Musicians Live Long.

A French writer notes that, though a few great musicians have died young—to wit, Mozart at 35, Schubert at 31, Bellini at 33, Mendelssohn at 38 and Weber when he was but 40—a large number have lived to be very old men. Those who died between 60 and 70 years of age include Bach, Von Bulow and Rubinstein. Living beyond 70 years came Gluck, Gounod, Handel, Liszt, Meyerbeer, Rossini, Spontini and Wagner, while the great age of 89 was attained by Auber and others. Dying at more than 80 were Cherubini, Cramer, Lachner, Palestrina, Rameau, Schutz and Taubert. The average age of musical celebrities is about 67 years.

Good Reasons For Giving.

At the meeting of the Fifeshire association held in London Dr. Wallace told a story of a pensioner who used to stand with a placard on his breast enumerating his claims to the coppers he begged. The list ran thus: "Battles, 4; wounds, 5; children, 6; total, 15." This is almost as good as Sir M. Grant-Duff's story of the Irish beggar who prayed, "For the love of God, sir, give me a crust, for I am so thirsty that I don't know where I shall sleep tonight!"—London Globe.

The Bishop's Advice.

A clergyman once complained to Bishop Blomfield of London that his parishioners were indifferent to his teachings. "No sooner," said he, "do I begin to preach than they begin to doze." "Do you," asked the bishop, "preach your own sermons?" "Always, my lord, always." "Then, my good friend, suppose you try some one else's," retorted the bishop.

As the Honeymoon Winkles.

She—I really ought to have a new hat. He—How would it do to stick a few feathers in the top crust of one of those pies you baked last week? You would have something that would last then.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sharks and the Dead Whale.

The presence of any large quantity of easily obtainable food is always sufficient to secure the undivided attention of the shark tribe. When "cutting in" whales at sea, I have often been amazed at the incredible numbers of these creatures that gather in a short space of time, attracted by some mysterious means from heaven only knows where to remote distances. It has often occurred to us, when whaling in the neighborhood of New Zealand, to get a sperr-whale alongside without a sign of a shark below or a bird above. Within an hour from the time of our securing the vast mass of flesh to the ship the whole area within at least an acre has been alive with a scolding multitude of sea birds, converting the blue surface of the sea into the semblance of a plain of new fallen snow.

The harpooners and officers from their lofty position on the cutting stage slew scores upon scores by simply dropping their keen edged blubber spades upon the soft crowns of the struggling fish, the only place where a shark is vulnerable to instant death. The weapon sinks into the creature's brain, he gives a convulsive writhe or two, releases his hold and slowly sinks, followed in his descent by a knot of his immediate neighbors, all anxious to provide him with prompt sepulture within their own yearning maws.—National Review.

"Soot Free."

Soot is the equivalent of the Anglo-Saxon word "secat," meaning taxation, therefore "soot free" originally meant "free from the payment of taxes," and now it has become a general expression for freedom from anything.

BEER & GOFF GROCERS

CURTAIN RAISERS.

John Drew is to publish his mother's reminiscences.

Charles Frohman has bought the American rights to "Lord and Lady Algy."

McKee Rankin has taken Nance O'Neil and a dramatic company to Honolulu.

The first theater in the United States was built at Williamsport, Pa., in the year 1752.

Next season the Liebler company will send out two organizations to play "The Christian."

Lillian Russell is talked of as Mme. Sans Gene in an operatic version of this familiar story.

Robert Taft has been delighting the Londoners by his fine performance of Laerte in "Hamlet."

Zangwill's novel, "The Children of the Ghetto," will be dramatized by him for the Liebler company.

The rumor is again current that Mrs. Patrick Campbell of London will visit America as Lady Macbeth.

George Meredith's "The Egoist" is to be dramatized. There will, of course, be a rush for the leading role.

John L. Sullivan is preparing to put on a motion picture show next season, depicting each of his big fights.

"The Little Minister" has been played in Kierulmeir ("Skrums"). It was "guyed" by the natives as a caricature.

Jacob Litt has arranged for the production of the funny English farce, "The Club's Baby," at a New York theater later in the season.

Coquelin will soon present in Paris an adaptation of Dumas' "La Dame de Montseigneur," in which he will play the part of Chicot, the jester.

No wonder that all the novelists are turning playwrights. James M. Barrie is said to have cleared $200,000 in royalties from "The Little Minister" so far.

Literary Pursuit.

Fynshly—What is Wally doing now? Harrison—Well, when I last saw him he was engaged in a literary pursuit.

Fynshly—Indeed! I didn't think he had enough brain to write.

Harrison—He wasn't writing. He was chasing a newspaper that the wind had blown away.—London Fun.

Prayer From a Grateful Heart.

Prayer as the expression of a sincere and grateful heart may have its uses, and doubtless has. But in the mouth of a man who loans money at 200 per cent interest on chattel mortgage it may as well be omitted.—Columbus Press-Post.

"There is an old woman," says a London paper, "who has a milk stand in St. James park, who has stood at it for 63 years. Her mother kept it before her and her grandmother before that, the latter having been in possession for 72 years."

The officers of a leading London hospital believe that the general increase of cancer is due to excess in meat eating.
