IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Malcolm Kenneth Docherty, New Haven, who passed away April 30, 1942.

His presence is always near us, His love remains with us, For he is the kind of a father That we could never forget.

Always remembered by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our little son, Elmer Leeman MacWilliams, who died April 30, 1935.

Sweet to remember him who once was here, And who, though absent, is always near.

I know his home is happier now Than earth can ever be, And as each day draws to a close, It brings him nearer to me.

Inserted by Mother, Daddy, Sisters and Brother.

B.I.S. Auxiliary Holds Successful Social Evening

The Women's Auxiliary of the Benevolent Irish Society held a social on Monday night at the Clover Club of the Canadian Legion. A very large number of members, their husbands and friends were in attendance. Music was supplied by Alex MacLean's orchestra with Al Dowling and Aeneas Curley supplying a number of old time musical selections.

During the course of the evening's entertainment a presentation and address was read to Mr and Mrs. William Cullen who are leaving shortly to take up residence in England. The address was read by the President, Mr. E. Hogan and the presentation was jointly made by the president assisted by the President of the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Joseph Costello.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen extended their sincere thanks and appreciation to the B.I.S. and the Women's Auxiliary for their kindness. All present then joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

TRINITY Y. P. U. MEETING

Last evening, Trinity Young People's Union held their regular weekly meeting in the social hall of Trinity Church. Anna Matheson and Gladys MacMillan led the group in a few lively games. Stewart Smith showed slides dealing with the summer school held last year at Mount Allison University. Following this, Mr. David Barwise, who has just completed a three-year theological course at Pine Hill College, gave a very interesting talk on the "Western Mission Fields." During his talk he mentioned a number of experiences in which he was involved, during his outfield mission work while still an undergraduate at Pine Hill. A short business period was held, and then Margaret Caruthers led in a short devotional period. The group then gathered in a circle and sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Mr. Irwin pronounced the benediction. Joyce Proctor was pianist for the evening.

Royal Edward Chapter I. O. D. E. Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Royal Edward Chapter I. O. D. E. was held on Monday afternoon in the Chapter rooms. The Regent, Mrs. J. A. Lawson, presided. Mrs. W. E. Massey, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and business arising therefrom was dealt with. The regent reported attending a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary Gift Committee at Government House and Miss Mary Hazzard took charge of the voluntary collection from the members present and will see that it is passed over to Mrs. Prowse.

Miss Jean Gill, Provincial Librarian, spoke briefly to the meeting. She told of efforts being made to fit up a children's corner in the Public Library; beautiful shelving has already been installed and she wondered if the chapter would be interested in ordering three new tables for the children. The only children's table they have at present was donated by the Royal Edward Chapter during the regency of the late Mrs. J. A. Matheson.

The treasurer, Mrs. H. Sear, reported a substantial balance and that she had received word from the Queen Alexandra Hospital for Crippled Children in London, Eng., that the roses for our annual rose day sale had been shipped. Money was voted for the following national funds: British and European Relief, Seamen's Amenities, Cigarette and Peace Garden.

Mrs. J. A. MacMillan, convener of "services at home and abroad" committee, reported that the copies of the beautiful book of remembrance ordered at the last meet-

Honored by Reply To Letter Of Sympathy

Miss Hester MacNeill, 12-year-old-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacNeill of Lake Verde, had the honour of receiving a reply to her letter of sympathy to the Queen on the occasion of the death of her father, His Late Majesty King George VI.

Following is the text of the letter, dated April 4th, 1952. Dear Hester, I am commanded by Queen Elizabeth, to thank you most warmly for your message of sympathy. Her Majesty is deeply touched by your kind thoughts. Yours sincerely, OLIVIA MULHOLLAND, Lady-in-Waiting

Kiwanis Meeting Held Yesterday

The regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club was held in the Blue Room of Old Spain yesterday with a full attendance of members. Byron Grant was the chairman. The Booster prize for attendance was won by Dr. Soper. A progress report on the Kiwanis Trading Pool project at Memorial Park was given by Al Rogers and gave rise to a lively discussion. It was hoped to get this project underway in the near future.

A very interesting talk was given by Mr. Albert Batten of Toronto, National Field Supervisor of the Red Cross First Aid Services. Mr. Batten stated that the purpose of his visit to Prince Edward Island was to hold instructor refresher groups in First Aid. He pointed out the importance of a thorough knowledge of First Aid in everyday life, as greater injury was very often inflicted by an improper application of First Aid than was caused by the accident itself. He suggested that the First Aid posts situated throughout the Province be utilized in the event of all accidents as they were fully equipped and inspected regularly.

After a vote of thanks was given

Meeting of Lady Alexander Gift Committee Held

Members of the Lady Alexander Gift Committee met again yesterday afternoon at Government House, to review the progress made thus far in gathering contributions for the fund. The meeting was under the chairmanship of Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, Provincial chairman for P. E. I., assisted by the treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Lanz. Mrs. Lanz reviewed the contributions received, a report which was most satisfactory.

Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin, provincial president of the Women's Institute, which through its many branches is contacting the rural parts of the Island, Mrs. Thane Campbell of Summerside, and Mrs. P. J. Kennedy of Kensington, reported on the work they have done in publicizing the campaign.

Lady Alexander has already expressed her pleasure at the prospect of receiving a gift of Canadian manufactured electrical equipment for their home in Charlottetown.
