

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

OPENING SHOW DAY 8:00—Beer Bros.
GEORGETOWN RACES.—Races at Georgetown will be held at the Driving Park on Wednesday, 17th June next.

MAORIE.—Those interested in third degree work will remember the meeting this evening at 7.45 o'clock.
THE STANLEY arrived at Pictou about eleven o'clock this afternoon, and was to leave there on return to Charlottetown at two this afternoon.

W. M. S.—A meeting under the auspices of the W. M. S. will be held this evening in the basement of the First Methodist Church. An interesting programme has been prepared. Collection.

ACCIDENT.—A young man named Archibald Wilson, cut his knee very seriously last week at Bransford. Dr. Allan was called to attend him, as the wound bled very freely. Under skilful treatment the patient is doing well.

THE popular thing for gentlemen this season seems to be "Type" serge, almost every tailor finds it in great demand, but before buying see that the registered trademark "Type" is stamped every 2 1/2 yards. None other is genuine.

A GUNNING ACCIDENT.—Mr Howard Clarke, of Tryon, was out shooting yesterday when his gun burst, shattering his hand somewhat. His face was also discolored with powder, but we are pleased to hear that with good nursing and skilful treatment, he will soon be around again.

OBITUARY.—Mr Morell, of Tryon, died suddenly at his home yesterday morning at four o'clock. He had been unwell for some months, but his relatives and friends thought he would recover as the warm weather approached. The funeral will take place tomorrow, 18th inst, at 2 o'clock.

PIANOFORTE.—People are talking a good deal about Pianos just now. It is said that the performance on Friday, April 26th, is going to be the very best thing ever given under the auspices of the Odd-fellows. Tickets will be on sale Monday morning, commencing at 10 o'clock. Secure yours early.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The train that left here for Tignish on Monday morning, did not reach its destination until Thursday morning, remaining at O'Leary overnight. The train from Tignish did not arrive in Charlottetown until about nine o'clock last night. A heavy snowstorm "up west" caused the delay.

SALVATION ARMY.—A large audience witnessed the presentation of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" at the Salvation Army barracks last night. The pictures were hung upon the canvas very clearly, and the explanatory matter was clear and interesting. During the course of the lecture several entertaining vocal and instrumental selections were given.

CRAPAUD NOTES.—Mr John Saunders, of the firm of Saunders & Newsum, is visiting this place today, purchasing fat cattle for spring trade. Mr Saunders states that times are brisk. He expects to purchase about forty head of cattle while on this trip, leaving $1,000 or $1,200 among the farmers of this section.

CORNELIUS LOWTHER, Esq., who has been very ill for the last few weeks, is recovering. We hope to see him out in a few days.

WERE COMING FORWARD.—The London correspondent of the New York Town Topics in his last week's letter has the following to say: "You remember what a vague Lily Dougall's 'Beggars All' had some years ago? Her new novel is called 'The Merman', and is a idyllic love story, the hero of which is a doctor whose family nature becomes enabled by love for the wife of another man. The scene is laid in Prince Edward's Island—a new ground for the novelist of to-day."

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr Archibald Howatt, of Tryon, came over to Crapaud last evening about six o'clock, with the intention of staying at the house of his brother-in-law, Nathan Percival. He was accompanied by Mr Wilson Howatt, an arriving at Mr Percival's he complained of pains in his legs and not feeling well, and had to be assisted into the house. Medical aid was sent for. Mr Howatt gradually grew worse and died at one o'clock this morning. His wife and family were sent for and arrived in time to see a loving husband and father pass away. The family and friends have the sympathy of the whole community. The immediate cause of death was apoplexy.

MUSICAL.—The following programme was rendered at the twenty-third annual of the Bethovens Club at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Houlston last night:

- 1. Sketch of the life and work of Handel.
2. Tenor solo, Lascia Chio Pianza, opera del.
3. Violin and piano duo, Largo, from opera of Xerxes, Handel.
4. Vocal solo, Angela Ever Bright and Fair, Handel.
5. String orchestra, Minuet from 13th suite, in D minor March in Battle, from Samson, Handel.
6. Vocal solo, with orchestral accompaniment, Come unto Him, Messiah, Handel.
7. Chorus and orchestral accompaniment, Then Bound about the Starry Throne, Samson, Handel.
8. Two violins, flute and cello—Handel's Water Music.
9. Tenor Solo—The Dream, (Haydn)
10. Flute Solo—Melody, (Gounod).
11. Violin and Piano Duo—Overture to La Nozze Figaro, (Mozart)
The programme of the previous recital at the residence of Charles Hyndman, Esq., was as follows:

