UPEI ACCESS-ABILITY

The UPEI ACCESS-ABILITY committee identifies, addresses, and makes recommendations on various issues relating to people with disabilities at UPEI. This committee operates under the umbrella of the Department of Student Development. It consists of representatives from a variety of administrative and academic departments at the university and also benefits from representation for the PEI Council of the Disabled.

The committee is seeking INPUT from the University community regarding issues relating to people with disabilities at UPEI. These issues may include: accessibility of specific buildings on campus, availability of resources dealing with issues relating to people with disabilities, designed parking, and scholarships for people with disabilities.
