DEATH NOTICE
WILLIAM JAMES STEWART
A wide circle of relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the passing of William J. Stewart at his home in New Glasgow on the morning of Sept 12th, 1959, at the age of 95 years.
The late Mr. Stewart was born at Park Corner, the eldest son of the late Albert Stewart and his wife Annie MacLeod. After his father's death he continued to farm on the old homestead until 1928, he then (with his mother) purchased a home in the adjoining district of Sea View where he did fox and mink farming for ten years. Later he built a home in New Glasgow where he resided until his death on the above mentioned date. His mother passed away in 1943.
He was a man of excellent character and held in high esteem and respect by all. His happiest moments were when he was surrounded by friends and relatives in the home where young and old found a welcome.
He possessed a lovely tenor voice and in his young days gave freely of his talent for miles around at all entertainments.
Surviving members of the family are four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Rattee, Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Wallace Williams and Mrs. Everett McLeod, Summerside; Mrs. George Dickieson, New Glasgow.
The funeral under the direction of Mr. Joseph Davison, Kensington was held the following Monday, September 14th, from the Geddies Memorial Presbyterian Church and was conducted by the Rev. Allison Haley, pastor of the New Glasgow United Church who delivered a beautiful message. Hymns sung were: "The 2nd Psalm", and "Peace Perfect Peace". Mrs. Harry Underwood presided at the organ.
The pall bearers were nephews and a cousin: Reginald Hiltz, Fred and Harold MacLellan, J. Weeks Murphy, Robert Sutherland and James McLeod.
Interment was held in the church cemetery in the family plot. A large number of offerings bore silent testimony to the respect in which the deceased was held.
CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. George Dickieson and sisters of the late William Stewart, wish to sincerely thank Rev. Allison Haley, R. Bryer Jones, Rev. Harold Bryer, Dr. Ian MacMillan and his friends who sent letters and messages of sympathy. Kindness in pillar to lean on in the time of trouble.
St. Machar's Cathedral at Aberdeen, built of the native granite was founded in the 12th century.
