The Infallible Remedy!

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS' DURATION CURED. Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854, to Professor Holloway. Sir.—I feel abundant and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your infallible Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to around—so severe was the attack. I used several reputed remedies without deriving the least alleviation to my misery. At last, determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request security. I am, Sir, yours respectfully (Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

ULCERS IN THE LEG.—REMARKABLE CURE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854. To Professor Holloway. Sir.—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deep sores and old wounds, and the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were used unsuccessfully; and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about six weeks, she was completely cured, all the sores and wounds had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known. I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant. (Signed) EDWD. TOMKINSON.

Sir.—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There are several holes in her breast, and she has all the devices and strataegems I tried would not help them, but it assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible as it was, at last recourse I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she preserved with her own hands, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected. I am, Sir, yours truly. (Signed) HENRY MALDEN.

MISCELLANEOUS. A SPEECH IN TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—At the recent N. Y. State Convention, a Mr. Charles Robinson, of Orleans county held forth this wise. He is a veteran in this cause, and has evidently been a faithful worker in all things:—"I don't profess to have done but little in the cause; but I profess to have worked as steadily and as faithfully as any other man in the State. My influence has been but limited; but I have worked in my own house and in my own family. I have worked my whole life over against my own house and my better half who is with me, though not one in the convention can say the same thing. We have got seven teen children—[loud and prolonged laughter]—seventeen children, gentlemen; and I speak of this to let you know that if I ain't done as much as any body else outside, I have in my own house, for we are all totaliters to the backbone. [Loud applause and laughter.] They are scattered through six States, and are all doing as well as I am doing the work in their own houses to [laughter] There are only two or three of their husbands out of the whole squad, who are not totaliters."

Two of the West-end banking firms, Messrs. Ransom and Co, of Pall mall East, and Messrs. Bouvier and Co, of the Haymarket, acting upon the recent suggestion that a combination of the smaller establishments would be advantageous both for themselves and the public, have resolved upon an amalgamation, and the business of the two houses will be conducted under the address of Ransom, Bouvier, and Co.

HURRAH!—This word is very Slavonian, and is commonly heard from the coasts of Dalmatia and Behring's Straits, when any of the population, living within their limits are called on to give proof of courage and valor. The origin of this word belongs to the primitive idea that every man that dies heroically for his country goes straight to heaven (HURRAH!—"to Paradise"), and it is so 't'hat in "he shock and ardour of battle the combatants utter that cry, as the Turks do that, of "Allah!" each animating himself by the certitude of immediate recompence, to forget earth, and to contend death!

AN IMPOSTOR.—Th. a Cork paper have a story of an impostor who had obtained money and food from more than one of the peasantry, by pretending to be a messenger from the other world. He persuaded on a comfortable farmer that he was his son, dead for some years; the farmer gave him a pound, with which he absconded. He induced the women at another house to believe that he was one of the "good people" (fairies), and they gave him 6s 6d as a fee for "bringing back Denis Reordan." He has been committed for trial.

ETERNITY.—If all lovers, when they swear to love for ever were really put to the test, there would be very few of them who would not be heartily tired of their eternal fidelity long before the first twelvemonth was over. In a lover's vocabulary, Eternity means a week, a day, an hour, a waltz, a look, a whisper, a squeeze of the hand, a pressure of the foot, according to the lengthy period during which his love has lasted. A lover's Life is composed of Eternities. A fashionable lover is still in the open bloom of his youth, if he has not lived beyond fourscore Eternity, a minute.

No Bad Reason.—Some of the Russian officers declare, that the reason why they did not understand to their guns at Sebastopol, was because they no longer required any cannon-aid, (cannon-ade.
