

MT. STEWART FISHERMEN DO WELL

Trout fishermen of Mount Stewart can't get to wet a line young enough and there is no retiring age limits. As soon as they are big enough to carry a rod and ambious youngsters toddle down to the Railway bridge in the company of the veterans and frequently the youngsters show the oldsters how it is done. Above (left) Master Boyce Affleck, age 3, proudly displays the two and a half pounder he hooked during the week-end. The husky fisherman required the assistance of his older brother to land the beauty. At right Mr. Daniel MacDougall, also of Mount Stewart, displays the pair of two and a quarter pounders which he landed at the Railway bridge in the village.

LITTLE SANDS

Mr. Robert White, Wood Islands East, is at his home there for a few days and plans to return to the Provincial Sanatorium soon. Folks are glad to hear of his good health now and will be glad for him to be coming home soon to stay.

Mrs. Donald (Lillian) Livingstone, Hopefield, who is teaching at Parkdale, was at her home on Sunday. Her two sons, Raymond and Donnie with their wives, all of Charlottetown, were at their home in Hopefield on Sunday, also, and returned to Charlottetown Sunday evening.

The S.S. Prince Nova, arrived at Wood Islands on Saturday to get ready for her first scheduled trips on May 1.

The fishing season has opened and some boats were seen out. What a very cold, foggy wet day on the water for the fishermen. All wish them good fishing this season.

Mr. Robert White accompanied Mr. Lemmie MacLean, Little Sands, on his return to the Provincial Sanatorium on Tuesday. Lemmie had been visiting at his home for a few days.

Mrs. Bruce MacLeod and daughter Mary of Little Sands have gone to Belle River to cook at the fishermen's factory.

The roads here are drying but are terribly rough. The west end of Little Sands road has not yet been scraped and needs it badly as the traffic has increased a lot since fishing started and the "Prince Nova" started her summer run between Wood Islands and Caribou.

Residents here were glad to hear that Mr. Dan Nicholson and his sister, Miss Flora of Murray River, formerly of Little Sands, were both well.

Little Sands folks will be sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Ed. Miriam of Dorchester, Mass. recently. Mrs. Miriam was formerly Katy Bell MacPhee of Little Sands. To all her relatives sincere sympathy is extended.

Another death, which we are sorry to report is the passing of Mr. Raymond Sylvia of Pictou, N.S. He too had relatives in Little Sands.

Residents here are glad to have the fish peddlers around again with fish. The two meat men have also returned to their route through here with meat twice weekly.

Later on Wednesday afternoon the road machine scraped the Eastern part, (from the County line east) of the Little Sands road, thus making a good improvement.
