

Saints - PWC Series Still Deadlocked

Play To 3-3 Draw Yesterday To Force Sixth Series Game

The Intermediate Saint Dunstan's University football team and Prince of Wales College apparently trying to find out what happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable object, played to a 3-3 draw yesterday afternoon and left their football series still unfinished.

The game was the fifth in a best of three series and it marked the third time that the teams paraded off the playing field with a tie score. In addition to three draws each team has one victory.

The sixth game will possibly be played on Wednesday afternoon on Memorial Field. If that game ends in a draw the boys will probably have to resort to cards to declare a winner.

Without a doubt this has been the most keenly contested football series for the Island Intermediate championship that has ever been waged between the two colleges. So evenly matched are the two teams that after five games the total number of points scored by each team is an identical 28.

The play in yesterday's game, like the series, was about even. The Saints forced play during the early parts of the first and second halves. The Welshmen came on strong in the latter parts to put the wearers of the Red and White on the defensive.

The Welshmen opened the scoring in the first half with Brewer Auld crossing the line for the try. Fullback Rollie Lee, playing a fine game, started the play by kicking the ball deep into Saints territory.

Kimbal Jay of Saint Dunstan's took the ball on his own five yard line but was hit hard by wingman Mark Ladner. A scrum followed and Auld cut around the short side to scamper across the line. The attempted convert was short.

The Saints pressed from the minute the second half opened and their efforts were rewarded after eleven minutes of play when winger Jack MacDonald raced across the line to fall on a loose ball for the Saints only try.

This score also resulted from a scrum. Picking quarter Kenny MacDonald kicked the ball through a maze of players and Jack MacDonald followed up fast to take advantage of the break and score.

Both teams had several scoring opportunities. John B. Fisher of the Saints had an almost certain try in the first half when he kicked the ball into the clear and followed up. However, he elected to try and pick the ball instead of dribble and the play was called down when he knocked the open field ahead with his hands.

Dave MacLeod also had an open field for P.W.C. in the opening half and he attempted to drop kick the ball over the bars instead of run it. He missed the bars.

"Lulaek" Clark and Max Callaghan played powerful games on the Saints forward line while Kimbal Jay and Billy MacIsaac started in the backfield.

Bill MacKinnon and Joe Revell played strong forward games for P.W.C. and in the backfield Malcolm MacFadyen, Mark Ladner,

LaChance Wins Player Award

Newcomer Gerry LaChance won the Player-Of-The-Night Award last night at the forum in the game between the Islanders and Millionaires. Gerry will receive a hat from Henderson and Cudmore's as a reward for his fine play.

The smooth skating centremen scored the Islanders first goal and set up another. In addition he played a fine game throughout and served notice that he will be one of the best pivots in the League before the season has advanced too far.

Trenton Scotias Win Opener In A-P-C League

STELLARTON, N. S. (CP)—Trenton Scotias came up with three goals in overtime to defeat defending league champions Pictou Maripacs 9-6 in the opening game of the Antigonish-Pictou-Colchester Hockey League here Monday night.

Maripacs led 2-0 at the end of the first, Trenton outscoring them 5-3 in the second to tie the game. Each scored a goal in the third.

Sasakamoose To Try Out With Black Hawks

MOOSE JAW, (CP)—Fred Sasakamoose, the big chief of the Western Junior Hockey League, has moved to the National Hockey League for a tryout with Chicago Black Hawks.

The stary Moose Jaw Canucks' centre, one of the top scorers in the WJHL, is scheduled to play his first pro game against Boston Bruins in Chicago Friday and is expected to be in the line-up Sunday when the Hawks meet Toronto Maple Leafs.

Sasakamoose, 19, a full-blooded Indian and an honorary Indian chief, in 10 games with Canucks this season has potted 12 goals and eight assists. He will miss Canucks' next two games both against Regina Pats.

Dr. F. C. Dougan May Become New President

Dr. F. C. Dougan of Charlottetown, former President of the Islanders may again return to the Club to take over the presidency. It was learned last night.

The executive members held a meeting with Dr. Dougan yesterday and the board stated that they would consider their requests that he take over the direction of executive affairs. He will give his answer within the next day or two.

Dr. Dougan presided over the Islanders two years and re-organized the team last year. Ill-health forced him to resign from the presidency mid-way through the 1952-53 season.

