"C. W. L. CARD PARTY—The regular weekly card party sponsored by the Montague C.W.L. was held on Monday night in the Armories, with a large attendance. The door prize was won by Mrs. Andrew Landry, the ladies' prize by Miss Helen Landring and the men's prize by Mr. Dan Condon. Lunch was served by the committee in charge.

Georgetown Ladies Are Entertained

"A large number of the members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion at Georgetown, were guests of the Montague Auxiliary at the Legion hall Monday evening. A brief business period was conducted by the president, Mrs. Neil Hooley and several committees read their reports. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Jessie Shaw and were approved as read. Mrs. Gerald McCarron read the financial report, which showed a substantial balance at the bank. Mrs. Shaw reported that two bereaved members had been remembered and that a veteran in the P.E.I. Hospital was also suitably remembered by the auxiliary.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by everyone. The program featured contests and games under the direction of Mrs. Neil Hooley and Mrs. Archie Hickey, and a lively singing with Mrs. Atwood MacDonal as piano accompanist. A delicious buffet lunch was served by a committee of the Montague Ladies.

On behalf of the visitors, Mrs. Walter Soloman spoke of their pleasure in being present and expressed the hope that they could have the Montague Ladies as their guests in the near future. A very successful evening of fellowship was brought to a close with the singing of "God Save The Queen."

Hockey Tonight At Montague

"Tonight at the Montague rink hockey fans will see some of the old time Primrose players in action when Montague's married hockey warriors cross sticks with those still in the bachelor ranks. Old timers such as Tid MacEwen, Stan Peardon and Pete McCarron will pit in an appearance with their experience with the youthful stamina of their younger opponents.

Two father and son combinations will be in the lines, as Tid MacEwen being opposed in goal by his son Walter while Stan Peardon will be matching hockey savvy with his son Keith of the opposing forward line.

This contest will be preceded by a contest between Murray Harbor North and the Montague Reserve Army.

High Quality At Stock Show

Very high quality among the entries at the Fat Stock Show and Sale was reported by the culling committee who worked hard yesterday in selecting the choicest steers that will be offered for sale tomorrow. It is reported that out of the first twenty animals weighed in, there was not one reject.

The animals offered for sale must be under three years of age and weigh not less than 650 lbs. and not more than 1,200 lbs. Any animal, which for reasons of rejection such as weight or finish can be bought privately. Junior Club members will have an opportunity to offer steers for sale. To be eligible in this class the boy or girl must be a member of a Junior beef club and must have shown the steer in a regular calf club competition during 1954.

This evening at 7:00 p.m. Prince Edward Island beef breeders will have an opportunity to hear Mr. D. J. MacKinnon, from Ontario, who is the president of the Beef Council of Canada. Mr. MacKinnon has just spent a couple of days at the Amherst Fat Stock Show and Sale and one of the

Montague First Aid Class Is Presented Pins

"At a dinner held in the Rainbow Room of the Bison Restaurant last evening, the Montague first aid class comprised of Messrs. Neil Hooley, Colin Landry, Horace Fraser, Buddy MacIntyre, Athol Robertson and Richard MacLean, were given certificates and pins by president of the P.E.I. Red Cross, Mrs. Harry Cudmore, qualifying them as instructors for having successfully passed their first aid course.

Mr. Neil Hooley acted as chairman for the evening and welcomed the guests, who included, beside Mrs. Cudmore, Dr. J. M. Murchison, chairman of first aid on P. E. I., Judge J. S. DesRoches, secretary of first aid on P.E.I., and chairman of disaster relief for the Montague area, and instructors Mr. Gilbert Clements and Miss Peggy Bears.

Mrs. Cudmore and Dr. Murchison congratulated the graduating class on their accomplishment and on the exceptionally fine knowledge of first aid they had shown in their exams. Each of the guest speakers remarked briefly on the extensive first aid work being done on P. E. I. and stressed the important part it plays in the general welfare of the community.

The members were each given a first aid haversack and were informed that stretchers and blankets will be sent to the class in the near future.

The Montague class was organized some time ago by Judge DesRoches and received instruction under the capable direction of chief instructor Miss Charlotte Gordon, R.N., assisted by Mr. Clements and Mrs. Walter Bears.
