

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 27, 1891.

Register!

It has been pithily said: "The man who doesn't register can't vote. The man who can't vote is a cipher on the body politic. You do not want to be a cipher."

Men of Charlottetown, whose names are not yet upon the Voters' List, should remember that they will lose their chance for the year, unless they make application on or before Saturday the 31st inst.

Operation of the McKinley Tariff.

If there were no McKinley tariff, if there were absolute free trade, we could sell little in the United States' markets this year at the prices which are ruling in Boston, New York, Chicago, and other centres of the United States' trade. Canada is not, therefore, so far, much worse off as a result of the operation of the McKinley tariff. But Great Britain is in a different position in respect to the United States. She has to go to the States for bread to feed her operatives, and in order that she may have money to pay for the bread she has to sell manufactured articles, which are always in demand, but which, by the operation of the McKinley tariff, are in great part shut out of the United States' markets. Take, for instance, the cutlery of Sheffield. The value of cutlery exported from Sheffield to the United States during the last quarter of the year was £29,364, as compared with £94,970 during the corresponding period of 1890, which was previous to the imposition of the McKinley duties. Making allowance for the "rush" which was made before the higher tariff of last year was applied, there is evidently a very large reduction in respect to this item—a reduction of fully one-half. The total value of steel exports from Great Britain to the States shows a proportionate falling off, the figures for the last quarter being $113,690, as against $179,966 in the corresponding months of 1890. Other lines of manufactures have also suffered heavily, as a direct result of the operation of the McKinley Tariff. In fact, the manufacturers of Great Britain are compelled to seek out all the strange corners of the earth in order that they may sell goods to raise money to send to the United States for bread with which to feed their operatives. Whatever may be the effect of the McKinley tariff upon the States, it is evident that it is having an injurious effect upon the great manufacturing country which is partially dependent upon the United States for bread. With Free Trade in Great Britain and the McKinley tariff in the States, there cannot possibly be a fair exchange between the two countries.

Significant Remarks.

"MY POLITICS ARE MR. MERCIER'S! I am of the old school of English Liberals," Mr. Mercier is the chief of the nationalist party. "I come here to work with you, that is the cause of Mr. Mercier may triumph in the coming election."—[Mr. Laurier, at St. Navier, June 5th, 1890.

"My duty and my place is known; I should be at the side of my esteemed chief, Hon. W. Laurier, should he so desire it, and I will be there, whatever may happen, if I permit."—[Mr. Mercier, at Club National banquet, Jan. 27, 1891.

The same sentiments gushed out in all the speeches at the banquet.—HON. W. LAURIER GAVE VOICE TO THE SENTIMENTS OF MR. MERCIER; MR. MERCIER GAVE FORCE AND SIGNIFICANCE EXTRAORDINARY, TO THE SAME SENTIMENTS.—[Mr. Pacaud, Jan. 29th, 1891.

"Our adversaries understand now, that, with Mr. Mercier at his side MR. LAURIER IS INVINCIBLE IN QUEBEC. MR. MERCIER CARES LITTLE FOR TORY SCRAPLES."—[Mr. Pacaud, Feb. 16th, 1891.

"MR. MERCIER HAS BOUND HIMSELF BY A SOLEMN ENGAGEMENT TO GIVE A MAJORITY OF AT LEAST FIFTEEN VOTES TO MR. LAURIER; THAT IS TO SAY TO PUT HIM INTO POWER."—[Mr. Pacaud, Feb. 11th, 1891.

"I HAVE NO DOUBT THAT IF HON. MR. LAURIER BECOMES FIRST MINISTER IN THE DOMINION, THIS PROVINCE WILL GET WHAT EVER IT ASKS."—[Mr. Mercier, March 11th, 1891.

How close is the union between the Leader of the Opposition in the Dominion Parliament and the Premier of Quebec, and what both are working for—these quotations will show!

Notes and Comments.

—On Saturday last the Band of Hope in London executed the project of a simultaneous visitation to 1,000,000 homes to secure adherents among the children. Many children joined forthwith, and the organizers are hopeful that they will secure 1,000,000 extra members. Herein lies a good practical hint for temperance societies of a larger growth than Bands of Hope. It might be acted upon in smaller cities than London.

—We understand that Mr. Ewen Stewart, of Georgetown, has been appointed Secretary of the City School Board and Grading Officer in the place of Mr. George Robinson, whose appointment to the teaching staff of Prince of Wales College we chronicled a few days ago. The appointment is a good one. Mr. Stewart is an experienced and excellent teacher, and will, without doubt, make a first class officer.

SHORTHAND.—Mr. W. Crosskill's shorthand class will meet at 8 p. m. on Tuesday, 3rd prox, corner Queen and King Streets. Those intending to join should present themselves then. This will be a good opportunity to acquire a practical knowledge of this useful art.

