with double wins. They were Kathy's Girl, L. Jenkins' best time 2:11.3, Security Scott (B. Andrew), best time 2:10.2 and Lee Wilson (A. Burdick), best time 2:13. This was a new record for Doc Wilbur.

On Sept. 2, a fast track and a calm night combined to enable 114 horses to score their previous racing tale. Coming up with new records were Economy (O. Wollan), 2:06; Princess Spangler (G. Robinson), 2:08.4; Chuck H. (R. Kinnear), 2:12.2; W. W. MacArthur (B. E. Jones), 2:12.7; and Sunshine (H. Dudley W. MacArthur), 2:19.3.

On Sept. 9 the chestnut frodo, Chuck H. scored and driven by Kensington's Ron Kennedy won the trotting feature in straight dashes. His 2:12.3, clocking in the final outing was a new record. The good pacer, Fred Hill Boy, Jr., Neill, won two dashes in 2:11.2 and 2:14.4.

He is owned by Fred Newsome, Port Hill in the feature. Cadillac Gold Dust (J. Mackenzie) won 2:12.5 and Princess Spangler (G. Robinson), 2:11. Times were 2:10.3 and 2:09.5. The former is owned by Andrew Ferry and the latter by A. MacNeill, Summerside.

The following week, Sept. 16, the feature was the post-nominal race. In a double dash driver Art Burdick surprised everyone when he finished the veteran pacer. Victory Scott home on top in 2:11.3. In the next dash, however, things were not so lively when Cadillac Gold Dust (G. Harkness) led every step of the way to win in 2:07.4. Victory Scott was less than a half behind. The quarters for his mile were 30.3, 1:02.2, 1:36 and 2:07.4. A double dash winner the same night was Blue Mountain Girl (A. Finlay), best time 2:14.2.

On Sept. 23, three horses came up with double victories in the feature. Panther, owned and driven by Bob Wheeler, Victor N.S., won both miles. Times were 2:06.2 and 2:06.2. Other double victors were Chatterbox Thomas (B. Whaley), best time 2:07.4, and Blue Mountain Girl (A. Finlay), best time 2:12.2.

On Sept. 29 the harness racing season came to a close at Monctonville. Bill Whalen won three dashes that final night, a pair of them with Davy Whalen. Best time for Davy was 2:10.3, a new record. The other Whalen win was with Snowman in 2:06.2, equalling a record.

That night the chestnut mare, Wanda J. Clegh, owned and driven by Cecil Stewart was a double winner. Her best time was 2:14.3. In the feature Billy G. Connard (E. Clegh) was the first trip in 2:13 and Captain Leader owned and driven by Les Jenkins won the second in 2:12.2, the best time of the night.

That good mare, Donaway, was shipped late in the season to Fredericton, N.B., where she was the first fill of the feature. Donaway Race, a conditional stake. After this win she was sold to J. A. Coates, Moncton.

On Sept. 30 at Moncton's Brunswick Downs, Donaway

Moncton reports complete summary

'64 SEASON, DAY BY DAY

June 6—Opening Day! Nine races were run that season and Bob Steves with his Jarrettown Lady grabbed both dashes of the feature in 2:13.4 and 2:14, over an "off" track.

June 13—The Embassy Face was the feature and pretty young ladies, wearing very short, shiny skirts passed out free packages of cigarettes to the crowd. Emily Bree and father, Jack, were in the winner's circle with their 501 Sola who took both dashes in 2:10.3 and 2:11.4.

June 20—Rains cut short the night dash and Scotch Macpherson clocked out a tight one over Scotch Hat in 2:09 in the feature's only dash. It was the first "2:10" miles of the season.

June 24—Jolly Path and Avalon Frost took the feature with miles in 2:13.3 and 2:13.4.

June 27—Al Dale, later disqualified, won the dash victor in the feature in 2:11.2 and 2:10.3 on an "off" track. Sheila and Jarrettown Lady later got the wins.

July 1—Two sons of Abner T. Clegh split the feature with Dr. Wilfred C., got the first dash in 2:10.1 and J. D. Clegh the second in 2:10. Miramichi Fred, out for his season's first start, entered the 2:10" mile with a trip in 2:10 flat. Country Mile and Jolly Ly. produced the first and only dead heat for first, finishing together in 2:14.

July 4—Equine influenza started its rounds affecting 40 horses. Jolly Path and Little Doctor split the feature, reduced to a heat of four because of the virus, in 2:14.2 and 2:12.9 over a slow track.

July 11—Lord Adios and Rayson Book gave Joe Gagnon a driving triple for the night. The ten-legged Adios gelding took both end of the feature in 2:06.2 and 2:05.1.

July 18—Don Armstrong scored a triple, picking up two wins with Mr. Hayes' Time and getting a dash in the feature with Mr. Les Harnum. Avalon Frost won the second dash in 2:11. Harnum's mile was clocked in 2:12.5 and six drivers in the dash were fined two back of effort.

July 21—Joe Gagnon again picked up three wins, and just missed on a fourth. He landed the second dash of the 8860 Hub City Pace in 2:08 with a Jolly City Boy, but was set back to second for interference in the stretch with the win going to Bad News. He topped the summary with a 2-1 summary over Willie Carr with Lord Wallin's 1-5. Wallin's trip was clocked in 2:09.2.

July 25—Bad News was back again, this time getting two dashes in 2:08.3 and 2:07.4. Little Quinton and Avalon Frost split the surprising Junior Fire For All in 2:12.4 and 2:11.2. Spurge Huseman, the Maritimes' oldest active racehorse, scored his only drive-ration score in his first drive-home first in 2:15.3.

July 30—Jolly Path grabbed both dashes of an invitational with times of 2:12.3 and 2:13 over another "off" track.

August 1—Avalon Frost took the first dash of the FFA in 2:09. Bobby Chips landed the second in 2:09.2. Little Quinton grabbed the Junior in 2:11.3 and 2:12.

August 4—Moncton Night! The season's top attraction gathered in for the season's top crowd and a mutual record for Brunswick Downs. Over $2000 was played through the wickets, an increase of more than $5000 over last year's big race. Willie's Adios picked up both dashes in 2:05.2 and back again in 2:06.4. Bad News' Nugget was a 2:05.1 winner with Bad News getting a dash in 2:09.5.

August 8—The track trotting record was equalled as Wall MacLean hustled Little Quinton home ahead of seven pacers.

August 15—Lord Adios and Rayson Book gave Joe Gagnon a driving triple for the night. The ten-legged Adios gelding took both end of the feature in 2:06.2 and 2:05.1.
