At a meeting of the Catholic Literary Union, held on Friday evening, 15th inst., the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this Society are hereby tendered to the Hon. John Costigan, Minister of inland Revenue, for his thoughtful kindness in presenting our Library with the series of the Records of the Dominion Patent Office. THE premises occupied by Mr. Patrick McCloskey, Pownall Street, have been inspected and pronounced free from smallpox. The following clean bill of health has been granted by Dr. Johnson: HEALTH OFFICE, Jan. 15, 1886. This certifies that I have inspected the premises occupied by Mr. Patrick McCloskey, Pownall St., recently quarantined on account of the infection of smallpox, and that all things required to be done to disinfect, cleanse and remove the same have been well and effectually done. RICHARD JOHNSON, M. D. Health Officer. WE call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Concert in aid of the smallpox sufferers, published in another column, to be held in the Market Hall, on Thursday evening next, the 21st inst. This is a matter which appeals to the sympathy of all classes of our citizens, who have always been ready to assist any charitable object, and we trust they will respond on this occasion. We have only to remind our citizens of the distress caused by the smallpox, to awaken afresh their sympathy for the bereaved poor. At a recent meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society, a committee, composed of Richard Walsh, Simon Bolger and J. J. A committee, consisting of W. C. DeBrisay, Simon Bolger and J. J. Trainor, was also appointed for the purpose of organizing branches of the Society throughout the Island—to be affiliated with the Society in this city. SMALLPOX.—Dr. Jenkins returned from Afton Road and Fort Augustus, on Saturday afternoon. He reports three new cases—making four in all—in the Gillan family at the former place. They were vaccinated four days previous to the symptoms appearing, and it is thought their cases will be mild. A Mrs. Campbell, also of Afton Road, has symptoms of the disease, but at present her case is doubtful. At Kelly's, Five Houses, all the patients are doing well. A number of the residents of Afton Road and Fort Augustus were vaccinated on Saturday, and the remainder will be attended to as soon as possible.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The Eastern Situation.

BRITISH belief in an Eastern war gain daily, despite the professed optimism of the Vienna press. The situation is in precise state of confusion and complication which any overt act may clarify. Russia has accomplished her great end, which was to restore her influence over Bulgaria. The Prince tried his best to stand out, and if English and Austrian backing had been steadfast he would have succeeded; but Austria's crazy diplomacy led her to support King Milan to lengths which forced Prince Alexander back into the Muscovite arms. He is now there, and there to stay. Russian officials are swarming into Bulgaria again, picked privates from every Russian regiment being drafted to serve as Bulgarian sergeants.

Canadian Notes.

Lady Macdonald has returned from her tour to the Rockies. Sir John is expected on Tuesday or Wednesday. Reports from the Northwest indicate that the recent statement of Indian uneasiness was got up by interested American Railway Agents. The Bank statement for last December shows an increase over the previous December of nearly ten millions in deposit, and in discounts of over three millions, and a decrease of more than three and a half millions in overdue notes and debts.

A Disgraceful Collapse.

The Times' cable says the collapse of Gen. Pendergrast's reputation in the matter of the Burmese invasion, is disgraceful. Details of it are coming in by mail. They greatly annoyed Englishmen by destroying the only possible exception save Lord Wolseley and Gen. Roberts to the rule of deadly mediocrity of the Generals of England. Warren will be sent to Snakin to get rid of him as a Liberal candidate in the next election, and it is possible that he may make a hit there by contrast with McNeill.

France's Colonial Policy.

DeFreycinet, yesterday, made a declaration in the Chamber of Deputies of the policy the new cabinet would follow. He said its Colonial policy would be less adventurous than that of its recent predecessors. This statement was received with cheers by the chamber.

The Jersey Bank Failure.

The failure of the Jersey Bank has caused several small failures, including that of Raulin Robin, a Newfoundland shipowner. Gossett, the Treasurer of the bank, who is also bankrupt, has been taken into custody on a charge of embezzlement.

Metal Railway Sleepers.

The London and Northwestern Railway Company has decided to substitute metal sleepers for the present wooden ones throughout its system. The change will give an impetus to the iron trade. Other railways will follow the Northwestern's example.

Greece Warlike.

The Ministry threatened to the King that they would resign unless he assented to an alliance with Serbia, and the maintenance of an army on a war footing.

Nitka Protests.

Prince Nitka, of Montenegro, has gone to Constantinople to protest against the Bulgarian union, and to demand an extension of the territory of Montenegro.

Servia Refuses to Bisbad.

A despatch from Belgrade says that Servian Government refuses to disband its forces on the ground that it desires to be protected from surprises.
