Thompson - Barlow Wedding

A pretty wedding of interest was solemnized in Wellington United Church on Wednesday afternoon September 16, 1954, at 4 o'clock when Daisy Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barlow, was united in marriage to Maynard Henry Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson of Grand River, P. E. I. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. MacDonald, assisted by Mr. J. T. Waldron.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli in pastel shades and fern with nosegays of sweet peas on each window. The guest pews were marked with tiny white ribbon bows with long streamers and pansies. Mrs. Charles Allen, sister of the bride, presided at the organ. Mr. Lowell Barlow, brother of the bride sang, "The Lord's Prayer" immediately after the bride and groom entered the church and the Wedding Hymn "O Perfect Love," during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a nylon tulle over satin. The gown floor-length model with layers of nylon tulle over satin. The gown was a fashion ed with a fitted bodice, with lace insets complete with a chain link sleeveless jacket of Chantilly lace studded with pearls and iridescent sequins and peter pan collar. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion fell from a matching pearl studded tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and mums.

The bride was attended by Miss Joyce Edwards as maid of honor and wore a floor-length yellow nylon bouffant skirt and tulle jacket with matching halo and mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

Miss Blanche Day was bridesmaid and wore a floor-length mauve nylon bouffant skirt and lace jacket with matching halo and mitts, she carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Raymond Thompson while Lowell Barlow and Roger MacArthur of Arlington, P. E. I. acted as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a queen's blue gown with black velvet hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a wine gown trimmed with lace and black velvet hat and accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses. The groom's grandmother wore a light blue gown with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception for 50 guests was held at the Birch Hill Tourist Home, Summerside, which was beautifully decorated with mixed flowers. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom under an arch of orange blossoms and lily-of-the-valley flanked with white tapers in silver candelabra and low bowls of mixed flowers. Rev. A. J. MacDonald asked the blessing. The toast to the bride proposed by Mr. J. T. Waldron was fittingly responded to by the groom, Mrs. Harold Harkness, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the couple left on a honeymoon to places of interest in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. For travelling the bride changed to a blue faille dress with winter white shortie and white accessories, her corsage was of pink roses.

Previous to her marriage the bride was entertained at several showers in Summerside and Wellington at which she received many beautiful and useful gifts. The bride is on the staff of Stedmans, Summerside, while the groom is

Lot 14 U. Church Marks Anniversary

On Sunday, September 19, 1954, the Lot 14 United Church, which in September 1929 opened its doors for the public worship of God, observed its twenty-fifth anniversary. To the services came not only members of the local church but also former members residing elsewhere in the Province and Churchgoers of other denominations nearby.

At the morning service conducted by the Pastor, Rev. A. J. MacDonald, a warm welcome was extended to the guest speaker for the day, Rev. E. R. Woodside of Barhurst, N. B. who, seventeen years ago, concluded a successful pastorate on the Lot 14 and Lot 16 charge. The congregation listened with rapt attention to the inspiring Gospel message brought by this gifted preacher. A letter from Rev. W. E. Aitken of Dartmouth, N. S., during whose ministry this church was built and dedicated, conveyed warm greetings and a challenge to the people to emulate the zeal and devotion of those who laboured to build this place of worship and who through the years, have passed on to higher service. The choir, augmented by members of Bideford Choir, led in the service of praise and Messrs. Turner, MacWilliam and MacDougal of O'Leary, with Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam as accompanist, rendered two Gospel songs.

Before the hour for evening service had arrived the church was filled and to his hearers, Mr. Woodside, during the course of his sermon, made a strong plea for unity among the different communions of the Holy Catholic Church, so that the coming of Christ's kingdom on earth may be hastened. At this service Mr. G. R. Phillips of Tyne Valley, guest soloist, and the accompanist Mrs. Percy Birch, assisted the choir in the ministry of song.

Strange But True

By F. H. MacArthur
Did you know that few persons ever see a total eclipse because it takes three astronomical bodies to produce this effect, — the earth, the moon and the sun. While the earth is constantly swinging around the sun, the moon is constantly swinging around the earth though in a plane which differs from the plane in which the earth rounds the sun.

When the moon passes directly between the earth and the sun it casts a shadow toward the earth. If the moon happens to be close enough to the earth at the time (its distance varies from 28,000 to 480,000 miles) the shadow will actually touch the earth, and anyone standing within the shadow will see the moon's body cover the face of the sun. That is what we call an eclipse.

It paid Mrs. Catherine Bessee to go fishing. She caught two small bass in the stomach of a large one and a small ladies' wrist watch in a stream near Bethel, Maine. Here in the garden of the gulf our fishermen don't have such good luck but of course they do report plenty of tall tales of the big fellows that got away.

Would you say that a female who delivered milk was a milkman or a milkwoman? Well according to a judge in Hollis, Maine, there is only one name for it so he fined Mrs. Frances and Miss Lillian Southwick who have been tossing around the heavy cans and crates for the past seven years, $5 fines for illegal parking.

Did you know that the person receiving the Order of the Garter has the jeweled gadget actually buckled on his knee by the reigning king or queen?

When the recent order was bestowed upon Winston Churchill it was none other than Queen Elizabeth herself who buckled the jeweled garter around his knee. She then admonished him to fight valiantly and win any "just war" he may undertake.

The Board of Trustees being concerned at the cost of collecting outstanding hospital accounts have decided that as from October 1st, 1954, accounts will be made up and presented weekly.

All patients whose accounts are not guaranteed are strongly recommended to make a deposit on admission.

The Board would like to take this opportunity of urging all ex-patients who have money due to the hospital to make a special effort now to settle their accounts.

As always, the hospital is dependent on voluntary donations and these, however small, will be gratefully received.
