Former Islander Dies In Fredericton, N.B.

The many friends of Mr. Maurice Kenny will deeply regret his passing in Fredericton, N.B., on July 14, in his 90th year. Although not in good health for some time his death was unexpected and came as a great shock at Kelvin Grove, left Friday morning to motor to Quebec to visit his father, Mr. Fred Court who is employed at Gaspé. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Fred Court, his sister Lillian and brother, Everett - Bur.

Mrs. Charles Clark, Summerside, returned from Halifax on Saturday evening after spending the past week visiting her husband who is a patient in Camp Hill Hospital. While in the city she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huestis.

Miss Grace Campbell, R.N., of the Camp Hill Hospital nursing staff, Halifax, arrived home Saturday evening and is spending her holidays with her parents and friends in Kensington. She was accompanied from Halifax by Mrs. Charles Clark, of Summerside.

Mrs. George E. Hickey, who spent the past two months with relatives at Port Hill, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Paynter, Kelvin Grove and of Mr. and Mrs. James Hickey, Darnley, and left on return to the United States with her son, Mr. Norman Hickey. Mrs. Hickey and family on Tuesday, July 28 - Bur.

to his family and friends. The late Maurice Kenny was the son of David Kenny and Ann McInnis of Waterford, P.E.I., and during his younger days owned and operated a fine saw mill. By his fine qualities of mind and heart, his optimistic temperament and loyal disposition he made many warm friends both in P.E.I. and N.B. who will learn with deep regret of his passing.

About 40 years ago Mr. Kenny moved to N.B. where he became engaged in the agriculture industry until retirement 17 years ago. There are left to mourn the loss of a devoted father, five sons and two daughters: Bernard of Halifax, N.S.; Wilfred, Portland, Me.; Richard, Alberta; George in Arizona; Edward, Isabel and Viola of Fredericton. He is also survived by one brother and two sisters, Mrs. George Bagley and Mrs. Patrick Britt of Portland, Maine, and James M. Kenny of Waterford.

His largely attended funeral was held from the home of his brother, James Kenny, Waterford, to the Immaculate Conception Church, Palmer Road, July 16 where his Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Emmanuel Richard who also officiated at the grave.

Funeral services were held at Fredericton to Waterford were his sons, Mr. Bernard Kenny of Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kenny and his grandson, Mr. Charles Kenny of Fredericton.

Other out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Robert Kenny, Charlottetown; Mrs. R. L. Kenny, Medford, Mass.; Mrs. Emmet MacIsaac and Mr.

Easterby-Crosbie Wedding

Baskets of spring flowers decorated the altar of Holy Trinity Church at Edmonton, Alta., recently for an attractive wedding ceremony when Miss Ilene Willow Crosbie became the bride of Mr. Dennis Robert Easterby.

Rev. W. M. Nainby performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. David B. Crosbie, formerly of Bonshaw, P.E.I., and the son of Mrs. May Easterby, all of Edmonton.

Mr. Crosbie gave his daughter in marriage. For the nuptials the bride chose a beige match-box style suit. Her hat was a pink melusine model and she wore pink accessories. A white gardenia and rhinestone ear-rings were her only adornments.

Miss Bernice Tweter was the bride's only attendant. She wore a blue tailored suit complemented with navy and white accessories and white straw hat. Her corsage was of deep red roses.

Best man was Mr. Eric Easterby and Mr. David Asley and Mr. Allan Mawhinney ushered the guests.

Following the service a reception for 30 was held at the bride's home. A triple-tier wedding cake, set on a mirror base and surrounded by green fern, centred the bride's table which was laid with a lace cloth. Tall white tapers in crystal and Mrs. Frank Aylward of Bedouque.

scones flanked the cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. J. Ewing, Miss Hazel Ewing and Miss Helen Dehid. Mr. John MacIntyre proposed a toast to the bride. For a honeymoon to the northern U.S., the bride wore her wedding suit topped with a blue tweed coat. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Easterby will be at home in Edmonton.