"Unless he's got a better offer the coaching job for next fall is his again," McCaffrey said. "This isn't a spur-of-the-moment decision. The Ottawa executive agreed on this last week."

The present series between the Intermediate Saints and Prince of Wales College for the Island Intermediate rugby championship is the most keenly contested play-off of its kind to be played here for decades. The best of three series has already been extended to five games with three contests ending in tie scores and with each team winning a game. The friendly rivalry extends off the field and the night before the first game of the series a number of P.W.C. students painted the S.D.U. goalposts red and blue the traditional Welshmen's colors. A short time later the following poem describing the painting and the surrounding events appeared in the College Times signed E.P.S.

The road that to St. Peter's leads Lay silent, cold and flanked by weeds. The moon in frigid slumber steeped in shadows.

Throughout all space the night air sleeps Where mortals dare not lift a lid And field mice from their work are hid.

When drifting in the frosty sky Moon cloaked, the rigid clouds float by With light reflected screening all. But chilly stars that never fall. To light the deeds of those below, Of wolf, of murderer, college blow.

A lonely road, a lonely lane; Cold vapor on the window pane. A cornfield newly cut and grain The pre-dawn wind like Arctic rain.

Sleep of darkness rise and fall; Slops drenched, the sentries never call. Who turning to their beds at one Discounted feat before the sun. But now the early hour of four Denounces those who slept before.

And on the specter of bright day LeBlanc hie before the day. The shades recede to kinder land Next day will see a victory band.

Where are they ere the break of day? In grass strewn duck blind on the bay. And later, when the foes awake, In morning class their lectures take.

Three hundred in a day undo What in an hour was done by two Or four, for by the darkness we Could scarcely thru the cold air see.

The football soared, spectators roared. The lines in swift formation poured. The game, which ended, ten to ten, Will live in memory 'till when Far in the future some will see This wishing for what used to be.

Last night for about the first time this season the Islanders looked like a team that hold their own against anything in the M. M. H. L. They skated hard, played well and in Wild Bill LeBlanc they have found a hockey player with plenty of color and crowd appeal.

LeBlanc is a throwback to the days of the late Johnny Dutchik. A rugged guy and a fast skater who likes to carry the puck he causes plenty of excitement each time he heads towards the opposing net.

The addition of three players last week has caused several changes in the Islanders lineup. Bill Tyshko has been released to Miramichi while Frankie Dorrington is being released by the Cubs and will play with either Moncton or Trenton. Larry Blackburn, who is on the injured list has returned here from Sydney. He has a hip injury and not a kidney injury as first reported. Larry will be out for another week at least. When he returns he will make it possible for Bucko to move up front.

Bruins Recall Jerry Toppazzini

BOSTON, (AP)—Boston Bruins Monday recalled forward Jerry Toppazzini from their Hershey farm in the American Hockey League.

Toppazzini, 22-year-old native of Copper Cliff, Ont., was called up by the National Leaguers because of broken legs suffered Saturday night in Toronto by forward Reil Chevrefils and defenceman Bill Quackenbush.

Boston coach Lynn Patrick said Toppazzini will play on a line with Cal Gardner and Leo Labine.

Islanders In Impressive 6-2 Victory Over Sydney

The Charlottetown Islanders, strengthened by the additions of Wild Bill LeBlanc, Gerry LaChance and Guy Gignac, showed a complete reversal of form last night to whip the league-leading Sydney Millionaires 6-2 at the Forum before a crowd of 1240 spectators.

The Islanders, at full strength for practically the first time this year, gave their most impressive display as they outscored the Millionaires in every period. They won by the cellar dwelling Islanders to within two points of third place Glouce Bay Miners.

LeBlanc, the Flying Frenchman, caught the fancy of the crowd with his colorful rushes and steady defensive play. Once in the second period he slid into an open Islanders' net and stopped a sure Sydney goal by catching the puck and tossing it into the net.

A fast breaking defenceman and a powerful skater LeBlanc brought the crowd to their feet several times with his end to end rushes. Once he crashed through the Sydney defence sending the Millionaires flying to the ice. On another occasion he stepped a Sydney player on a breakaway, stole the puck and then raced around his own net and through the entire Sydney team.

Less colorful but very capable and effective was Gerard LaChance, the new centremen from Mont Joli. Gerry scored one goal and set up another and his all-around fine play earned for him the player-of-the-night award.