- 1. Sketch of life and work of John Sebastian Bach.
2. Piano Solo—Loure in G, Bourree, from third Violin Solo. Suite.
3. Vocal Solo—Jesus Saviour, Passion music. Bach.
4. Orchestra—Gavotte and Rondo, 6th violin sonata. Two Gavottes from 6th sonata for violinello. Bach.
5. Soprano Solo—My heart ever faithful. Bach.
6. Piano Solo—Preludes and Fugues. Bach.
7. Violin and Piano Duo—Ave Maria. Bach's air and Gounod's variations.
8. Vocal Duo—Wanderers' Night Song. Rubenstein.
9. Violin and Piano Duo—5th sonata. Haydn.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon one drunk was disposed of for $4 or 10 days. Yesterday the hearing of the charge of liquor stealing preferred against Frank McAttee and Donald McPherson was further adjourned until Monday.

To J. E. McDonald, D. D. S., Summerville, P. E. I.
Dear Doctor,—I am so well pleased with the work you have done for me, that I will take it as a special favor if you will give publicity to this letter. I positively assert that after an experience extending over twenty-two years under the hands of many dentists, you are the only one who ever extracted a tooth for me absolutely without pain. The ten teeth removed for me at one sitting did not hurt a particle, as Mr. James Dawson of Tryon, who was present at the operation, heard me testify. The man who invented your method should be knighted.

Meeting of the Grand Division at Ellerslie.
The regular quarterly session of the Grand Division was convened at Ellerslie, on Friday, April 12th. Owing to railway arrangements now in vogue, the delegates did not reach the above-mentioned location until 3.30 p. m., consequently the time for deliberations was limited and long speeches suppressed. After the opening ceremonies and the obligation of visiting members of sub-divisions, senior candidates in waiting were initiated and invested with the badge of membership. The following committees were appointed by G. W. P. on Finance, Bro. Carruthers, Hopwood and Howard; on the State of the Order, Bro. Samuel Simpson, Colin Wright and Arbing; committee for Public Meetings, Sister Wadman, Bro. Kirby, Edwin Simpson and Drostal. Reports were submitted by G. W. P., G. S., G. F., and Grand Superintendent of Juvenile work, each reported progress in the department of work under their charge.

The G. W. P.'s report strongly recommended union among temperance workers and the discussion of temperance questions in our subordinate divisions, so that in the event of temperance legislation we might be able to deal with it gently with the best reasons brought before us. The following were gleaned from the Grand Scribe's somewhat lengthy though interesting and instructive report: Divisions organized during the past quarter, 2 increase of membership, 185 total membership, 1904. On motion the above mentioned reports were adopted and handed over to the committees authorized to receive them.

The report of the finance committee was on motion adopted, after which this session adjourned until seven o'clock.
Seven o'clock, p. m. Immediately after opening of the G. W. P. called for the committee reports. The chairman of finance reported that they had examined the Grand Treasurer's and the financial portion of the Grand Scribe's report, and found them to be correct. On motion their report was adopted.

The committee on the state of the order reported that they had examined carefully the G. W. P.'s and G. Scribe's reports, and were pleased to know that there had been an increase in membership, and that the G. W. P. had been able to visit so many sub-divisions, that the vendor had not been appointed for Summerville and was not likely to be, but they regretted to learn of the delay on the part of the Government to appoint the nominee of District Division No. 1 to the position of License Inspector for Prince County also of the dismissal of Bro. Wellington Mathew, Inspector for Queen's County.

On motion, their report was adopted, and the following resolution passed:
That this Grand Division leave with surprise and regret the dismissal of Wellington Mathew from the position of License Inspector for Queen's County; and considering such dismissal a severe blow to Scott Act enforcement in this Province, we take this opportunity of placing on record our strong disapproval of the arbitrary and uncalculated action of the Government."