The Rifle.

The annual target practice of No. 1 Battery, Garrison Artillery, was held at Kensington Range yesterday afternoon. Owing to there being no prize list, the repeated postponements and the unfavorable weather, the attendance was small. However, the shooting was good, under the circumstances. Below is the score:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Points. Includes Gunner Hooper (63), Sergt. Offer (57), Lieut. Sterns (56), Gunner G. McLean (51), etc.

County Court.

At the opening of the County Court today, written judgments were delivered by Judge Alley in the following suits reserved from last term:—

Simon W. Crabbe vs. Henry C. Douse—slander. Judgment for $50 and costs. W. S. Stewart for plaintiff; F. Peters for defendant. Henry Smith vs. William Barboe—action of waste in cutting trees and removing fences from farm in Royalty leased by plaintiff to defendant. Judgment for $26 and costs. The suit of William Logan vs. Donald W. Palmer, an action on an acceptance, is now before the Court. Stewart for plaintiff; H. J. Palmer for defendant.

A GOOD YIELD.—Some time ago Councillor Morris sold Mr. Bernard McPhillips four bushels of American White Banner Oats, which he sowed on one acre of land on the Lower Malpeque Road. The yield was 103 bushels. Can this be beaten in the Island or throughout Canada?

THE COBAN.—The Black Diamond Line Steamship Coban, Captain Robert Fraser, arrived this morning from Montreal, en route to St. John's, bringing a general cargo and four passengers. She leaves again this afternoon with a cargo of produce and two horses, shipped by George H. Toombs. Miss Welsh and Miss Brown go as passengers.

THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.—Mr. Theo. L. Chappelle has accepted the agency for the Christmas number of the Dominion Illustrated for King's and Queen's Counties, and will have a full supply of this excellent annual early in December. The work will be printed on the best paper and in rich colors in a specially prepared artistic cover. Large tubes to hold the number and the supplements will be furnished free. Orders will not be filled at head office as Mr. Chappelle has full control of his territory.

CHARLOTTETOWN MARKETS.—There was a small attendance at the market to-day, owing to the disagreeable weather and the extremely bad state of the roads. Hay was scarce and brought from 45 to 55 cts per 100 lbs. Oats were in small supply at 31 cents per bushel. Potatoes brought from 18 to 20 cents per bushel, and turnips from 12 to 15 cents per bushel. Inside, eggs were very scarce at about 16 cents per dozen. Butter (fresh) sold at from 21 to 23 cents per lb., and cheese 14 cts.

POLICE COURT.—His Honor Magistrate Fitzgerald dispensed justice this forenoon. Two men, for disorderly conduct on the streets, were fined $30 or 30 days and $20 or 20 days, respectively. The summons against a man charged with violating the Lord's Day Act was dismissed, and the enquiry into a similar charge preferred against another man was adjourned. An abusive language case, and the case of the merchant summoned for keeping kerosene oil on his premises contrary to law, were also adjourned.

AN INTERESTING DISCOURSE.—The Rev. C. M. Tate, who has for upwards of twenty years past been engaged in missionary work among the Indians of British Columbia, addressed a large audience in the basement of the First Methodist Church last evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. His subject was "British Columbia and the Indians." He spoke encouragingly of the results of mission work amongst the Indians and described many of their strange habits. He showed many curious articles worn and used by them, and also specimens of needlework, the labor of the Indian children attending the mission schools. A silver collection in aid of the mission was taken up at the close. Rev. Mr. Brewer denounced the benediction.

—Canadian products go into the Spanish West Indies on equal terms with those of the United States until June 30, 1892, owing to the existence of the Imperial treaty with Spain. The Empire intimates that Canada, being part of the Empire, hopes to share in any new arrangement Great Britain may be able to make with Spain, but of herself could not expect to do very much. The British expectations of a fresh treaty seem to be good, mainly, as we pointed out some time ago, owing to the market which Spanish wines find in England, subject though they be there to a duty.

Crossing the Bar.

Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar When I put out to sea. But such a tide as moving seems asleep, Too full for sound and foam, When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home. Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, When I embark. For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place The flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face When I have crossed the bar. TENNYSON.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter from Rev. James Simpson.

SIR,—I was glad to see that Mr. Brewer acknowledges in this morning's Guardian that there was a church in England before Augustine. There was no Church of England until 73 years after Augustine, simply because there was no England, but a number of separate states continually at war with each other. In the same way, there can be no national Church of North America until we annex the United States or they annex us. But there are branches of the Church Catholic both in the Dominion and in the States; so there were branches in the different kingdoms in England before they were consolidated into one under Theodore. Whatever Mr. Brewer may have meant by his statement, quite a number of people, to my own knowledge, understood him to imply that Christianity was introduced into England by Augustine. I can assure the reverend gentleman that I had no intention of "moving" on him at all, and would have taken no notice of the matter had not so many asked me if his statement were correct. Yours faithfully, JAMES SIMPSON. Oct. 26, 1891.