Although they outscored the Millionaires the Islanders did not outplay them. At times the visitors controlled the play but the Islanders took advantage of Sydney lapses to build up a strong lead in the fast moving game which was played on a heavy sheet of ice during the second and third periods.

The Islanders scored three of their goals on breakaways with LaChance, Whitlock and Gray being the marksmen. On all occasions the mediocre Sydney defence was caught flat-footed and goalie Defelice had little chance on the goals that beat him.

Bob Gray led all marksmen with two goals. The others went to Whitlock, LaChance, Orin Carver and Elwood Ritchie.

Stan MacDougall, who scores a goal every time he comes to Charlottetown, fired the first Sydney goal and Kubinec got the second on a play with Gordie Cowan and Duke MacDonall.

In the final analysis the difference between the Islanders and the Millionaires may have been provided by Roger Bessette. The Islanders goalie turned in a brilliant netminding chore and several times stopped the Millionaires on breakaways.

The Whitlock, Saindon, Gray line led the Islanders attack with three goals. Whitlock, playing hard hockey set up Gray for his second goal, scored one himself on a breakaway and helped set up Gray for another.

LaChance scored the game's first goal assisted by Orin Carver and coach Bucko Trainer. The Islanders mastermind forwarded the puck to centre ice where Carver forwarded it to LaChance who skated in and drew Defelice.

Defenceman Dunc MacIntyre, stepped out of the penalty box after serving a high sticking penalty with Buck Whitlock, to set up the Millionaires first goal. He intercepted an Islanders pass-out and fired the puck to the goal mouth where Stan MacDougall deflected the puck into the cage.

Saindon set up Gray for the Islanders second goal. Early in the second period Gustavsson sent Whitlock away in the clear and Buck beat Defelice on a high, hard one in the pants.

Kubinec got the goal back for Sydney by swooping in on MacDonall's rebound. At the 15:57 minute mark LaChance deked MacDonall and set up Carver for a pretty goal to send the Islanders ahead 4-2.

Whitlock sent Gray into the clear for the Islanders fifth goal and Towers assisted Ritchie for the final goal of the game. Trainer assisted on both markers.

Orin Carver turned in a good game on right wing on a line with LaChance and Gignac. Back on defense Don MacLaughlin again came up with a strong performance and earned several rounds of applause from the fans for his effective blocking.

Lorne Hennessey, light but heavy checking, chilled goalie Norman Defelice in the first period when the two collided while racing after a loose puck. Both players fell heavily to the ice and Defelice stayed down for several minutes.

The Sydney forwards as usual were very fast. Cowan had several good scoring chances but could not beat Bessette. The defense of Matthew and Duke MacDonall played fairly solid hockey. The Millionaires played without their first string centre Roger LaCroix.

Sydney — Goal: Defelice; defence: McIntyre, McDonald, Matheux, Reardon; forwards: Dubuc, Bourque, Pirie, Robertson, Cowan, Kubinec, McDougall, Marshall.

Charlottetown — Goal: Bessette; defence: Gustavsson, Trainer, LeBlanc, McLaughlin; forwards: LaChance, Whitlock, Gray, Saindon, Carver, Hennessey, Ritchie, Gignac, Towers.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

The Summerside High School rugby team got a thorough going over in the game with the Charlottetown Junior Abbies at Memorial Field on Saturday. The game wasn't two minutes old before it became apparent that the home boys were definitely superior in about every department — of the game. The score was 17-0 against the Lefurgey-coached crew, and the Summerside boys had held them to a 3-0 score in the first game played at the Summerside gridiron.

The Charlottetown scrum wasn't so effective Saturday. They had more trouble getting the ball out than was the case in Summerside, but they still held an advantage in scrum play. The Summerside boys kicked better than they had done in Summerside also, and their booting wasn't so far behind the Abbies' as propulsions. It was in line plays that the Sum-Hi kids fell down worst. Their line attack stalled before it got started because the boys received passes from stationary positions. They looked as if they were playing basketball.

The broken-field running of Jack Kane kept Summerside on the defensive most of the time. The tackles of the visiting club were for the most part nothing more than loving embraces, and Kane shook off the willing but inept tacklers again and again. Vance Harris and Windsor Arsenault were the pick of the Summerside tacklers, and they were generally able to bring the ball-carrier to earth without too much of a preliminary wait. Garth Harris made some fine runs for the losers, and the general all-round aggressiveness of Creelman MacArthur was helpful.

