Plows Widen Kings Roads
MONTAGUE — The clearing and widening of roads by department of highways' plows, following the storm earlier this week continues in Kings County. All main highways are clear and most secondary roads open. Several reports of minor accidents have been received by the local detachment of RCMP, however no serious accidents or injuries have been reported. Yesterday traffic was tied up on two occasions for approximately half - hour periods as the STEAM HAD GO. However a car reached 128 miles an hour at Daytona Beach, Fla., in 1906—a record that stood for 15 years.

Montague RHS Resumes Classes
MONTAGUE — Classes resumed yesterday at the Montague Regional High School, closed the first three days of the week because of blocked roads. All buses were operating yesterday, but some revision of routes was necessary as not all roads in the area are open. However, good progress is being made in snow clearing operations.

Morell Planning Costume Skate
A half-hour costume skate will be featured Monday night, March 23, when Morell Recreation Commission sponsors an ice carnival at Morell rink. Prizes will be awarded for the best couples' and single costumes, most original and most humorous costumes. Following costume judging, girls of school age will take on their skates in a broomball

Crossbones Cop Opener
Souris Crossbones defeated Tyne Valley Clover Farmers 2-1 in the first game of the interimmediate B finals for the AAU of C Island title at O'Leary last night. The teams set a terrific pace throughout the game and both goalies, Buddy Doucette of Souris and Don MacKenzie of Tyne Valley were called on to make some outstanding saves. Scoring for the winners were R. Jenkins, B. Paquet and C. Peters. Jack Gorrell triggered the lone Tyne Valley goal. Referees Gerard Bernard of Summerside and George Falon game. The final two hours of the carnival will be devoted to a moonlight skate. The recreation commission is proceeding with decorating plans for what is expected to be the largest crowd of the season at Morell rink.

Cornwall Takes Tilt
The Cornwall school team edged its Winsloe counterparts 2-1 in a sudden-death semi-final game at North River rink last night. Paul MacDonald scored a brace for the winners with Ian Scott adding a singleton. J. MacIntyre and R. MacKinnon were the Winsloe scorers.
