THE universal cry—"Bad Roads!"

7,000 rolls room-paper just opened at J. & W. Beer's.

In Montreal, last week, there were nine deaths from small-pox.

It is rumored that Queen Victoria will visit Canada, if possible, in 1879.

The market was not largely attended today. Prices are the same as on Tuesday last.

LORD DUFFERIN, speaking the other day at a dinner given in Belfast, drew a bright picture of the future of Canada.

HON. MR. LANGEVIN will likely receive K. C. M. G., an honor not yet conferred on any Canadian.

Dr. Clarke Johnston's Indian Blood Syrup for sale, wholesale and retail, at Apothecaries Hall, Queen Square.

The London "Advertiser" says that private telegrams received in London estimates killed and wounded in operation in Khyber Pass at 300.

THREE more Molly Maguires are to be hanged next month. Pennsylvania has determined to make murder odious if it has to hang every miner in the State.

GOOD.—Notwithstanding the storm of yesterday, both the St. Lawrence and Princess of Wales made trips to the mainland and back, as usual. Very well done.

MR. SMART, foundryman, of Brockville, and Mr. Waterman, machinist, of London, have received crosses of the Legion of Honor from the French Government for exhibits at Paris.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, Daniel Campbell, drunk and incapable, was fined $2 or 8 days; Joseph McIsaac, for the same offence, was fined $1 and costs, or 4 days.

DRUNKEN INDIANS.—Notwithstanding the penalty of $200, to which persons furnishing Indians with intoxicating liquors are subject, we occasionally see drunken Indians in the street. It is to be hoped that for the good of these poor people the law will be vigorously enforced.

In addition to the Islanders—noted yesterday—who attended the Drawing Room Reception held by the Governor General and the Princess Louise, the following young gentlemen paid their respects at the levee which was held the following day, viz:—George A. Ings, L. W. Watson, W. B. King.

A. L. PALMER, Esq., Counsel for the defence in the McCarthy case, read in court on Tuesday, a despatch from Daniel Stewart Marshall, of this city, which states:—"I slept at Waverley House on night of 12th October; was not in bed till nearly 2 o'clock. Saw McCarthy there; he treated before he left the house. I shipped next day in the 'J. V. Troop' for Cardiff; think my evidence would help prisoners. I only arrived last night. Heard nothing of the murder till then. If wanted, telegraph immediately." This man Marshall called at our office this morning and informed us that he never telegraphed to Mr. Palmer regarding the matter; that he returned from Shediac on Monday last; that he never shipped in a vessel called 'J. V. Troop' and that on the 12th of October, 1877, he was in the employ of Messrs. Dodd & Rogers, in this city. Some one has evidently been hoaxing Mr. Palmer.

A BET OF FIVE YEARS STANDING.—We are informed that five years ago, Mr. Thos. E. Smith, late Station Agent at Point du Chene, and Mr. Robert Moffatt, of Dalhousie, contracted a bet of $8, Mr. Smith betting that the next Governor General of this Dominion would be either in the person of the Marquis of Lorne, or some member of the Royal Family. The money was deposited with Mr. Wm. Weldon, of the Weldon House, who was to pay interest on the deposit until the appointment of the present Governor-General, and then hand the principal and interest to the winner. This Mr. Weldon did last night in his hotel, now in Moncton, handing over $10 to Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith is certainly to be congratulated on his success as a supernatural prophet—in his line he beats Vennor as a weather prophet all hollow.—Moncton Times.

On Monday, the 25th inst., before four Justices of the Peace at Montague Bridge, John J. McDonald, William Edmunds, William Coughlan and John McRae were convicted of selling liquor without license, and fined in the sum of $20 each and costs. The Advertiser says:—"A short turn like this should be a warning to others inclined to trample upon the law with impunity. Also, at Georgetown, on Saturday, the 23rd inst., before William Sanderson, Esq., Patrick Cluney and Mary Flinn, both of Cardigan Bridge, were convicted of dealing out some of the 'ardent' without license, and fined in the sum of $20 each and costs—averaging six dollars each. This is the only method of ridding the country of such pests."

A BOY named Thomas White met with a serious accident on Malpeque Road yesterday morning. He was returning to the city from Spring Park in company with another driving a water cart which contained about 300 gallons of water. When passing in the vicinity of Hyndman's Brewery the axle of the cart broke, the wheel on the side the boy was sitting came off, the boy and horse fell to the ground, and the whole weight of the cart and its contents fell; and rested side-wise on the boys legs. It was thought, until the cart was removed, that his legs were severed from his body, which, no doubt, would have been the case had there not been a small hollow in the road where the cart fell. As it was, his legs were very seriously bruised and after being relieved he was not able to walk without the assistance of two persons.

Insane from the Use of Tobacco.

A point for Anti-tobacco users is afforded in the following paragraph, which we take from an exchange.—"A peculiar case of mental hallucination has just appeared at Battle Creek, in the person of George Addison, a young man about eighteen or twenty years old. He is a cigar maker by trade, and has been in the habit of smoking from 10 to 20 'green' cigars daily. He has not drunk liquor sufficient to produce delirium and yet he is a raving lunatic, and suffers all the horrible pantasmagoria that pertains to the fully developed tremens. He has worked in and used tobacco ever since his early boyhood. Of late years he has used it extensively, principally in strong cigars, and it is supposed that the nicotine has so poisoned and shattered his mind as to partly paralyze it, thus producing the disorder. He has been taken to the insane asylum at Kalamazoo for treatment."
