FOR SALE. RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son situated in the village of Pownal, 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The proprietors have carried on a large market garden nursery, and seed business for twenty years, and the purchaser will no doubt retain a large share of the local trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, a one and a half acre barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the Island. This land has been manured year after year, for so long that as an old man said the other day: "It is all a bed of manure and could be hauled for top dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, or it would be admirable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the Island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting and within easy distance churches, post office school telephone and shops all at the door. For terms and further particulars, apply to Von Clure Gay, J. J. Gay & son or to JOHN T. McLEISH, Solicitor Charlottetown

FOR SALE. The Rosebank Farm

Containing 180 Acres of Land.

THE above Farm has 120 acres cleared and in a good state of cultivation, the remainder covered with wood. It is situated opposite the City of Charlottetown on the Southport side of the Hillsborough River, convenient to Schools, etc.; one mile from Southport Ferry in Summer, and one mile from the city in the winter by the ice.

On the Farm is a good two story Dwelling House and a fine first-class barn and other outside buildings. It is all fenced with cedar posts and barb wire, with several cross fences of the same material. The shore front extends for the distance of one mile, giving an abundance of sea manure, also a mussel bed within half mile of the shore.

It would make an excellent Dairy Farm or would make a fine site for a summer hotel, having superior bathing facilities and a perfect view of the city. The general surrounding are very picturesque, making it one of the most desirable health resorts in the Maritime Provinces.

Any purchaser wishing to buy the Stock and Farming Implements in conjunction with the Farm can do so if required. All questions asked will be promptly answered by the undersigned.

Half of the purchase money can remain on mortgage at 5 per cent.

For further particulars apply to the owner, FRANK McKENNA, Queen Street, Charlottetown.

GIRL AS AN OFFICE BOY.

She Makes It Uncomfortable, It Seems, For Women Visitors.

Oftentimes a representative of the gentler sex is placed in the position of door-keeper, and the uninitiated feels his heart grow glad when he gazes upon her face, for he is sure that he will receive gentle treatment at her hands. If he is young, good looking and well dressed, she cannot be affable enough, but let his hair be well frosted with the snows of Father Time and his trousers be somewhat "fringed," and she will be as indifferent to his appeals as the young man who formerly occupied her place. It is to one of her own sex, however, that she can best display her frigid manners. Let a woman, no matter whether she be old or young, rich or poor, enter the office, and the girl in charge stiffens immediately, while over the face of the caller comes a look of despair, for she knows what is coming.

"I wish to see Mr. —," ventures the caller. Like ice-cubes the words fall from the lips of the doorkeeper.

"He is busy."

"Please take my name in to him."

"He is busy, I tell you," returns the doorkeeper, investigating the contents of her purse or examining her nails very closely.

"I am sure he will see me if he knows I am here," continues the caller if she be very persistent.

The doorkeeper raises her eyebrows in the most exasperating manner, then with a sigh of utter weariness languidly rises from her seat, adjusts the plait in her skirt, returns to her desk for her handkerchief, then remembers that some papers need alteration, and finally, when the caller is almost reduced to tears, she leisurely makes a second attempt to follow out the request made, and when she returns and gives the requisite permission to enter it is with the air of a queen bestowing a royal favor.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Wilmer McLean's Two Historic Houses.

General Horace Porter describes the surrender of Lee in his "Campaigning With Grant" in The Century. The surrender took place in the house of Wilmer McLean, it will be remembered. General Porter says: It is a singular historical coincidence that McLean's former home was upon a Virginia farm near the battleground of the first Bull Run, and his house was used for a time as the headquarters of General Beauregard. When it was found that this fight was so popular that it was given an encore and a second battle of Bull Run was fought the next year on the same ground, Mr. McLean became convinced that the place was altogether lacking in repose, and, to avoid the active theater of war, he removed to the quiet village of Appomattox, only to find himself again surrounded by contending armies. Thus the first and last scenes of the war drama in Virginia were enacted upon his property.

The Spanish Main.

The Spanish main is the circular bank of islands forming the northern and eastern boundaries of the Caribbean sea, beginning at Mosquito and including Jamaica, Santo Domingo, the Leeward islands and the Windward islands, with the coast of Venezuela, in South America. The word "main" has no affinity with the English word as in mainland, but comes from the Spanish word manana, shadow, given in reference to the imaginary resemblance of the broken chain of islands to that (in early days) familiar article.—Boston Transcript.

Disappointed.

Gertie—Marie is awfully angry at that young Tutter.

Mertie—What for? Did she find out he was flirting with her?

Gertie—No. She thought that he was flirting, but learned that he was not.—Brooklyn Life.

Nervous Children.

Nervous children will not bear very much cold bathing. They have not got heat enough in their bodies to react against it. Do not demand too much exercise from them.

Do not let them study too much or go to school too early. Of course their minds must be pleasantly employed, and the kindergarten may be available after they are 3 years old. Cultivate in them a love of nature and outdoor life, especially in pleasant weather. This is the true, grand kindergarten. Do not forget they need companionship.

Give them a good, comfortable bed, where the air is pure, and do all you can to promote healthful sleep. A little easily digested food before bedtime often helps them to sleep more soundly than they otherwise would.

An Understanding Reached.

"But our agreement was," said the slender young man from the east, as he paused for a moment in his digging to allow the frozen drops of perspiration to rattle into the claim, "concerning the division of our labor, that, as far as the work of digging or washing out the gold was concerned, I could take my choice."

"Yer a liar," said Klondike Kit, as he scooped a handful of nuggets from the pan. "I said yer could take yer pick."—Detroit Free Press.

Disatisfied.

"When did she first seem to become dissatisfied with your present?"

"When she accidentally ran across the price mark."—Chicago Post.
