

The Words of Strength.

There are three lessons I would write—
Three words as with a burning pen,
In tracings of eternal light,
Upon the hearts of men.

Have Hope. Though clouds environ now,
And gladness hides her face in scorn,
Put thou the shadow from thy brow—
No night but hath its morn.

Have Faith. Where'er thy bark is driven—
The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth—
Know this—God rates the hosts of Heaven,
The inhabitants of earth.

Have Love. Not love alone for one,
But man as man, thy brother call;
And scatter like the circling sun
Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul—
Hope, Faith and Love—and thou shalt find
Strength when life's surges rudest roll,
Light when thou else were blind.

Watch and Pray.

No man, young or old, obscure or infamous, is sure of his honesty in days like these, who has not written over the portals of his manhood—"Watch and pray." Watch the coming of the faintest temptation to your honor from afar. Watch your associates in business—their principles of trade, their habits of dealing, the drift of your profession. Young woman, watch your social life, your tastes, your ambitions; for every day some family is thrown into embarrassment, and started on the road to financial ruin, and disgraced by the thoughtless or willful persistence of some woman in keeping up an appearance. And, as you watch, "pray without ceasing." Hold every new bargain, every new plan of life, every success to the light of God. Take as your "silent partner," in every transaction, Him who is the infinite truth, in whose presence all unrighteousness, however splendid, shrivels into the weak and contemptible thing it really is. O friends! the pride that keeps our knees stiff and our hearts defiant before Almighty God is neither manly nor womanly. It is simply our cowardice that keeps us hanging about the outskirts of our life, instead of going up to the mountain top of consecration, and giving ourselves altogether and forever to the service of the infinite love we call our God.—Christian Register.

FEEDING THE BOARDERS.—A young lady from the city, boarding for the summer at a farm-house on the border of Delaware County, N. J., visited the dairy attached and watched the country maid in her toil with marked attention. "Your task is a laborious one," she remarked to the maid. "Somewhat, ma'am" replied the maid. "Nature is indeed wonderful in her workings," continued the lady. "Observe the green grass in the fields, in a short time it is converted into milk, and from milk to butter. After the formation of butter I have been told that the milk is termed buttermilk." "Yes ma'am." "Is their sufficient nutriment in it to be of any practical use?" "Yes ma'am." "If I am not exhausting your patience, may I ask you what use is made of buttermilk?" "We feed some of it to the hogs, and what's left we feed to the boarders."

Gems of Thought.

The hatred of those more nearly related is the most inveterate.
Liberality consists less in giving profusely than in giving judiciously.
The greatest difficulties are always found where we are not looking for them.
Labor to keep alive in your heart that little spark of celestial fire call conscience.
Politeness is not always a sign of wisdom, but the want of it always leaves room for suspicion of folly.
A light, gay way of speaking, how pleasant it is, and how rare! Most men's talk drives as through clay.
To smell of a turf of fresh earth is wholesome for the body; no less are thoughts of mortality cordial to the soul.
Grief knits two hearts in closer bonds than happiness ever can; and common sufferings are far stronger links than common joys.

A letter from the Colonial Secretary is published, conveying the thanks of the Queen to Lord Dufferin for the ability and judgment displayed in discharging the duties of Governor General. Her Majesty's Government notices with pleasure the high estimation in which Lord Dufferin has been held by all classes in Canada, and feel confident that the admirable manner in which he has fulfilled the duties of office has done much to strengthen and deepen in the hearts of Canadians that spirit of loyalty and devotion to the Crown of which there have been very gratifying evidences.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtues as BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

For several months past I have used Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites in phthisis, chronic bronchitis and other affections of the chest. I have no hesitation in stating it ranks foremost among remedies used in those diseases.

Z. S. EARLE, M. D.,
St. John, N. B.

I strongly recommend Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites to all who suffer in any way from diseases or weakness of the lungs, bronchial tubes, or from general debility.

J. H. W. SCOTT, M. D.,
Gagetown, N. B.

Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites acted with expedition and entire satisfaction in a case of aphonia, which failed to yield to regular treatment.

S. JACOBS, M. D.,
Lunenburg, N. S.

No hesitation in recommending Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for general debility, or any diseases of the lungs.

H. G. ADDY, M. D.

In restoring persons suffering from diphtheritic prostration and coughs following typhoid fever, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites is the best remedy I ever used.

EDWIN CLAY, M. D.,
Pugwash, N. S.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—
Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhoea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypo-phosphites.

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced; and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This Syrup will cure Pulmonary Consumption in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life on the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and coughs. It will cure all diseases originating from want of Muscular Action and Nervous Force.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances. Look out for the name and address, J. I. FELLOWS, St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light. Price, $1.50 per Bottle; six for $7.50. Sold by all Druggists. Ch'town, Oct. 31, 1878.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it, acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs.

As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued and restored to health.

This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it never will.

Eminent Physicians throughout the country prescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.
