

sea-passage, are now in heaps of ruins. We hope that the Admirals see no serious obstacle to following up the destruction of Sweaborg by an immediate attack on Helsingfors, a resolution which the insignificant loss in the recent action and the high spirits of their crews must eminently encourage.

THE SOLDIER'S INDIFFERENCE TO DANGER. As a proof of the heedless indifference to danger which some of the men acquire from constantly moving amongst shot and shell, the following example, which occurred last evening, may be mentioned.

THE ROYAL VISIT. The Queen makes her public entrance into Paris to-day, and the reception which she will receive cannot fail to be heightened by the news which has just come to hand from the Baltic.

THE CHORUS. A correspondent, writing from near East Point, says:—"The farmers here have begun to gather in their harvest, which is unusually good. The weevil has attacked some fields of wheat, but the injury done is comparatively trifling."

THE GREAT AMERICAN HAIR TONIC.

BOGLE'S celebrated Hyperion Fluid, for the growth and preservation of the Hair is well known to be without a rival on this continent. Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair restorative, and their doom has been sealed, whilst Bogle's Hyperion Hair Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on conquering and to conquer.

GENERAL DEBILITY.

How many thousands suffer from the most troublesome complaints arising from weakness and derangement of the natural functions; the food taken into the stomach is imperfectly digested, and consequently gives little nourishment to the system, the whole economy of nature sympathizes with the difficulty, the languid, morbid, and in some form, is developed, indescribable symptoms and sensations deprive the sufferer of the common blessings of existence.