It was moved, seconded and carried, that the hearty thanks of this Grand Division be tendered to the members of the Welcome Division and the residents of Ellerslie at the close of the public meeting, for the kind hospitality shown to the delegates by them. After this the Division closed and immediately proceeded with the public meeting, being favored with a crowded house. The following programme was successfully carried out:

- Opening Remarks..... Chairman G. W. P.
Address of Welcome..... Bro Geo Walsh
Reply..... Bro Samuel Simpson
Address..... Bro Arbing
Music..... Bro James Carruthers
Recitation..... Miss Maud Montgomery
Address..... Bro Carruthers
Recitation..... Bro Edwin Simpson
Address..... Bro Kirby
It will suffice to say that the above programme was carried out in a manner worthy of those taking part in it.
Selections worthy of special mention are: the recitation by Miss Montgomery; this was a rare treat and it received an encore which was responded to, and the musical selection "Come On," by Bro Carruthers, ably assisted by Bro Kirby, proved itself to be in every respect worthy of its title.
After the above mentioned vote of thanks was presented the meeting closed by singing the Doxology.
Ellerslie, April 12, 1894.

PERSONAL.
The Rev Father Burke, of Alberton, went east to Georgetown today.

Mr. J. Albert Brennan, of Tignish, is in the city, combining business with pleasure.

Mr. Joseph A. Macdonald, of Gardigan, leaves for California in a few days. He was presented with an address by the inhabitants of Gardigan, where he is very popular.

The Rev Fathers Donald M. McDonald, Tignish, Donald B. McDonald, Rustico, D. J. Gregory McDonald, Summerville, James Eneas McDonald, Hope River, and J. M. McMillan, St. Theresa's, are in the city.

We learn that Dr. Brown will leave Charlottetown on Thursday to take up his residence at Chicago, where he will practice in the specialty of chronic diseases. Dr. Brown has been appointed medical examiner and director of the National Co-operative Association of Illinois. In a wider sphere and improved position he will have ample opportunity to exercise the medical skill which he possesses, and with his numerous friends in this Province, we trust that his efforts will be crowned with success. Dr. Brown has been moved to make the change partially upon account of his own health, to which the climate of the west seems to be more suitable than that of his native province.

Dressmakers and others will please note that we keep the new Faber Chamois for interlining sleeves, skirts, etc. It is cheaper than hair cloth or other fancy linings. It is in a variety of colors and description, and will give better satisfaction than any other. Hair cloths, serims, grass cloths, comelines, alisias, book muslin, new cord bindings, for skirts, and all other dressmakers' furnishings. The best in the city, at lowest possible price—Jas Paton & Co. a 17 3rd d.

WRITTEN FOR THE EXAMINER.

EASTER SUNDAY.
"I am He that liveth, and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore."
Now the time of gloom and sadness
From our earth has passed away,
Grief is swallowed up in gladness
On this happy Easter day.

As the sun He riseth glorious,
Mighty Leader from the fight,
Conqueror and Prince victorious,
Spring of life and Source of light.

Behold the rays of morn were breaking,
Lo! the faithful three, unseen,
Toe to tomb their way were taking
Of the lonely Nazarene.

But when they, the faithful-hearted,
Reached the place, lo! angels said:
"Seek Him not with those departed,
He is risen from the dead."

At the word they haste to meet Him,
As foretold in Galilee,
Falling at His feet they greet Him
When His face once more they see.

So we, too, would come before Him
Pouring forth our homage meet,
And with angels-blessed adore Him,
Falling prostrate at His feet.

Never more the tomb's dark portal
Shall His sacred Form contain,
Now in bliss and life immortal
Our Inseparable God reign.

Now before His throne transcendent
Endless praise and incense rise,
Where he pleads in love transcendent,
His most holy Sacrifice.

Those Five Wounds shine forth in splendor
Whence outdrew that cleansing Flood;
Heaven and earth unite to render
Praises to the precious Blood.

Beauty unsurpassed is beaming
From His crown of glory now,
Where the precious Blood was streaming
From the thorns which pierced His Brow.

Those once bruised and saddened features
Now gleam forth with radiant light,
While all pure, angelic creatures
Veil their faces at the sight.

There, where love with praise is blending,
Where the Feast is never o'er,
Bring us, Lord of life unending,
To that bright celestial shore.

WILLIAM E. ENMAN.