Injudicious Canvasser.

SIR,—To-day, two ladies (?) entered the office of one of our most respected citizens with a prohibition petition. The one whose ladyship seems questionable said: "We would like you to sign this petition." The gentleman replied, "Well, I will give it careful consideration, and if I conclude it is for the public good I will sign it, otherwise I will not; I do not act hastily on questions that have two sides, and am unsettled." With a toss of her masculine head she retorted, "You will not have a chance to sign it—it is only for the gentlemen of Summerside to sign." The gentleman looked at the woman and exclaimed, "You are a lady, surely!" and so they parted. Now, Mr. Editor, this insulting woman is employed by the W. C. T. U., to secure signatures to a petition which involves the gravest considerations of civil liberty and moral growth; and because a comic tious man and a strictly temperance man hesitate, he must be a fool! It is such intemperate & intemperate (?) fanaticism which injure the great cause of temperance reform by alienating the best elements in society from the great body of temperance workers, and who retard the coming of the time when men will have developed character enough to live soberly without legal restraints. The temperance cause has had several setbacks by just such intemperate and silly advocacy. GENTLEMAN - Summerside, Oct. 26, 1891.

A Question.

SIR,—I see that the Rev. Mr. Brewer reproaches Rev. Mr. Simpson with being absorbed in matins and evensong. Now, as far as I can remember, matins and evensong are made up of portions of scripture and a few prayers. What is Christianity coming to when one minister chaffs another with being absorbed in prayer and bible reading? AGOSTIC.

Personal.

Sir Edwin Arnold, the English poet, has arrived in New York. His Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia was present at the Church Conference at Rhye a few days ago. Mc. H. F. Combs, the well-known commercial traveller, is in the city. He is registered at the Queen Hotel. Francis M. Longworth, son of the late Henry Longworth, Glynwood, left this morning for Vancouver, B. C., where he will reside in future. We wish Mr. Longworth success in his new home. Mr. L. McLean, of Spokane Falls, Wash., is visiting the Island. His wife accompanies him. Mr. McLean, who is a native of Tyne Valley, is now engaged in the real estate business at Spokane Falls, and it is pleasing to hear, is doing well. Sir William Gordon Cumming, of baccarat fame, who is ransacking in the highlands, has lodged a protest with the municipal council of Elgin against that body appropriating money to be used in tendering a public reception to the Duke and Duchess of Fife. The Duchess is a daughter of the Prince of Wales. Speaking of the Rev. W. B. King, the St. John Progress says:—"Mr. King was brought up in close companionship with Rev. George Hodgson, at Charlottetown, P. E. I., and from the time of his ordination showed that some portion at least of the mantle of that great preacher had fallen on him. Having been educated in such a school, it is not surprising that some of the peculiar views, and with them much of the eloquence which distinguished Mr. Hodgson and made him facile princeps among the clergy of the diocese, should have descended to his pupil. Mr. King took his B. A. degree at King's College, Windsor, having graduated with distinction, and in due time the degree of M. A. was conferred on him by the same College. His post graduate theological course demonstrated the fact that in choosing the church as a calling he had made no mistake, and it became evident that he possessed abilities far above the average to devote to his work. Like all the later graduates in theology from Windsor, Mr. King is high church in his views; in other words, is a sound liturgical churchman, his intercourse with Mr. Hodgson having, no doubt, done much to bias his mind in that direction. St. Luke's has a brilliant preacher, a wise administrator, and in the proper acceptance of the word, a good man. May she long retain his services."

IN OLDEN TIMES IT WAS A COMMON REMARK that the Ladies of P. E. Island had not an opportunity of buying the Latest Novelties. For years it has been our aim to change all that, and we now claim that TO-DAY no city in Canada is more thoroughly in touch with the fashions than our own. We buy in Paris, London, Berlin and New York—the Centres of Fashion—and no Firm in Canada can undersell us.

TWO YEARS AGO

we gave up all kinds of Men's Furnishings, and since then our business has rapidly increased. Our MAN'LE DEPARTMENT is second to none, and we are giving Astonishing Bargains in JACKETS, LONG CLOAKS, etc. Indeed, we think we are justified in saying that never before were such High Class Goods shown here, and never before were such marvellously low prices given.

The Reason of the Change is simply that we now give our whole time and attention to LADIES' GOODS. As a result, we buy to better advantage, we sell at lower prices, we secure the latest novelties, and we invite everyone to call and secure some of our FALL ATTRACTIONS in
