were the following: Mrs. Arthur Cantwell, Mrs. James MacDougall, Mrs. Stanley Oram, Mrs. Wendell Murphy and Mrs. Ivo Cadmore.

SOUTHPORT H.S.
The September meeting of the Southport Home and School association was held on September 24th with Mr. H.B. McLean as guest speaker.

After her opening remarks the President Mrs. MacDonald introduced the teachers. Mr. McLean then took over. He gave an interesting demonstration on writing followed by a few magic tricks. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. McLean by Mrs. Gaudet. Lunch followed.

Then came the business part of the meeting. The monthly News letter was read by Mrs. MacDonald. A leaflet was enclosed with an idea for Children on Halloween to collect Pennies, nickels and dimes for U.N.T.C.F. instead of their regular treats of candy and fruit. Five delegates were appointed to attend the Semi Annual meeting to be held on Oct 22nd Mrs. Gillan, Mrs. McCarron, Mrs. Neal, Mrs. Burke, and Mrs. Murphy.

The October meeting being the Annual meeting a nominating committee of Mrs. Rogerson, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Reardon was appointed to bring in a slate of officers for the following year.

HELPS OVERCOME CONSTIPATION
Maybe you aren't getting at the cause of your constipation. Good-tasting Kellogg's All-Bran gets directly at a common cause of constipation: lack of good food bulk in the diet. Laxatives that do not contain bulk cannot correct this condition. All-Bran, made of whole wheat grain, provides all the bulk (gentle roughage) you need daily for regularity. Kellogg's—the original, ready-to-eat bran cereal. Enjoy comfortable, natural regularity within 10 days or return the empty carton and get twice what you paid.

VALLEYFIELD B.B.
The annual meeting of the Baby Band of the Valleyfield W.M.S. was held in the schoolroom of the church on a beautiful September afternoon. Baby Band superintendent, Mrs. Dan MacKinnon, presided and opened the meeting with the hymn, "Father We Thank Thee", followed by prayer by Mrs. W.A. Bruce.

Mrs. MacKinnon then gave a brief review of this Baby Band which was organized in 1931, and which today, holds its 25th yearly meeting. She also referred to World Friends' This paper has had its 27th birthday. "World Friendship" was read by Mrs. J.A. MacPherson, Mrs. W.A. Bruce, Mission Superintendent, called the Mission Band roll. 16 members were present and stood and repeated the Mission Band purpose. This was followed by a short program, singing by Norma Vanbuskirk and Nancy MacKenzie, reading by John At MacDonald, singing by Robert MacPhee; reading by Lois MacKinnon group motion song by Donna and Debbie MacPherson, Peter and Butch MacPherson, Clara and Albert Martin, Sherran and Mary

ELLEN'S DIARY

Story Has Happy Ending

"Ah ha Ellen, 'the time is come' the Walrus said" a blue-eyed matron of the friendly company of them in the near piggery twinkled up at us this evening toward sunset. Though on farms we find it a bit difficult to get accustomed to the idea, having long given such credit to the horse or the dog, modern animal psychologists declare that in scientific tests carried out the pig surpasses in intelligence the former and rates not far below the latter—the cat, in its knowing. To the chimpanzee goes the first honors in terms we find of the monkey family claiming the successive places up to and including the fifth. The dog ranks sixth. And Ole Zip Coon too, gets a bow for his cleverness.

"Yes, Ellen," she said, "I believe to my heart the time is come."

"I have a premonition too" the one in the adjacent pen spoke up soberly when we dropped a share of the apple parings we were disposing of to the trough there.

"I can't actually explain it but I have a feeling," she continued, "that... oh well, time alone will tell."

James looks up now from the periodical that came today to discuss the same item with the younger farmer here.

"None yet?" he queries.

"None yet" the younger man shakes his head. "I think I'll leave the lights on there and go home and rest for a while. Until midnight at least."

James nods. "I'll look in on them myself before we go to bed" he promises.

It has been a busy day for our sweet now to them would be a night of unbroken rest. All day they worked at the mangels, completing the harvesting at Rob's and then moving to the patch at Alderlea.

This is considered by them to be the most tedious harvesting of all but a necessary cro in the light of the hog-raising done. Not that we go into it extensively at the same time to an extent where as James has said "a few mangels often come in mighty handy to fill them, if not actually to fatten!"

The grandchildren were here to take a share of work with the rest—Jamie to manish tasks in the field, the younger three to help with the storing in the cellar. Hurrying, this they managed to find precious "between-times" for play out about. And after supper to their delight they prevailed on Jamie to make one of the number. What laughter there was then! What scuffling of young feet through Autumn leaves! And nice memories gathered of the childhood years.

"Well, Ellen" James puts his paper aside and looks up, "where were we?"

"Where is she?" we giggle.

"In his arms", he smiles boyishly. "Doesn't it always end that way?"

"In friction."

"And in fact" he chuckles rising and reaching for his cap.

Until tomorrow — — — Diary — — — Good-night...

in marriage with Manford Stirling Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Nicholson, North Wiltshire. The Reverend E. C. Evan was the officiating clergyman.

The bride looked enchanting in a two piece suit of Navy blue, with white picture hat, and white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Victor MacDonald, cousin of the bride, was Matron-of-honour. She wore a two piece suit of navy and white, white picture hat, and white accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Mr. Wendell Nicholson, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Keefe, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a dusty rose crepe dress, with lace inserts, white picture hat and white accessories. Her corsage was mauve and pink carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Queen Hotel for approximately fifty guests, where a turkey dinner was served.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped by miniature bride and groom, and flanked by bowls of yellow mums and pink carnations.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. E. C. Evan and responded to by the groom.

The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to New York. For traveling the bride wore a grey tailored suit with pink accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson are residing in Bradalbane where Mr. Nicholson is employed with the C. N. R. as Station Agent.
