—"SIDE, YOUNG ADULTS MEET"—Mr. Keith Johnston was appointed president of the Young Adult Group of the Summerside Presbyterian Church at the annual meeting on Tuesday evening in the church parlor. The retiring president, Mr. Kenneth Walker, conducted a brief devotional period, consisting of the reading of the Christmas Story in St. Luke 2, the singing of three Christmas carols, prayer and The Lord's Prayer in unison. A most gratifying financial report was submitted and a verbal president's report given. Other members of the executive appointed were: vice-president, D.R. Morrison; secretary, Miss Kaye Johnston; treasurer, Mr. Carl Moase; press secretary, Mrs. Keith Johnston; visiting committee, Mrs. Carl Moase, Mrs. Kenneth Walker and Mrs. Clarence Marchbank. A social hour followed when refreshments were served by Mrs. Beaver MacDonald, Miss Johnston and Mrs. Eldred Simmons.

—"SIDE HOME AND SCHOOL GROUP"—The December meeting of the Home and School Welfare Group was held in the Summerside School Library on Tuesday evening with the president, Mr. Ivan Vaughan, in the chair. Samples of the Canadian Home and School Magazine were on display. The following recommendations from the executive were brought from the Public Relations Department: 1. In the Public Relations Department Miss Jean MacFadyen was appointed to report for The Guardian and Mrs. C.H. Stewart for The Journal. 2. That each family bring a cup and saucer to the next meeting as a donation to the Association for the Lunches. 3. That enrollment be received for the First Aid Course to be held in the New Year. 4. That progress from the Summerside Musical Festival Committee be reported and that volunteers from the Home and School be solicited. Mr. Frank Cameron, who attended the executive meeting of the Provincial Home and School meeting in Charlottetown, gave a report, and discussion followed. Mrs. T. Clarke reported for the ways and means committee and it was decided to sponsor a show in one of the theatres. Mrs. Hazel Dystant's class won the hamper of apples for the greatest attendance of parents at the meeting. Mr. A.S. Hopkins was in charge of the program. Miss Dorothy Ellis gave an interesting talk on Appreciation of Art for adults, also an account of her art teaching with the junior grades in the school. A social hour followed when refreshments were served with Mrs. A. S. Hopkins as lunch convener.