Dr. Jelks of Charlottetown was referee, and he was strict, which we think is a good thing, especially in the case of beginners. It is allies as soon as possible. Dr. Jelks had a talk to some of the Summerside boys after the game. He gave them some valuable pointers and told them just where they were falling down. The Doctor told Dee Lefurgey, the Summerside coach, that he would be glad to help the boys down in Summerside anytime convenient, as he had occasion to be down there a part of every week. It's a bit late, perhaps, for coaching now, but the Summerside boys are grateful to Dr. Jelks' offer just the same, and hope they may be able to take advantage of it next season.

Mary Cairns has bowled the highest single (202) for girls to date in the Summerside High School Bowling League. Anything over 200 is pretty good for high school girls, but no doubt the rest of the co-eds will be trying to beat that mark John Campbell and Stan Gay have proven themselves the cream of the male crop so far. It looks as if there will be some pretty good bowlers developed in this league, and they will be material for the Commercial League later on.

HELD BY SOVIET

BERLIN, (AP)—A West Berlin anti-Communist group said Monday at least 1,000 German specialists, including atomic physicists, are still being forced to work in Russia for the Soviet military machine. They include atomic, x-ray and high frequency physicists, naval constructors and torpedo experts.

Amateur Runner Has Turned Pro

MELBOURNE, (AP)—Herb McKinley, veteran amateur runner from Jamaica who took two second places in the 1952 Olympics, has turned professional and will run in races billed as the world professional sprint championships in Melbourne early next year.

Many Winnipeg Fans Heading For Cup Final

WINNIPEG, (CP)—When Winnipeg Bruins fans topped Edmonton Eskimos for the Western football crown Saturday night, they called the signal to set three lines in motion for the Grey Cup final Nov. 28.

Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways and Trans-Canada Air Lines reported Monday immediate plans for handling hundreds of fans who are expected to travel to Toronto for the annual classic.

A CPR spokesman said his line hopes to put at least three Grey Cup specials on the rails to Toronto next week and there will also be extra cars on regular trains to carry fans from other WIFU cities — Regina, Edmonton and Calgary.

The CNR announced a Grey Cup special will leave Winnipeg Thursday night, Nov. 26, and passengers will be able to use the train while it is in Toronto. It will return after the game. CNR also will have extra cars on trans-continental trains every night next week.

TCA reported it is heavily booked for regular flights next week and extra planes will make the trip Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

All cautioned that plans depend on the outcome of Saturday's semifinal here between Bombers and Toronto Balmby Beach, ORFU champions. But with Bombers heavy favorites in the sudden-death semi-final, plans were taking pretty definite shape.

Want Uniform Football Rules

NEW YORK, (AP)—Coach Steve Owen of New York Giants and coach Harvey Harman of Rutgers University appealed Monday for standardization of football rules among pros, colleges and high schools.

"I would like to see colleges and high schools play under the same set of standards," Harman told the New York Football Writers at a luncheon.

"In high school a boy today plays under one set of rules and when he goes to college he has to do something entirely different. Since the colleges ultimately get the high school boys, they should see to it that the rules are made to conform."

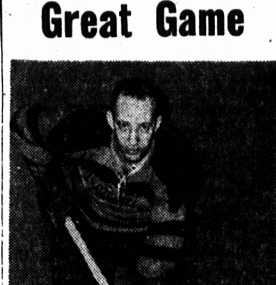

At present, United States high schools and pros have similar rules with unlimited substitution and the two-platoon system. The colleges have limited substitution.

Halifax, (CP)—Dalhousie University Shearwater Flyers Saturday advanced to the finals of the Nova Scotia Senior Canadian Football League against Stadacons Sailors.

Mont Joli Attempt To Re-Claim Hockey Players LeBlanc And LeChance

Hockey players, Bill LeBlanc and Gerry LaChance will remain the property of the Islanders and Mont Joli could be charged with "tampering" as the result of the Quebec hockey club's efforts to regain the two players over the week-end.

As the result of the confusion during the past twenty-four hours, the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association who usually manage to create a rhabur or two every season; went over the deep end once more and unwittingly gave the Islanders a kick in the pants.

