Postmaster Is Named For S'side
Ross Downe, who is currently assistant postmaster at Charlottetown, has been appointed postmaster at Summerside. He will be filling a position vacated by William Griffith, who transferred to Charlottetown to serve as postmaster in the city. Eric MacKay, who has been the acting postmaster in the Summerside department since Mr. Griffith came to Charlottetown, will retire July 1 from the postal service, leaving unfiled his position as Summerside's assistant postmaster.

LINKS WERE ILLEGAL
LONDON (CP) — A singing group called the Four Pennies, who lost their gold-plated penny cufflinks in a scuffle with fans, find they cannot replace them. The Royal Mint says it's illegal to do so.

Here is a floor plan that gives you maximum livability for a minimum amount of space. The designers have made it spacious, functional and beautiful. Read more and see the actual drawings at the Kitchen Landing. The half of the floor plan is devoted to a well proportioned sleeping wing. Here you have plenty of light and air and abundant closet space. It also completes this section. Laundry is in basement where additional storage could be located. Design is available for both Brick and Frame construction.

Largest Class Ever Graduates At MRHS

MONTAGUE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
A total of 81 students graduated last evening to make the largest graduating class in the four-year history of Montague Regional High School. The exercises were largely attended.

Guest speaker Hon. Dr. L. G. Dewar, minister of education, congratulated the students on their success. He told them that education was a fundamental human right and that a broad general education was a necessity today. He said they must continue to learn through the school of experience and the continued reading of good books.
