

Is the baby too thin?
Does he increase too slowly in weight?
Are you in constant fear he will be ill?
Then give him more flesh. Give him more power to resist disease. He certainly needs a fat-forming food.
Scott's Emulsion is just that food. It will make the baby plump; increase the weight; bring color to the cheeks, and prosperity to the whole body. Thin children take to it as naturally as they do to their milk.

Somebody Else.

Who's somebody else? I should like to know
Does he live at the north or south?
Or is it a lady fair to see,
Whose name is on everyone's mouth?
For Meg says, "somebody else will sing."
Or, "somebody else can play;
And, "please let somebody else
Do some of the errands to-day.

If there's any hard or unpleasant task
Or difficult thing to do,
'Tis always offered to somebody else—
Now, isn't this very true?
But if some fruit or a pleasant trip
Is offered to Dick or Jess,
We hear not a word about somebody else;
Why, I will leave you to guess

The words of cheer for a stranger lad
This somebody else will speak.
And the poor and helpless who need a friend
Good somebody else must seek.
The cup of cold water in Jesus' name,
Oh, somebody else will offer,
And words of love for a broken heart
Brave somebody else will proffer.

There are battles in life we only can fight,
And victories too, to win,
And somebody else can take our place
When we shall have "entered in,"
But if somebody else has done his work
While we for our ease have striven,
'Twill be only fair if the blessed reward
To somebody else is given."
—Farmers Advocate.

Why She Was Popular.

A queer old man once made a tea party for all the little girls in our town, and when they were all gathered in his front yard, in white dresses and carefully-tied sashes, he offered a doll for the most popular little girl in the crowd.
But half the children did not know what "most popular" meant, so he told them it was the best liked little girl. All the children voted, and Mary Blain got the doll. Mary was not the prettiest nor the cleverest of the children, but she got the doll.
"Now," said the queer old man, "I will give another doll to the one that first tells me why you all like Mary the best.
Nobody answered at first but presently Fanny Wilson said, "It's because Mary always finds out what the rest of us want to play, and then says, 'Let's play that.'"
The old gentleman said that was the best reason he had ever heard, and he was going to try for the rest of his life to find out what other people wanted to play, and then say, "Let's play that!"

Kitty Knew About Sheep.

"Seven sheep were standing
By the pasture wall.
Tell me," said the teacher
To her scholars small—
"One poor sheep was frightened,
Jumped and ran away,
One from seven—how many
Woolly sheep would stay?
Up went Kitty's fingers—
A farmer's daughter she,
Not so bright at figures
As she ought to be.
"Please ma'am!" "Well, then, Kitty,
Tell us if you know."
"Please, if one jumped over
All the rest would go."

from a paper, began, "I want 6lbs. of sugar at 2 1/2d. a pound." "Yes," said the shopman, "that will be fifteen-pence." "Eleven pounds of rice," the boy continued, "at three halfpence a pound," said the shopman, writing down the figures as he spoke. "Six pounds of beans at twopence a pound."

And so the youth continued, "Three pounds of bacon at so much, four pounds of tea, five tins of pears, seven tins of tomatoes." The calculation was made and the bill handed to him at his request. "Did your mother send the money, or are the gods to be charged?" "My mother didn't send me at all, said the boy; it's my arithmetic lesson, and I had to get it done this morning." And he ran off rapidly in the direction of Winkin-street Board school.—Peter Lombard, in Church Times.

Listowel, Ont., July 10—Mr. Thomas Tamblin of the firm of Tamblin and Clime, grocers, was lately in receipt of a communication from a gentleman in Toronto who is gathering statistics as to cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Some three years ago Mr. Tamblin was troubled with a weak back and severe pain in the kidneys. He used Dodd's Kidney Pills and his trouble was removed. The Toronto gentleman asked if the cure had been satisfactory. Mr. Tamblin took the letter and wrote on the bottom in a firm hand, "The cure was quite satisfactory."
