Where the harp of angels ring,
And the blest forever sing,
In the palace of the King;
Meet me there;
Where in sweet communion blend
Heart with heart and friend with friend,
In the world that never shall end,
Meet me there.

Meet me there, Meet me there,
Where the tree of life is blooming,
Meet me there;
When the storms of life are o'er,
On the happy golden shore,
Where the faithful part no more,
Meet me there.

Again the anointed servant of God comforted with the Scripture.
"For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God; Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.
Then in connection with the Scripture:
"As for me I will behold Thy face in righteousness.
I shall be satisfied, when I awake in Thy Likeness."
Pastor Axelsson then sang:

Face to face, O blissful moment!
Face to face, to see and know;
Face to face with my Redeemer,
Jesus Christ Who loves me so!"

Interment was in the Ferrieff Cemetery, N. Y., beside her husband who died 17 years ago. A short service was conducted at the grave, which was covered with a blanket of grass and many beautiful flowers.

The departed leaves three sons to mourn the loss of a faithful and tender hearted Mother: Henry and Edward in New York City; and Albert with whom she lived at Kenosha Lake, N. Y. Two little ones fell asleep in Jesus many years ago. Also four sisters and three brothers are left to miss Katie, a dear loving kind sister, namely: (Annie) Mrs. Joseph A. Stafford, Burnaby, British Columbia; (Sarah Maye) Mrs. Brian C. Briscoe, Vancouver, B. C.; (Martha Lilla) Mrs. Clyde C. Rimmer, New York, N.Y.; (Mildred) Mrs. Claude S. MacMillan, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mr. James H. Beaton, Hunter River, P. E. I.; Mr. John E. Beaton, Killaloe, Ontario; Mr. Samuel Ernest Beaton, Winchester, New Hampshire and New Canaan, Connecticut.

NOW
If you have a flower to give,
Give it now; Wait not until
The chill of death;
Lies cold upon the brow.
If you have a letter to write,
Write it now; Wait not until
Dear eyes are closed
Beneath death's cold brow.
You have a soul to save!
Be saved TODAY
Receive and Kiss the Son of God;
Or you'll perish from the WAY.

IN MEMORIAM

KATIE FLORENCE WHOLRABE
Katie Florence Wholrabe, oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Beaton, Hunter River, P.E.I., fell asleep in her Dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ at 7.30 A. M. on Dec. 16th, in the Lenox Hill Hospital, Park Ave. and 76th St., New York City. A service was conducted in the Funeral Parlour on the 18th at 8 P. M. by Evangelist Ruth Cutcomp. The Evangelist emphasized the great need for each person to read the Holy Bible as God's road map to Heaven. She read and talked from the Holy Scriptures about the Lord Jesus Christ in Heaven appearing before God for us as our Great High Priest. And about Him who was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto Salvation. Having put Satan under His Feet. Evangelist Cutcomp also stressed the Scripture concerning those who neglect and refuse to be saved, which Scripture is: It is appointed unto man once to die and after this the Judgment." Hebrews, Chapter 9. Rev. L. W. Smidt, sang a beautiful hymn:

"Face to face with Christ my Saviour;
Face to face how can it be,
When with rapture I behold Him,
Jesus Christ Who died for me.

Face to face shall I behold Him;
Far beyond the starry sky;
Face to face in all His Glory;
I shall see Him by and by."

In the morning at 9.30 on the 9th, the funeral service was conducted by Rev. David Axelsson, Pastor of the Rock Church, New York City. Mr. Axelsson read several comforting scriptures from God's precious Book. Leaning on Saint John, 12:25 and 26. Job, 19:25-26. Psalm 17:35. Jesus said unto His disciples: "I will resurrect and the Life: he that believeth in Me though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believeth thou this? Here Pastor Axelsson emphasized the very soon coming of The Lord Jesus Christ for all who will love His Appearing. Pastor Axelsson sang a special favorite hymn of the departed child of God:

"On the happy golden shore,
Where the faithful part no more,
When the storms of life are o'er,
Meet me there;
Where the night dissolves away
Into pure and perfect day,
I am going home to stay,
Meet me there.

Here our fondest hopes are vain,
Dearest links are rent in twain;
But in Heaven no throb of pain,
Meet me there;
By the River sparkling bright
In the City of delight,
Where our faith is lost in sight,
Meet me there.

Where the harp of angels ring,
And the blest forever sing,
In the palace of the King;
Meet me there;
Where in sweet communion blend
Heart with heart and friend with friend,
In the world that never shall end,
Meet me there.

Meet me there, Meet me there,
Where the tree of life is blooming,
Meet me there;
When the storms of life are o'er,
On the happy golden shore,
Where the faithful part no more,
Meet me there."

Again the anointed servant of God comforted with the Scripture.
"For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God; Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.

ELLEN'S DIARY

How shall we greet the New Year, as we turn from taking leave of the Old? We recall how apt is King's quotation from Ecclesiastes, in his inspiring Christmas broadcast, "Whatever comes, or does not come, I will not be afraid." So may we all meet the days ahead! . . . And again in the turn of the years, from the Family at Alderlea goes out the old wish, as across a wide world people and nations "Ring out the old, ring in the new" — A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

"I stand upon the threshold of the year,
With hand outstretched to push the door aside,
But waiting till the chime of midnight sings
The 'open sesame' that flings it wide.
I look back o'er the pathway I have walked,
And see the hills of hope, the vale of fears,
The garden that I planted with good deeds,
And fostered with my smiles and with my tears.

I see dead branches on the tree of love,
Where kindly thoughts lie withered and undone.
I see some blooming bushes where kind acts,
Have come to their fruition and live on.
The good things and the evil both live on,
To help or hinder, from the path I've trod.
But hark—the midnight chimes ring sweet and free
And through the New Year's open door I see
A pathway straight and clear where I may walk
If I but will, at peace with men and God."

Until Tuesday — — Diary — —
Good-night. . .

SORRY, SOLD OUT!

The record production of 898,733 complete Bibles in overseas languages in 1949 has still proved inadequate. Many people seeking to buy Bibles have had to be told "Sorry, we're all sold out."

You can help to prevent such disappointments by sending a gift through the Prince Edward Island Auxiliary of the Bible Society, with its Bible House, at 100 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown.

GIFT RECEIVED
The Prince Edward Island Auxiliary of the Bible Society acknowledges with thanks the bequest of five hundred dollars from the estate of the late Mary I. Moore, Hampshire, P. E. I.