The mix-up started when Mont Joli rebounded and were again admitted to their four team circuit. This occurred after they had sold and released the two players to the Islanders. They then proceeded to contact the players and urged them to return to Mont Joli.

Not only did they ask the players to return but told them they would be suspended if they refused to comply. The next thing the Islanders knew they got a wire from Charlie Campbell, President of the M.A.H.A. informing them that under no conditions would LeBlanc and LaChance be allowed to play against Sydney last night.

Ex-club President Frank MacDonald immediately contacted Roy MacDonald, President of the M.M.H.L. who in turn contacted Gene Connolly, Secretary-Registrar of the M.A.H.A. He found out that Campbell had been acting solely on the authority of a man named Dillo, Secretary of the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association.

In the meantime Frank MacDonald contacted George Dudley of the C.A.H.A. and the latter said that the Islanders had full rights to the two players. Roy MacDonald also stated that the Islanders were in the clear.

The Islanders last Saturday received a telegram from Mont Joli regarding the player deal. The read: "Forward money to Bank Nationale, Mont Joli. Are releasing players Bill LeBlanc and Gerry LaChance to Charlottetown Islanders."

1,500 Minor League Ball Players On Draft List

NEW YORK, (AP)—Anybody want to buy the Pacific coast league batting champion for only $15,000; a former big league 20-game winner for $10,000? A no-hit hurler for the same fee?

These and many others can be acquired at the annual major league draft Nov. 30 in Atlanta, Ga. The draft list, compiled and issued by the baseball commissioner's office, contains some 1,500 minor league players to choose from.

This year's crop includes such familiar names as Bob Dillinger, Clint Hartung, Gene Bearden, Don Kolloway, George Munger, Randy Gumpert, Howard Fox, Bobo Holloway, Allie Clark, George Wilson and Dick Sisler.

The list includes a number of good "new faces", too. As usual, Montreal's Royals and St. Paul Saints, Brooklyn's Triple A farm clubs, are loaded with promising players. Under the rules, only one from each club can be drafted, unless the player is designated as subject to unrestricted draft.

On Montreal's roster, for instance, are such eligibles as pitcher Ronnie Lee and Johnny Rutherford, touted only a year ago as ready for the Dodgers. There are such promising youngsters as Glenn Gorbous, who batted .335 at Pueblo; Oddie Hamric, who hit 18 homers and drove in 83 runs at Mobile; Ray Shearer, who batted .306 with 16 homers and 84 runs at Mobile; and Carroll Berlinguer, who won seven and lost two, striking out 61 batters in 91 innings at Fort Worth.

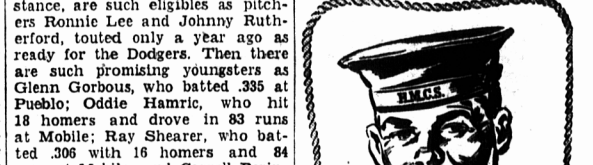

The St. Paul roster lists outfielder Ray Coleman, Jack Casini, a 324 hitting infielder; pitcher Bob Alexander, Bill Darden and Dan Stupor.

Prices range from $15,000 for players in the PCL to $10,000 for players from Triple A leagues; $7,500 from Double A clubs; $6,000 in class B, $2,500 in class C and $2,000 in class D.

Big Four Playoff To Be Televised

MONTREAL, (CP)—Announcement was made Monday that the Big Four football playoff will be televised for the first time.

Montreal Alouettes and Hamilton Tiger-Cats open the best-of-three series in Hamilton Wednesday. The second game will be played in Montreal Sunday and the third, if necessary, in Montreal Nov. 25.

Probers Take New Tack In White Case

(By Douglas B. Cornell)

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congressional probers took a new tack in the Harry Dexter White "Soviet spy" case Monday while awaiting former president Truman's "tell all" radio-TV report.

Chairman Homer Ferguson of the Senate Republican policy committee prepared to answer Truman on the ex-president spoke.

The Michigan senator said he would appear on the CBS-TV network in a question-and-answer session with Larry LeSueur, CBS commentator, in New York.

With the uproar over the White case still going strong, a Senate judiciary sub-committee began hearings to determine whether White tried to influence government policy along lines favored by Russia in the handling of millions of dollars worth of property seized from Germans and other aliens during the Second World War.
